

death," and even Olympus (for there upper gallery) remained mute from n. In the very beautiful trio, "The in the glade," by Sterndale Bennett, e's voice blended most effectively with Messrs Haddon and R Evans, junr, onged for a similar treat in the second s Cleve's pure and pathetic tones and yle won their way into the hearts of the ind were equalled only by the delicious ss of Mr Walter Bapty's tenor, that kest to dream-music, which neverthe- ebed with emotion in that plaintive yet e wail, "The distant shore," by Sir Sullivan. If for nothing else we should r Muspratt for bringing down from and at no inconsiderable expense, a popular, because so splendidly endowed, gratitude is due also to our local or our oft reiterated sensational yet in- l enjoyments derived from his masterly citals and choral conductorship—and we it such evenings as that experienced by ho had the good taste to be present in ensum on Thursday last, may be ly vouchsafed to us in a profitable as pleasant future.

ICK RAGGED SCHOOLS BAZAAR.
 Annual bazaar in aid of the above instituus opened on Thursday afternoon in the ant Orphan Hall. The spacious building usual, tastefully decorated with ever-wreaths of which, studded with roses, etched across the room. These were conwith the gas standards, which were simil-ated. Some flags and banners were also displayed, and the tout ensemble was all id to be desired. The monotony which was d at previous bazaars, particularly on the day, had on this occasion entirely dis-id by the presence of the splendid band of nster Regiment, which, through the kind-Colonel Stewart and the officers, pera choice selection of music on Thursday on. The attendance on the first day was at small, but to-day the house was ed with a fashionable audience, and the of the fair stall-holders, in attending to numerous customers were taxed to the . The tables were ranged round m, and were in charge of the following

—
 eshment Stall—Mrs Wm Vanderkiste, pre-assisted by Mrs Vanderkiste, Mrs G Hunt, erschoyle, the Misses Rose, Shelbourne, iss Seymour.

y Stall—Mrs R Westropp presided, d by the Misses Greene (3).

y Stall—Presided over by Mrs Morton, d by the Misses Morton and Miss Vereker.

mile Stall—Presided over by Mrs Emily assisted by Miss K Gregg, the Misses an and Miss F Myles.

D'Esterre also held a fancy stall, and was d by the Misses D'Esterre.

he Misses Gregg's fancy stall, the Ladies ng were—The Misses Russell, Mrs Gildea, elly, Mrs Twigg, and Mrs Myles.

various tables on view were tastefully ted, and displayed a miscellaneous assortof useful and fancy goods of the descripusually seen at Fancy Fairs. Miss E 's stall was supplied with various descripof toys and other articles which proved a diction.

Yesterday morning Dr Ireland left for Cork, being accompanied to the Railway Terminus by Dr O'Dwyer and several local clergymen. On his arrival in the "Faire Citie" he was presented with an address by the Corporation, and in the evening delivered an interesting lecture on temperance in the League of the Cross Hall.

FUNERAL OF MR GEORGE WOODS MAUNSELL, D L.

The funeral of the late Mr George Woods Maunsell, D L, took place yesterday morning. Soon after nine o'clock the funeral started from 10 Merrion square, South, Dublin, and proceeded by road to Celbridge, where the remains were interred in the family burial place in Oakley Park. In Celbridge the shops were closed by the people in token of the esteem in which they had held Mr Maunsell.

The chief mourners were—Captain R Mark S Maunsell (son), Rev Frederick W Maunsell (brother), Mr Alan Cameron Bruce-Pryce (son-in-law), Master Richard J C Maunsell, Master Alan G C Bruce, Master Edward M Bruce (grandsons), Mr Richard E Maunsell, Mr Malcolm L Maunsell, and Mr Parker G Synnott (nephews).

