With reference to the attack made upon the hall-porter last week by a pauper, and the consequent resolution of the guardians to request the presence of four policemen at every meeting of the guardians, District Inspector Jennings wrote saying he would send the resolution referred to,
to the proper quarters.

The Postmaster-General wrote acknowledging the receipt of resolution passed by the guardians at last meeting of the Board with reference to the American mails.

Mr Hall said he was glad to see that the large towns in England were seeing Irish affairs as they were seen by Irishmen. He could not see how the Government could take tenders from vessels of any foreign country to compete with home built ships.

After the transaction of routine business, the Board adjourned.
