

until Friday next. The considerable importance, and public attention has been extent it warrants. Such as the proposal of newing the port may have a in the commercial interest. If, as is not unlikely, ve been added on to those revealed, the increase may For a time the new dues n increase in the revenue from commerce; but we a temporary increase and by a decided reaction. e admitted, is not, for pular port; nor is the universal favourite with too, is on the wrong side special disadvantage as and Waterford in its lasgow, Liverpool, and ; therefore, that could be ficiency and popularity of t is needed, and urgently its own against her rivals melancholy example of re important place of trade imerick, shows that it is to decline and take itself lie have not yet been inds certain changes in the e been made. The discuss- n held in private, and the told that the schedule is hey may gaze on it admir- t, after which the whole Act of Parliament. This ct, so vitally affecting the of Limerick, has not been isticism, and therefore its . It must be insisted on arbour dues is a retrograde ie effect naturally of driv- rom our docks and quays. nes, Waterford nearly so, are not so high as those k. As an example of the reasing the dues, take one ely, American flour. Now, marked, by JUBAL WEDD. All the papers were read at the conference, and as they are now published at quite a nominal charge—1d per each, or 8d per dozen—they should enjoy a most extensive circulation. The promoters of improved dairy farming certainly deserve every credit for their energetic and already very successful efforts.

Lord Inchiquin has left Kingstown for England.

There will be Divine Service in Trinity Church on Thursday evening next at 8 o'clock.

The Munster Winter Assizes will be opened in Cork by the Right Hon Justice Murphy on the 7th December.

The Mayor, accompanied by Mr John Guinane, J.P., visited Mr Doughty, political prisoner, in the County Gaol to-day.

The Kilrush Board of Guardians, it is stated, now have a balance at the wrong side of the ledger of over £1,990, the amount of outstanding rates being £3,241.

Sir Augustine Fitzgerald has handed over to the Representative Body a sum of £5,000 for the purpose of endowing the parish of Kilnasoolagh, or Newmarket-on-Fergus, in the County Clare.

We regret to announce the death of Major Croker, Trugh Castle, which has taken place in Dublin. The remains will arrive by the 1.15 p.m. train, to-morrow for interment at St Mary's Cathedral.

A correspondent states that the number of Burgesses in the Borough of Limerick, from 1887 to 1888, is as follows:—Castle Ward, 36; Abbey, 33; Irishtown, 43; Custom-house, 48; Market, 55; Shannon, 39; Glentworth, 46; Dock, 72.

We regret to have to announce the death of the Rev Canon Smyth O'Grady, A.M., Rector of Athlacca. The deceased gentleman had been since 1850 a member of this Diocese, where his period of service has been exceeded in length by only two surviving clergymen.

Some misconception having arisen with reference to the gentleman examined at the coroner's inquest held in the Treaty Stone Hotel, on Friday last, we have been requested to state that the witness in question was not Mr Samuel Moore, of Leamy's School.

On Yesterday Dr Cleary, coroner, held an inquest on the body of a male infant found in the river at Cahircornish on Sunday morning by Mr Geo Devane, R.O. A post mortem examination was made by Dr Connolly who gave evidence to the effect that he found the skull fractured, and that on raising the left parital bone he found an effusion of blood on the brain. A verdict was found accordingly.

and other classes of every creed a sermon was delivered by a the Society. Mr Scarr was 60

THE NEW TURKISH BATHS.—

Eden Terrace, has erected a bath for the purposes of Turkish bath Bridge. For the past seven engaged twenty men at remun it would appear that from tin had ground for dissatisfaction. the masons have left off wo unexplained reason, and that the completion of the baths causing Mr Taylor, of course, inconvenience. It is said that on two or three occasions before legal proceedings will take pl with the matter. We express merits of the case, but we sh open, for employment ou availed of by the trades and the great dearth of labour whic Limerick in common with ev the country.

GARRYOWEN FOOTBALL CLUB

their practice match on Satu the field was anything but "Blue 'uns," yet some splen nessed by a fairly good crowd 4 sharp the "grand old man" when some hot rough and tumb A series of scrimmages took pla half play, but after that the was done on the loose. The t by Mr J O'Sullivan (captai Stokes (president). O'Sulli emulation between the admir balling. The following are (O'Sullivan)—J Fogarty, T H E Murray, J Gale, J F Barry, rowes, M Ryan, T Doyle, J Hurley. For (W L Stokes)—J Fitzgerald, P J Rea, Joe Mc F Ormostan, Joe Fogarty, E O' N Collopy, and E Donnellan. race of 100 yards took place, w easy win for O'Sullivan. *

MORTALITY STATISTICS.—T

death-rate represented by the last week in the sixteen princi of Ireland was 25.3 per 1,000 The deaths registered in each o alphabetically arranged, cor following annual rates per 1,00 Belfast, 22.3; Cork, 23.6; Drogh 31.3; Dundalk, 17.5; Galway, 2 Limerick, 13.5; Lisburn, 14.5; Lurgan, 46.2; Newry, 10.5; Slu ford, 18.5; Wexford, 12.8. Th principal zymotic diseases in th equal to an annual rate of 4.6 p varying from 0.0 in 9 of the d Wexford; the three deaths fro tered in that district comprisin Among the 96 deaths from all in Belfast are 7 from measles, 1 from typhus, 5 from whoopiu