LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 31, 1886.

Newspapers just now are already voluntarily as to what the first business of Government ought to be. Of course, Statesmen pursue an elaborate obstruction, they may succeed in to some extent the flow of legislation they will also earn for themselves and ridicule of all parties. Supply, must be obtained; and it seems that any faction in the House will seriously to delay it. Lord SALISburgh's programme, which does not provide legislation before the Spring, will be accepted; but it is regrettable that we shall have to wait so long a measure dealing with Ireland. This sadly requires to be legislated for sooner the new Administration see the necessity for it the better. Things will be settled on a firmer basis than they are at present, or else we shall have to reconsider ourselves to a general deterioration of the country in which we are interested. The

Mr Coroner Cleary held an inquest to-day at the Workhouse touching the death of an old man named James Supple, who had been an inmate of the infirm ward, and who died on Thursday from heart disease and congestion of the lungs; and the jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes.

A cricket match was played on the County Ground to-day, between Abbey School Old Boys and the Limerick County C.C. In the first innings, the Old Boys scored 150, and the County team 93. The band of the Leinster Regiment was on the ground, and under the leadership of Bandmaster Brown rendered a number of pretty pieces.

The Examiners for the Royal University of Ireland have agreed to recommend that the following candidates be adjudged to have passed the second University Examination in Arts:—

 Stephen's Green, Dublin. From Mungret College, Limerick—Messrs James J. Barry, Edmund Cahill, David Carroll, Edmond Fitzgerald, Francis L. Loughran, Michael Maher, Patrick Mahony, John O'Brien, Jeremiah O'Connor, and Robert J. Riordan.

Amongst those who received invitations to the Grand Military Ball given in Fermoy by Sir Augustus Warren, Colonel Donegan, and officers of the 3rd Batt. Royal Munster Fusiliers, were the following:—Mr and Mrs R. Harrison, Fort-lands, Charleville; Major and Mrs Kiggel, Cahara, Glin; Captain Fenton, Leinster Regiment, and Mrs Fenton; Mr W. S. Riach, Leinster Regiment, and Mrs Riach; Captain and Mrs Harrison, Castle Harrison, Charleville; Major and Mrs Butler, Limerick; Mr, Mrs, and Miss Lyons, Cork.

We would direct particular notice to the extensive programme of sales to be held on Saturday next by Mr F. W. McCarthy, auctioneer, at his salesrooms, 60, George-street, commencing at one o'clock. Some very valuable farms and several lots of house property will be submitted for competition. The sale at Cahir Guillamore will be held on Tuesday, the 10th August, and catalogues can be had at 60 George-street from this date. Particulars of the above and other sales will be found in our advertising columns this evening.
