

her master. I have heard of hing through rapine' to—egration. You cannot en-ie truth of words which fell at leader. Even those cheers music to the ears. Luckily ach the goal. Where is that o now? They have marched rs and beating drums into the it hon. gentleman the member , and now under his command arch through disorder to Home voice of the country issued its last election, and we obey it. re true to the mandate they the country. The defence of nce of the Union, and we ask ve us the necessary power for oth."

Riordan, A M D, and Mr London, have arrived at the Castleconnell, for the spring ancellor has ben pleased to ap-ge John Minchin, D L, M A, Dunkerrin, to the commission of e county Limerick.

ising columns will be found the Boat Club Christys Committee to that gentleman's reply, also a s Anna Russell in presenting him souvenir of her recent concerts in ng salmon have been capie past week, Doonass fishery; lb, and 32lb; Summerhill and ery—four, 29lb, 27lb, 22lb, and fishery, one, 10lbs; Woodlands 5lbs and 17lbs; Landscape fishery, seen by advertisement that the

 of the Protestant Young Men's l be held on Tuesday evening next. as erroneously stated in our last ive the general report, and elect e. We anticipate a large atten-ers.

seen by advertisement that the
 as in aid of the Wesleyan Mis-y will be preached on Sunday, 10 a.m., and 6 p.m. The preacher y will be Rev J. W. R. Campbell, vening, Rev John Jones, returned m India.

k Harriers (Mr T Cooney's) will day, the 31st inst, at Derryknockour 12 o'clock. On Monday, the Cooney will enlarge a deer at Kiland, on Thursday, 7th April, he ag hunt at Altavilla, the residence triffin. Hour one o'clock.

CULTURAL HALL.—On next Satur-

FUNERAL OF DR BUTLER.

The funeral of Dr William G Butler, senior, resident physician of the Limerick Union, who died at Queenstown on Thursday last, took place this morning. The remains arrived in Limerick at 10.30 o'clock by the Cork direct train, and were immediately transferred to a hearse and conveyed to Baheen, some four miles from the city, where the interment took place. Notwithstanding the inclement state of the weather, rain having fallen in torrents during the morning, the funeral cortege was exceedingly large and representative, all classes and creeds from city and county attending to pay a last tribute to the memory of a young gentleman cut off in the bloom of manhood, and at the commencement of a prosperous and honourable career. The coffin, which was of polished oak, and decorated with immortelles, placed on it by loving hands, bore the following inscription:—

W. G. BUTLER, M.D., Died
 March 24th, 1886,
 Aged 26 years.
 R. I. P.

The chief mourners were:—Mr Wm Butler, father of the deceased; Mr Edward Butler, uncle; Rev Dr Meehan, P.P., Rev Dr Moloney, V.G., St Munchin's, Rev Mr Moloney, Cappa, Mr Michael Meehan, P.L.G., cousins; Mr O'Reardon, Messrs Foley, &c. The general public comprised—The Mayor, the City High Sheriff, the County and City Sub Sheriffs, Rev R O'Kennedy, C.C.; Rev Mr Hanrahan, O.S.A.; Rev T Halpin, Donoughmore; Mr W L Micks, Local Government Board Inspector; Mr Charles Monck Wilson, Clerk of the Union; Mr David Sheahan, Master do; Dr J R Nolan, Resident Medical Officer; Mr T Hance, Pharmacist, and other officials. The guardians included—Mr Wm Spillane, J.P.; Mr J G Kelly, J.P.; Mr J M Namara, Dr J O'Shaughnessy, J.P.; Mr J M Inerney, Mr A Harte, Mr Hayes, Ald Reardon, D.V.C.; Mr D F M Namara, Mr B O'Donnell, Mr J Humphreys, Mr R Nix, Mr George Smith, Mr O'Farrell, &c., &c., Mr Brennan, rate collector; Mr Richard Harris, do. also present Mr J Nolan, Kilbane; Mr R Power, J.P.; Mr W J O'Donnell, Mr Stephen O'Mara, Mr T Joyce, Mr Solomon Frost, J.P.; Mr Egan, Patrick street; Mr Barry, William street; Mr A Hall, jun., Mr P M Namara, solicitor; Dr Nolan, Crescent; Dr Barry, Dr Shanahan, Dr Bourke, Dr F O Connor, Dr R O'Connor, Dr Graham, Dr Counihan, Dr Ryan, Castleconnell; Dr Holmes, Mr Holmes, Mr J Nash, J.P.; Mr R Nash, Mr James Dundon, Mr O'Friel, Mr Johnston, V.S.; Mr W Bassett, Mr John Ryan, solr; Mr Hastings, solr; Mr J Guinane, J.P.; Mr Nelson, Mr Coffey, R.O.; Mr Quin, solr; Mr J H Moran, solr, and other members of the legal and medical professions; Mr E H O'Callaghan, Mr Hartigan, Mr J M Mahon, Mr Flynn, Cruise's Hotel. After a long line of pedestrians followed some forty-six carriages belonging to residents of city and county.

At the graveyard the Service was conducted by Dr Moloney, assisted by Fathers Halpin, P.P., Hanrahan, O.S.F., and Tierney, C.C.

SHERIFF'S SALES AT THE COUNTY COURTHOUSE.

To-day, a few minutes after two o'clock a large crowd assembled in and about the precincts of the County Courthouse, in anticipation of the arrival of Mr Hobson, sub-sheriff, to proceed with sales to realise executions for...
 I've sight seen of one of the landlords concerned.

lecture on "Our Industries." H great importance and advantage industrial pursuits, and referred in progress effected by other countr and manufacture, even in a special allusion being ma Phonicians, Babalonians, and In the present day most countries they could to extend their trade a He quoted from political econom to prove that of every pound expe facture fifteen shillings represente He referred to the history of the trade, and also the lace manufactu He touched next on the wooller country and showed how very suit and the climate were for that indu attemps had been made by Eng to crush the trade, but it was st He recommended the establishr manufactories, which ought to b there was plenty of raw materia sent went to England and the came back in a manufactured co had the Shannon with its abund water power and numerous othe helping and fostering this bran Allusion was then made to the b the immense advantage it was population of the city. He refer importation of boots and shoes representing about £50,000 or £ If a factory was established for cheap boots and shoes in Limeric employment to about two hundred dition to those already engaged. If capitalists would not come for their sincerity with regard to th city a company should be forn shareholders having an interest The National League was a pow organisation, and had done wond he had no doubt if they took up question of Irish industry much done. He combatted the state people of this country were lazy the qualities necessary for indus facturing enterprise and success, proof of his argument to the cre of Irishmen in other lan got a free field for t and when we might see Irish legi the most brilliant in the unit England, Ireland and Scotland; v boast of as long a list of grand a bishops, Irish bishops and cler found in any country in the wor

Mr Stephen O'Mara proposed a to the lecturer, for his admirab discourse. He believed the grea with the shopkeepers but with t selves who patronised English g box of matches, in preference to newed his offer to subscribe £ establishment of a local boot fa greeted to say that the people had money showed no dispositio industrial undertaking at home. Mr W J M'Donnell seconded th which was supported in warm by the Mayor, and passed, Mr I in suitable terms.

The meeting then adjourned.

FOOTBALL.

CRATLOE V. NEWMARKET-

This match took place on