

ings look very hopeful and mrods of the chase. As dents which took place in unty towards the close of they did to the complete reference to them at any essary, nor could it serve Hunting is a pastime in al classes take a lively re no more ardent sports- themselves. It is at all to join in the chase, and ould be more happy to see he members of the Hunt. vantages to be gained by of the pleasure it affords. in it as well as those s-on. It gives consider- artizans and other classes, f circulating money in a That must be apparent to for a moment be doubted. ng should be done to s of those gentlemen who eater for the sporting com- oming season. The practice prevailed, and which it is a end, of throwing personal question was, it must be fair to a large number of om nothing could be said, rived of amusement simply individuals rendered them- to the National League n or other. This was cer- row-minded policy; it did y more than, perhaps, pri- tisfied; while on the other ite amount of harm, particu- o breed hunters. We have hat fact already, and we are ajority of the farmers now f petty and selfish opposi- on of hunting. A great deal absentee landlords, and the in sunnier climes, and that imagine that those who are ing at home and spending think, would have had a beneficial effect.

St Mary's Cathedral—October 3rd, 15th Sunday after Trinity—Matins, 11 o'clock; Venite, Turner in A; Chant, Turle in F, Barnby in D; Service, Stewart in G; Hymn, No 300; Preacher, the Dean; Communion Service, Stewart in G. Evensong, 3.30 o'clock; Chant, Turle in A, Sir G Elvey in D; Service, Stewart in G; Anthem, "Lone Wilderness," Sir J Goss; Preacher, Rev Canon Greeg; Hymn, 343, 3rd part.

It was reported in Listowel on Thursday night that a house, the property of a man named Sullivan, living at Glashnacree, about ten miles from the town, was stabbed and seriously injured by a knife or some other sharp instrument. The reason assigned for this outrage is that Sullivan supplied cars to the police and bailiffs who carried out the evictions on Miss Thompson's property at Byrecroumpare. Head-constable Carroll visited the place, but made no arrests.

The remains of the late Dr O'Connor, P.P., Askeaton, were interred yesterday in Mount St Lawrence Cemetery. The funeral service, at which the Bishop, Dr O'Dwyer, presided, was held at St Michael's Church in the forenoon, and the subsequent procession to the cemetery included those present at the service in question and a large number of the Roman Catholic clergy and laity of the city. The deceased clergyman had nigh attained his 90th year.

Mr Charles Sullivan, the well known Irish Comedian, wiif commence on Monday next an engagement of five nights at the Theatre Royal. Mr Sullivan has always been most popular in Limerick, and we anticipate for him bumper houses during his stay, particularly as the pieces to be placed on the boards are those in which Mr Sullivan appears at his best. "The Streets of Dublin" will be produced for the first time in Limerick, and is certain to be most successful.

Sergeant Thompson, R.I.C., of Croom, has just resigned from the force after a faithful servitude of thirty years. For thirteen years he was stationed in Croom, and the zealous manner in which he discharged his official duties met with the entire approval of his superior officers, and the magistrates residing in the district. The ex-sergeant, who is in possession of unexceptional testimonials from several of the principal residents in and about Croom, has been appointed to a trustworthy position in an extensive commercial house in this city.

The average annual death-rate represented by the deaths registered last week in the sixteen principal Town Districts of Ireland was 21.9 per 1,000 of the population:—Armagh, 5.2; Belfast, 20.5; Cork, 24.7; Drogheda, 25.4; Dublin, 24.5; Dundalk, 4.4; Galway, 26.9; Kilkenny, 21.6; Lisburn, 33.3; Limerick, 21.6; Londonderry, 10.7; Lurgan, 20.5; Newry, 14.0; Sligo, 9.6; Waterford, 20.8; Wexford, 29.9. The deaths from the zymotic diseases in the 16 districts were equal to an annual rate of 3.7 per 1,000, the rates varying from 0.0 to 8 of the districts to 4.6 in Waterford.

A Kilrush correspondent states that on Thursday Mr Keane attended at Kilrush to collect rents due on the estates of Marquis of Conyngham, Mr HS Vandeleur, Mr E P Westly, and Mr

Messrs Wright, Mercer, an affirmative side of the que: O'Loughlin, John Nelson, shaw spoke on the negativ question was declared lost

ANOTHER MA

Probably the whole fabri shaken to its very foundati and prominent leaders of their slippers when they re at an early breakfast, that stating that "Considerabl police circles owing, it is issued by Dublin Castle obtain accurate and exact several branches of the Na ing." The paragraph that the detective force and altered with this of men have been appointed. it audaciously asserts that issued instructions callin available information with of the League, details of matters, and so on. Th graph reaches a climax wi that the Executive are m with regard to the Natic

When Rip Van Winkle tional sleep of 20 years in betook his way to the villa he saw many new and heard much that was ne corded that he immediat of the same to the differe fact of the matter is, that orders were given to the part of the country to pe mation and details as different branches of the I pursuance of this duty, w strolled up towards the S Wednesday night, as they to ascertain, probably, if made in the officers the joke. Seeing a ne hanging about the door w ing was held, they thoug information easily thro troubling the secretary, accosted him. Whether tion was given or not, we state; all we know is i found his way to the through the country the League was about to be

Of course the present energy for which it is some intentions with re knows, but if anything h manner set forth by at all likely that Limeri first city where the p become known. We h first read the astounding foregoing suggested its solution. We institut