

law reform, great ernment in Ireland, and Old Man could not or time; and so the oppor-a reconciliation. Mr.
 the Ministry, which is of the ablest financiers most complete agreement HARTINGTON and Mr.
 nothing has yet hap-these cordial relarecent information seems supposition that since has determined to the GLADSTONIANS have ideas, and that a confetwo great sections of the lead to good results. Mr. now is that the party might the Irish Question in the namely, first, the Land; ernment; and, thirdly, any-e thought advisable in the self-government in Ireland. discussed, and, if possible, a ion decided upon before the of Home Rule would be nsidered probable that if ected on the first two subould be relegated to a very AMBERLAIN has asserted—is not known—that Mr. y approved of Mr. CHAMa practicable substitute for ject of which Mr. GLAD-
 c. If this be so, Home Rule of practical politics, at least come; and, doubtless, the re something to say on that and firm by their principles, beral party is hopeless.

he Harbour Board was held not attending.

ge will be found a report of th Saturday night, which was nation, but least of all to Prince Edward of Saxe-Weimar, Commander-in-Chief of her Majesty's forces in Ireland. In reference to the recent proclamation of the Plan of Campaign the National League branch at Kiltely has passed the following unique resolution:—"That we consider as mere moonshine the bogey proclamation of her Majesty's impecunious cousin, the Prince of Saxe-Weimar, and we beg to remind that gentleman that in carrying out the Plan of Campaign with firmness and determination, we feel no more deterred by the boom of his German patronymic than did our forefathers before his hireling countrymen—the Hessians, Branden-burgers, and Brunswickers—in the days of our former struggles."—Cork Constitution.

FUNERAL OF MISS SPILLANE—Yesterday morning the remains of Miss Agnes Spillane, second daughter of our respected fellow-citizen, Mr William Spillane, J.P., George-street, were interred in the family vault, Mount St Lawrence cemetery. Notwithstanding the early hour (eight o'clock) at which the funeral took place, the cortege was large and representative, and included a large number of the principal merchants and traders of the city. The chief mourners were Mr Wm Spillane, J.P., Mr John Spillane, and Mr Phillips, son-in-law. The Most Rev Dr O'Dwyer, Roman Catholic Lord Bishop, officiated, and was assisted by Rev J O'Shea, Adm. St Michaels, Rev J O'Shaughnessy, C.C., and Rev Mr Donor. Messrs P.M. Carthy & Son, George-street, were the undertakers. The coffin, which was of solid polished oak was casket shaped, with ormula brass mountings, and engraved breastplate. The deceased lady was only eighteen years of age.

CEREMONIES AT ST JOHN'S CATHEDRAL.—The Mayor (Mr F. A. O'Keeffe), attended by his mace-bearers and the high-constable, bearing the sword of state, attended High Mass in St John's R. C. Cathedral on New Year's Day, in accordance with the usual custom. In addition to the Mayor, there were present—Aldermen J F Walker, D Landers, M Ryan, J Counihan, J.P.; T Gaffney, J.P.; Town Councillors S O'Mara, ex-Mayor; T M Cregan, J.P.; P J M'Sweeney, J Hayes, D F M'Namara, T Hartigan, L O'Keeffe, ex-High Sheriff; D Kennelly, S O'Flanagan, S M'Swiney, Maurice Lenihan, J P; M G Dowling, J Anglim, Patrick Herbert, David Begley, Michael Spain, E H O'Callaghan, J J Browne, C.E. Nearly all the members of the Corporation were attired in their robes. The Town Clerk, Mr Corbett, city surveyor, Mr Woulfe, Treasurer, and Mr DeCourcy, water works secretary, were also present. His Lordship the Most Rev Dr O'Dwyer, delivered an eloquent and impressive sermon. After the service had concluded the Mayor and the Corporation passed through the sanctuary into the sacristy, where they were received by his Lordship, who wished them all which considerable pected, has fallen th finitely postponed, ow Executive Committee Theatre Royal; and which has arisen, Mr racteristic liberality tributed the sum of £ is to be hoped that followed by the publ fears in reference to an institution will be

THE MAYOR OF GL.

The following let-Gladstone, on the oc his birth-day, has be Mayor of Limerick:

"Mayor,
 Li
 "SIR,—As newly e on this day, and on sending you with t Hawarden, on 4t convey my congra fellow-citizens on th day.

"We gladly obser your speedy return measures of politi the greatest States pass into law, and t two nations will cea for the future gover once serviceable a honor to be, sir, yo
 "

"To the Right
 stone, Hawarden G
 To-day the follo received in reply fr

DEAR SIR,—I th expression of your of my birthday, an I beg the convey fellow-citizens.

The meeting her my mind, and th occurred have bee couragement to th express.

May God prosp which I believe th three kingdoms to the honor to be de

The Worshipfu
 Limerick.

THE PORT
 Yesterday a me