KILKEE CAR DRIVERS DEFYING THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.—A good deal of excitement prevails at Kilkee in consequence of the combined action of the carmen of that town, the majority of whom in a meeting decided to drive the policemen in future to and from evictions in spite of the orders of the National League and the surrounding branches. Accordingly on Tuesday all the policemen were driven home to their respective stations from Kilkee by the car drivers. After the Moveen eviction on Wednesday, in Kilrush, the outside police were refused either cars or lodgings.

A NEW DRESS FOR

A Glasgow lady having a dress faded on account of its age, was persuaded by a friend to try the celebrated DIAMOND DYES, and delightfully she found, after dyeing her dress, that she had a garment as good as new at the small cost of sixpence. The simple to use with such satisfaction was induced to dye other articles of dress, stockings, ribbons, feathers, etc.—and so she replenished her wardrobe at a very slight expense. The
