

Society, which attention and is in reply to a member of the the committee lidates on their a the 30th inst. ppy to do so if the school are n of £800 is re- f the committee ibute £100, pro- e up within the ontributions on to assist in this ndertaking are afford to give to e, Bray, Rev Dr the Office of the The sum to be nd the time very Church of Ire- n-compassion for the st in the work of will receive the pair of collecting e expressive and ee could be pro- the candidates, with throbbing

letters of credit communications of THE MANAGER

CHRONICLE.
JUNE 23, 1887.

last in connection e even surpassed respect a magnifi- great nation and a 's history. The y the sympathy , and indeed by ilised world. To come as a revelat- d basis of popular ie stability of the reigns have lived at that surrounds re are whose sub- r reign to be pro- wherever she has f to her subjects and in the country were a magnificent success.

Mr J. Vandeleur Creagh and Mrs Vandeleur Creagh have left Kingstown for England.

A young man named Mulcaby, from Newcastle, was drowned at Roynes a few days ago whilst bathing. He was only 21 years of age. The body has been found.

In our notice of the Jubilee Services in the city churches on Sunday last, we incorrectly stated that the Rev A. G. Dann took the place of the Rector, Rev F. Langbridge. It was the Rev Precentor Meredyth who officiated and preached in St John's on the occasion.

NOTICE OF ADJOURNED CATTLE SALE.—We are requested to announce that the cattle sale advertised to be held at the Agricultural Hall, Military-road, on next Saturday, 25th June, by Mr F W M Carthy, Auctioneer, for Mr P Crotty, Kildimo, is postponed till an early day in July.

CRICKET MATCH.—A Cricket Match will be played on the grounds of the Protestant Young Men's Association Club on Saturday next, between an eleven of that club and an eleven from the Athletic Club. The full band of the Leinster Regiment will play during the evening, from 5.30 to 8 o'clock.

LOCAL ATHLETES.—At the Grand Athletic and Cycling Tournament held in Dublin on Tuesday, Mr D. Costelloe, R.I.C, Limerick, A. A. C, took first place in the 120 yards, hurdle, and made a very good fight for the 220 yards open handicap. Mr S. McAdam, Limerick, came in second in the final heat of the one mile bicycle handicap.

COUNTY PETTY SESSIONS.—The magistrates presiding at the County Petty Sessions to-day were—Colonel Maunsell, in the chair; Mr J. C. Delmege, and Mr J. G. Kelly. On the application of the Archdeacon of Limerick, a boy, aged 7 years, was admitted to an industrial school in Cork, having been proved to be without means of support.

MEETING OF CONSTABULARY PENSIONERS.—A meeting of the constabulary pensioners of the district has been held at Kilrush with a view of considering a memorial adopted by the Belfast pensioners. Mr Patrick Fahey presided, there being a good attendance of other members. The petition of the Belfast men, addressed to the Lord Lieutenant, was unanimously adopted, praying to wind up the Constabulary Fund which has been in existence since the formation of the police force. Those present having signed the memorial, the meeting was adjourned.

way and Oughterard—Henry Wm Ludlow, W F Price, Chai Campbell, M A, Secretary.

DANCE AT THE NEW B...

Last night a dance on a very was given by the warrant officer commissioned officers of the garrison Majesty's Jubilee. The entertain in the garrison recreation room apartments which were most tast for the joyous occasion. They we Royal ensign and numerous ba at the top of the first room was of flags, trumpets, &c, bearing t letters, "God Save the Queen" dred guests were present, and patronised by Colonel and M several officers of the garrison. menced about half-past nine, twelve o'clock it temporarily ce ringing huzzas were called for a company for her Majesty the Q the terpsichorean art was resun vigour, and it was fully five o'cl when the guests departed after a night. Music was supplied of the band of the Lei which, under the charge of admirably performed the follow 1st Part—Polka, Schottische, Lancers, Polka-Mazurka, W Schottische, Waltz, Maltese Part :—Waltz, Polka-Mazu Schottische, Paddy O'Ra Waltz, Lancers, Waltz, Varso Circassian circle, God Sav The committee who carried out connected with the entert Sergeant-Major Cosgrave, Co sport Corps, President; Mr (Prison, Master of Ceremoni Sergeant Bourke, M.S.C; Serge 3rd Hussars; Sergeant D Colour-sergeant Gallyhewk. satisfactorily discharged the d the other officials were untir tions to promote the enjoymen guests. Refreshments were sup tent erected immediately outs

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE FESTIVITIES

An interesting loyal demon at Waterpark, county Clare, inst., to commemorate her Maj 10 o'clock p.m. a large bonfi high, was ignited on the (Shannon, which could be plai on both sides of Castleconnell lighting of the bonfire—Mr Pl by Mrs Reeves, Mrs Montgon Mrs Dudley O'Grady, Mrs