

CLERGYMAN IN

9 o'clock great Parliament street,
being heard from through the street a severe struggle appears that Captain has been formerly a prominent Home Gardens, London, described as a at the Grosvenor ing in a cab when between them. It is a dispute Captain pistol out of his le. The ball forgaiter which Mr strate the flesh at mediately on the
the College street Dunne was charged having the pistol e in his possession nt was committed n.
NT. of shooting at with ated yesterday be-rthern Divisional ho described him-Higginson Whyte-
on at Kingstown met by Captain J a railway carriage, ing run away with his prisoner. At to get into a cab, m Hotel, then to a afterwards to the Court. The com-blackened, swore n several times on oot him, and ulti-Parliament-street, s found imbedded ound him, and the a pistol in his pos-ated that his name l that he adopted it name when he the widow of the the well known that he had ruined that he had telelin to meet him.

Lincoln Regiment
as Adjutant of the iment, at Navan 2nd Battalion, has Major Owens as and he will take ary next.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—Madame Celebrated Guinea Corsets (black, 25s) obtained from her Local Agents, Messrs and Co. (Limited), Limerick.
Cannock
(Dec 10)

We are requested to state that the embroidered cloth and banner screen raffled by Miss Dartnell (for a friend) at Messrs McBirney and Co yesterday was won by Mrs Shaw, Roxborough.

In the case of Colonel M'Adam, landlord, and Wm Hourigan, tenant, heard a few days since before the Sub-Commissioners at Limerick, the area was erroneously given in our report as 5a 1r 8p, instead of 10a 1r 8p.

The catalogues of the extensive sale of horned cattle, sheep, &c, to be held on Tuesday and Wednesday next at Barrington's Bridge are now ready, and can be had at Mr McCarthy's office, 60 George street, Limerick.

THEATRE ROYAL—We would again direct the attention of our readers to the extraordinary attraction provided at the Theatre Royal next week in the farcical comedy "Muldoon's Picnic," which will undoubtedly afford a genuine treat to all lovers of innocent mirth and humour, together with songs and dances, which form part of the programme.

KILLALOE DIOCESAN EXAMINATIONS—The result of the medal examinations for 1887 is as follows:—In the senior grade Martha Mooney, parish of Nenagh, secured the Bishop's gold medal. Louisa Jones, parish of Roscrea, came within two marks of the successful candidate, and was awarded a prize of books by the Bishop.
In the junior course, Adelaide Taylor, parish of Finnee, secured the first, and Lillie Skelton, parish of Stradbally (Castleconnell), the second silver medal. These medals were grants given by the late Mr F Sheppard, of Roscrea, and have been kindly continued by Mrs Sheppard.

FUNERAL OF THE MOST REV. DR. CARBERY.

To-day the remains of the Most Rev Dr Carbery were conveyed from Cork to Limerick by special train, arriving here at 3.15 o'clock.
The remains were accompanied by several clergymen and laymen from Cork, and were received here by a large number of the citizens including a great number of clergy and laity of the city. Though a hearse was in waiting for the remains of the deceased prelate, the coffin was borne on the shoulders of the people in processional order to the Dominican Church, where prayers for the dead were recited. On to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock a solemn requiem Mass will take place, which will be presided over by the Bishop, Most Rev Dr O'Dwyer.

every credit for his enterprising a the less also for providing emplo tradesmen at a season when it was required. The frontage of the cor a very superior class of brick, i four large windows, which are while the top of the building is m by terra cotta finials and other Outside the baths is an iron railing, and entrance had by an iron platform, work of this description being su firm of Messrs Harrison Lee and S entrance door is the ticket office, structed in a very artistic style of and the windows therein are of a frosted glass rarely seen in the c the office is a handsome polished d the "cooling room," which is a ve and thoroughly ventilated apartm vided with the necessary requisites in length, 28 in breadth, and 15 f to ceiling. The walls and ceiling with varnished wood, suitably or there are in the compartment 26 c suitably upholstered, and provided screens. The room is lighted lo Wyndham lamps, and at night loo attractive. At the far end of the near the entrance to one of the hot a splendid plunge bath, 15 feet by containing five feet of water. Thi pretty enamelled tiling, and curv Killaloe marble, supplied by Mr L to the bath is obtained by a crimso doorway from the hot room jus This latter apartment we next ente door, and in common with the building, found it to be a very s ment, the dimensions being 23 fee 50 in breath, with a height to ceil The ceiling is cone-shape, the w mented to the height of seven feet tiling, and the floor, as is general this storey, is laid in tessolated ti form. In this apartment is a fount filtered water, constantly running, may use for drinking purposes. Th rated from the hottish chamber of si ornamentation, by a dimmed gl wrought iron frame, resting on which is tiled in the same materia apartment alluded to. The chamb over with the same description ported on iron girdles, and the hot from the furnace through a pertu shape. The floor is similarly tiled hot room. The accommodation altogether of 24 spring couches. O room is the shampooing roo spacious apartment in which handsome marble slabs on tin There is an ample supply o cold water into a needle or spray ba is also every requisite on the m principle suited to this department. of the ticket office, we should hav three tepid and reclining baths wi