

nd letters of credit and communications ed to THE MANAGER
LE.

CHRONICLE.

NOV. 29, 1887.

the suppression of to have been held on most beginning to be Why the authorities Limerick demonstra-
is exactly similar to tery, Dublin, at which e speaker, is a matter an we tell why bands nitted to parade the hilst the same was rick. When it was Government intended is, a proclamation was burday by the Mayor not to collect in the the cemetery, The ictory" for the people, itizen to be a peace ing day. Early on e, a troop of the 3rd ies of the Warwickassed in Bank Place, the demonstration was ary were under arms, ed into baton and rifle nder Colonel Perse, t another large force command of Captain R.M. The force num-d were under County sheep on the lands of Mr Wm Cotter, grocer, under a writ for rent due to the Marquis of Conyngham.

TRANSFER OF A RESIDENT MAGISTRATE.—Mr J M Kilkelly, R M, Ennis, is under orders to be transferred from thence to Drogheda. While in Ennis he discharged his official duties with great satisfaction.

The Court of Queen's Bench yesterday refused an application made on behalf of the prisoners charged with the murder of Head-constable Whelehan to have the venue changed from the county Wicklow to Cork or Sligo.

On to-morrow evening (Wednesday : St.
Andrew's Day—Intercession for Foreign Missions) the Rev J B Radcliffe will preach at St.
Michael's Church. Divine Service at 8 o'clock.
Subject—" St. Andrew : his call and mission."

COMMITTAL FOR SHOOTING AT A BAILIFF.—At a special court held at Ennis on Saturday, under the Crimes Act, before Mr F G Hodder, R M, Michael M'Inerney, of Rylane, farmer, alleged to be eccentric and of weak mind, was committed for trial at the ensuing Cork Assizes, for firing a revolver shot at John Lyons, sheriff's bailiff, while in the execution of his duty seizing cattle under a warrant of the courts.

DEATH OF A COUNTY LIMERICK LADY.—In our obituary column will be found the announcement of the death of Mrs Selina Harding, after a long and painful illness, wife of our respected townsman, Mr Michael Sheehey, chemist, brother of the late Eugene Sheehey, Esq, Limerick. Mrs Sheehey was daughter of the late John Harding, Esq, Bristol, England, and sister of Hannah Harding, linguist and writer, Alice Town, South Africa, also sister of Ellen Harding, late wife of Rev Mr Moffat, Missionary, King Williams Town Cape. Miss Harding was well known to the best families in Limerick and Birr, Queen's County, Ireland, having held the high position of governess in the family of the late Marquis of Cunnigham. Her many friends in England and Ireland, where she was so well known, will learn with regret her early demise at the age of 57 years. She arrived in New Zealand in February 1864, with her family of which she leaves three daughters, and one son, and seven grandchildren to mourn her loss. — New Zealand Mail.

aroused by Mr Blue's drollery, and l to the echo, until the President house that the gentleman would before the evening had concluded. who next came forward, is to be cong his highly finished and most express tation of "Rock'd in the Cr Deep." In this he took the house c storm, and in response to an impe repeated the last verse of this splen pianoforte duet "From Foreign executed to perfection by Miss W and Mr Gibbons, and then came onc of the evening by Mr Joseph Stew a few hours notice, came forward as for the Rev Mr Clarke. His beautif heard to great effect in his interpreta son," which aroused the greatest ent almost unnecessary to add Stewart was vociferously encoi reply gave a sympathetic rendition a green hill far away." Mrs Bevan so triumph in "Many a year ago," gramme was brought to a fitting Dugald Blue's comical reading, "Barr trip to Kilkee," which excited roars from beginning to end. The Presid gratulated the Lodge on the great s reunion, and Mr Gibson followed by ladies and gentlemen who sustai gramme, making especial reference t who had so kindly given his service notice. He thanked the other Lod co-operation, and added that nex intended holding a Masonic Ba'll hoped would rival those of article kin held in the city some eighteen y most interesting evening was then k close by the rendition of the Natic in which the audience heartily join Gibbons conducted the reunion wi mary skill and ability.

We believe that the brothers of giving an entertainment, comprising music, shortly after Christmas.

LIMERICK DIOCESAN SUSTE FUND.

We would respectfully request th the Church of Ireland in the sever the Diocese of Limerick to pay their without delay to the District Collect the insertion of the amount by Council in the Annual Report of 18:

GEORGE GOUGH GUBBINS

ROBERT MAURICE

97 George Street, Limerick, Nov 29