LAMBNT.

YESTERDAY.

r at 12 o'clock, and estmed.

t the Government hat a committee of o discharge the jurity into the Times bers would involve, rticles a breach of ld be made would of the House. He ld be made the suborney General being usel the hon gentle-

sted the proposal of unprecedented, and would be most unforfrom its practice of is members.

moved an amends motion, "That the the circumstances of ould be dealt with as guing that a similar in previous similar

I, Sir Charles Russell ard to argue that the h of privilege just as ttl said there was no h of privilege, but the it as such, after Me dagainst the Times bed on the motion of Mr e that he would move endment of the Solicibe referred to a Select

Tanner was obliged Conservative members five minutes to six.

renanistan.—Intellay from Afghanistan tes that the Shiniwaris rooes near Jellalabad trent that Khelati-Guzni is surrounded, eatened by the insurof the latter place is an argent request to Mr G. Vandeleur Creagh and Mrs Creagh arrived at Kingstown, per Royal Mail Steamer, on Tuesday, from England.

A man named Charles Malley, of Stokesfield, dropped dead yesterday in Robertstown, near Glin, while in the act of putting some sheep into a car.

Evening Service will be resumed in St. Patrick's Church on Sunday next, May 8, commencing at half-past six o'clock. The exposition of the "Sermon on the Mount" will be taken up at St. Matthew v.-18.

We have been requested to state that Knocknagaul Church (Roxboro), will (D.V), be open for Divine Service next Sunday evening, May 8th, at 5.30, p.m., and continue so every Sabbath evening during the summer months.

Report has it, a Dublin contemporary says, that the bakery business of Mr Charles Dawson, Dublin, is about to be converted into a limited company. It is also stated that two of the largest bakery concerns in Dublin will be jointly converted into limited companies—Irish Insurance Journal.

A farmer named Ahern was remanded at Glin on Monday for 8 days, bail being refused, charged with a serious assault on a man named McMahon, caretaker of a evicted farm. McMahon, whose life is in danger, states that Ahernknocked him senseless with a stone and beat him with a stick. Ahern, who also received some injuries, states that he only acted in self-defence.

The Commissioners on arterial drainage in Ireland who have just issued their report recommend on the Shannon improvements at Killaloe, Lough Derg, and Lough Allen, and the completion of Mr Bateman's designs, an expenditure of £265,000; a Government contribution to the Barrow improvements of £75,000; and a free Government grant of £20,000 to the Bann Works.

ATHEA CHURCH.—At the Presentment Sessions held at Foynes yesterday, the sum claimed for making good the damages inflicted on Athea Church was granted without demur. It was brought out in evidence that this was the fourth occasion on which the windows were destroyed, though the present was the first instance of making a claim for compensation, as previously they were not stained glass.

--- ATOM CAMITEDDAT -We have heen re-

FUNERAL OF THE LATE

BANNATYN Yesterday the remains of the Bannatyne, the respected nent firm of Messrs Banna interred in the family vaul Church. Mr Bannatyne, wh time in declining health, die at Bordeaux. On Tuesday a were conveyed from Dublin whence they were conveyed residence of the deceased, morning room pending rea is quite unnecessary for us esteem in which Mr Bann: employer and as a citizen b community. The news of his aroused the most intense this city and district, gentleman was 80 The Harbour known. public bodies adjourned as to his memory; and yester general token of regret expre representative cortege which to their last resting place. early hour at which the leave Woodsdown, and th morning was foggy and co were to be seen on their w long before eight o'clock a had assembled on the pi Woodsdown. At ten minu was borne on the shoulder ceased gentleman's employ the cortege which was over soon en route. The chie Alexander Bannatyne, Fitzgerald Bannatyne, son-in-law: Heard, A carriage preceding the l the Rev Mr Heard and Castleconnell, and succeed ing carriages. These wer of vehicles sent by resider rounding districts, the ow ing in person in the majo is a pretty full list of the Lord Carina, Lord Mass Mr Archibald Murray, ju manGaffney, Mr J N Rus Delmege, The Most Rev. represented by FatherO'S Mr Harris, Ennis; and I Robert Hunt, J.P; Mr marsh, Right Rev. Dr. rington, Glenstal; Mr O

Danil Jam

MATTER TATE OF THE PARTY OF THE