Amongst those present were—Right Hon J T Ball, Lord Ardilaun, the Lord Chief Justice, Mr Justice O'Brien, Judge Warren, Viscount Gough, Sir Ralph Cusack, Sir Richard Martin, Sir Wm Kave, Sir George Owens, JP; George Morris, DL; The MacDermot, QC; Mr Sergeant Hemphill, John Atkinson, QC; H A Hamilton, High Sheriff, County Dublin; the Dean of the Chapel Royal, John Maunsell, Rev Canon Jellett, A S Deane, S Chatterton Smith, R H A; G A Rochfort Boyd, Dr Banks, Sir George Porter, DL; Robert Warren, DL; C Uniacke Townsend, W St L Woods, R T Woods, E H Woods, S F Adair, Thomas Tighe Chapman, Lieut-Colonel Hort, the Dean of Leighlin, Rev Wm Smith King, Alex Hamilton, F Pollock Hamilton, H C Warren, Richard Reeves, W J White, E H Earl; W G Wolseley, Dr Duncan, Rev Dr Walsh (Herbert street), D F M Mahon, Captain Gage, H Dwyer, Charles Leeper, Dr Tweedy, Robert Warren, F W Leeper, Thomas Falls, Dr Ferguson, W J O'Donovan, Major H B Johnston, J A Delmege, Lieut Colonel Bramston Smith, F M Harding, Edward F Litton, J S Delmege, W T Kirkpatrick, Chaworth Ferguson, Hugh Galbraith, J H Moore, H S Moore, H S Sankey, Dr Ormsby, Stanhope Hemphill, R H Stanley, A M Vereker, J H Glascott, Captain G Dwyer, P G Synnott, W H Verschoyle, John B Story, Charles P Hamilton, Dr J K Barton, M F G Hewson, Thomas Hewson, E L Maunsell, Dr Croly, Rev Canon Walsh, DD; W V Ball, Dr H C Tweedy, Thomas Bennett, G B Cleugh, J P Hornsby, R L Badham, M O'Neill, W R Gill, T J Myles, Gerald R Fitzgerald, &c.

FUNERAL OF MR. W. H. O'SULLIVAN.

Yesterday the remains of this much lamented and respected gentleman were interred in the cemetery of the new Roman Catholic Church, Kilmallock. The cortège was the largest and most influential seen in the locality for years. All classes and creeds attended to pay a last respect to the memory of the deceased, and every where tokens of sorrow were expressed at the passing away at such a comparatively early age

Lack, county Clare, sold M'Ginay, Glasgow, for Newmarket-on-Fergus, d
 the same dealer for £40; disposed of a splendid Rafter, Dublin, for 60
 Gort, refused £37 10s
 George-street, for a five Mr Ryan, Adm, Pallasg grey horse; Mr Dugga useful cart horse for 40 s Dublin, offered 55 sovs for a good-looking horse purchased a cab horse fr ville, for £37 10s; Mr S splendid tram horse to M 40 sovs; Mr Hunt, Ine handsome horse to Mr guineas; Mr Normile, G
 some gray cob to an Eng Mr Harrison, Castleharr a beautiful brown cob
 sovs; Mr Browning, splendid bay huntress guineas; Mr Ryan, de a good harness mare f davin, for £17 10s; Mr county Dublin, offered roan horse; Mr Sheehy, from the same dealer fo
 Mr Ryan, Pallasgrean, handsome gray horse;
 sold a splendid brown m to Mr Rafter, Dublin; s took place at the abo having over 20 horses d sales.

At Mr Johnston's Rej
 Dr Bolton, Carlow, bou Mr John Massy for £ bought several others
 Talliot, Meath, bough
 Mr Westropp for £100
 colt to Mr Brown, W Mo'oney, Tulla, bought Baker, Ballingrane, fo
 sold a bay chestnut col for £50; Mr Hunt bot Mr Durdon for £45; M
 five year old huntress t for £150; Mr M Nam
 to Mr Langley for £40 bought a bay t
 Mr M Fitzgerald,
 Killeen sold a bay r Tuam; Mr O'Halloran
 to Mr Finucane, coun
 J O'Connor, Pallas, so
 £75 to Mr T Bailey, C
 two good-looking anir Clare, for £70 and £5

There were 1,200 m on Thursday. Bacon p brought from 47s to 48 40s to 42s do; fine sic to 46s. Messrs Sha
 Denny about 360; I
 Messrs O'Mara 100.
 £1 10s each.

FRIDAY—CATT

The cattle and shee
 There was a splendid business done was ve
 mand was not very b