

5.
GIRLS.—Mrs De Fon-follows from the Christ friars-road —“ Do you rous readers would help ve greatly at heart? I and other work-girls—d it is for them that I am It is now four years since help me by putting my the club has been kept roceeds. Now my money I do not want the club to poor girls lead such a look forward all day to e. We make the room e have games, musical ding, writing, and sew-make and mend their finish the evening with a What I want is more open. The room we are y one, and is now sold, It is much better for the evening instead of until 11 p m, or attend-usic-halls by which we mes's Gazette.

K CHRONICLE.
 NG. DEC. 10, 1887.

eneral improvement in already referred to in gly corroborated by a which has just been of which for the past favourably with those onths of the previous piled from Board of e statistics relating to of the United King-he report that British onths ending Nov. 30 a volume as compared st year of £9,308,235 ountries and British ,491 exports of British foreign and colonial of the increase, both is further explained . Glancing down the orts, we observe that is imported for food ng the present year, and drink show an goals to nil. Two goals were dropped by Sullivan and one by Nelson.

Father Matthew Ryan, Herbertstown, was served last evening at Herbertstown with five summonses under the Coercion Act for a speech made at Cahirconlish in furtherance of the County Limerick Evicted Tenants' Fund. The 22nd inst is named for the trial.

John L. Sullivan boxed Ashton in London last night before the Prince of Wales and a select party. Jem Smith and Ald Greenfield also gave an exhibition of their skill. Sullivan was introduced to His Royal Highness, who expressed himself much pleased with his performance. He will appear at the Theatre Royal on Thursday next.

PROMENADE CONCERTS—It will be seen by advertisement that the popular Promenade Concerts at the Athenæum will commence on Saturday, the 17th inst, and will be continued fortnightly during the winter months, Saturday, the 31st December, being excepted. The prices of admission is as usual one shilling.

FLOAT ACCIDENT—A young man, named John Curry, was admitted into Barrington's Hospital between 3 and 4 o'clock last evening suffering from a severe contusion to the ankle caused by a float passing over his leg. Dr Mitchell (locum tenens for Dr Counihan) attended to the injured man, who had to be detained at the Hospital.

SHOOTING PARTY AT ADARE.—The Right Hon the Earl of Dunraven arrived yesterday from England at Adare, his beautiful Irish seat, and it is believed, will remain there for some days.
 His lordship has invited a large shooting party, including his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, who will enjoy some days sport on the splendid demesne. The party will arrive from Dublin on Monday.

SUPPOSED SHOCKING SUICIDE.—On Thursday morning last the body of a man named Michael Kearney, known also by the cognomen of "The Colonel," was found in a field near Abbington, Murroe. Life was extinct, and in the hand of the unfortunate man was a razor, with which, it is supposed, he terminated his existence. Mr Coroner Cleary held an inquest yesterday on the remains, when a verdict to the effect that deceased was a felo de se, was unanimously returned.

SERVICES AT THE CATHEDRAL.—The second of a series of short Services and Oratorios to be continued during Advent was held in the Cathedral last evening, there being a crowded congregation. After the evening Service Mendelssohn's beautiful Cantata, "As the Hart Pants," and "Adeste Fideles" ("O come all ye faithful") were sung. The solos were perfectly kind support." The first r supported by Mr Ambros committee were greatly in not only for the magnificen undertaking, but also for p band-room for the instructi of charge. After a few mi disposed of, the proceedings

MESSRS MURDOCH &
 MENT

Some six years ago a b firm of Messrs J G Murdoch established in this city, and the great popularity the s their business in Limeric Waterford, and other distri Limerick office, has progr bounds. Owing to the gre ness the firm have now taken in Patrick-street as show ro pianos (for which Mess extensive agents), as we harmoniums, and brass ments. At the principal est situate a few doors further as usual, a most interesting instruments of every class, tog of useful and ornamental art so forth, which it would tak either to enumerate or des musical instruments has bec the satisfaction they invariab various purchasers is amply c scores of testimonials in pos manager, some of which are The celestina is specially c fessional musicians, clergy, general. It has great capac pleasing and melodious, while great acquisition in small ch unprovided with an organ acc Spencer Piano is also highly same remark applies to the A Harmoniums, violins, concertin The tone and finish of the c ettes, as well as the superior instruments are likewise full to, and altogether the nothing to be desired. I of local testimonials, a v tion of the total num published from those who ments purchased at the concer sion for periods varying from addition we find a number of mendations of the Spencer I Organs, from eminent membe profession. The writers include the eminent singer at St Ja Hall; Mr W Winn, H.M. Chap St Paul's Cathedral; Madam and some well known Londo while reference is made to the instruments, the moderate pri may be obtained are also Full information in the to be found in an intere