

and communications
ed to THE MANAGER
L.E.

eldest daughter of John Bayly, Esq, of Debsbo-rough, Nenagh.

WHIT-MONDAY.—We are informed that Messrs W. J. Shaw & Sons have granted a general holiday to their employees on Monday next, being Whit-Monday. If the other establishments in the city followed the example, it would, indeed, be a great boon to their several staffs.

Mr J. Butler Ievers, J.P., Glanduff Castle, has obtained for the Dromcollogher tenants of the Staveleys minors (in the English Court of Chancery) an abatement of 25 per cent on the September rent now called for. The tenants feel very grateful for the reduction granted them.— Cor.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—This evening a man named John Murphy, employed in a quarry near the Docks, met with a sad death. A large stone fell from the surface and struck the poor man on the chest, killing him almost immediately. Murphy, who was 65 years of age, resided at the Windmill, and has two children to mourn his loss.

MILITARY.—The greater part of the detachment of the 18th Hussars, stationed at the New Barracks for the past twelve months, is en route for Waterford, where the embarkation for England takes place. The remainder of the regiment will leave barracks early in June, and will be relieved by the 3rd King's Own Hussars, from Manchester.

AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS.—The Registrar-General has made arrangements by which the collection of agricultural statistics throughout Ireland will commence on Wednesday, 1st June.
It is to be hoped the generous assistance of the magistracy, gentry, and clergy, usually given to the police who act as enumerators, will be as fully afforded this year, the returns in question being invariably of the utmost importance to farmers and the public in general.

MOST REV DR O'DWYER ON UNLAWFUL SOCIE-TIES.—A mission conducted by the Redemptorist Fathers at Parteen, was brought to a close on Sunday evening, when the Most Rev Dr O'Dwyer preached an eloquent and impressive sermon, towards the close of which he made some general, but strong and emphatic observations in condemnation of moonlighting and secret societies, and to all other agencies of a kindred character that injuriously affected the religious morals of the people.

ENNIS TOWN COMMISSIONERS.—The nominations for the new board took place yesterday at the Courthouse, Ennis, Mr J. F. Fitzgerald, J.P., and Mr Bagot Blood, J.P., presiding. For No. 2 Ward the names received were Messrs Armstrong, Lynch, O'Keeffe, and Parsons. For No. 3 Ward—Messrs John Cullinan sol., Timothy Bunton, sol., Charles Bolton, and Denis P. ...

R. Harrison, D.I., T. Bankli ford. The address was read Maunsell, and ran thus: "Fr of Bathkeale to Miss Amy W of her marriage. DEAR undersigned parishioners of you our sincere and heartfel the occasion of your approach we take this opportunity of sense of your admirable, unce exertions on behalf of our Ch our congregational meetings your future estimable and t abundance of happiness and beg your acceptance of t souvenir." Then follow the n of families. The wedding twelve pounds.

FIRE IN PATRICK
A fire, which at first thro alarming character, broke o known as the "Home Rule street, on Monday morning, at a.m. Additional apprehensic to the fact that three or four in the upper part of the premi tenements. It appears th City High Constable, on hear once proceeded to the Corj having got out the apparatus scene and endeavoured to ge order to warn the sleeping in unable to get beyond the first stifling atmosphere, but s having arrived and the water the burning mass, after a wh tions of losing its power, and made to get the people safely considerable danger this was good deal of time was also the furniture of the inhabitant building, but the greater part rescued. Previous to the peo away from the fire, M being aware of the fac fully got the Fire course afterwards found it Mr Forrest next directed hi shop, where it is supposed the or otherwise, originated, a through the door, found that inside was one mass of fla being stocked with a large su powder-squibs, and other hi materials, it was with difficul the fire was got under. Ho o'clock, owing to the of water, and the facili it was brought into connecti the flames were mastered, an covered that a great amount of had been destroyed in the shop, reduced to one mass of charcoal premises are, we understand offices of the Commercial Unio Provincial Companies. Hea and a party of policemen appe

CHRONICLE.

MAY 24, 1887.

temporary criticises
English Governments
Nationalist organs
The subject was by the Government writer says, Lord the Union, felt him-the landlords, and ken the back of Irish generally speaking, ls, the Church, the University, Trinity ndred and one minor ted to and depended ts were loyal up to ury and then became me. They dreamed ing they could not became the staunch om that friendship to the right hand or yal to England much impet is loyal to the Nationalists sneer would much prefer erely from emotion;
hout England this nd with their existalty cease." This tituted such a power htened Englishmen arefully, has been r the Union it began the great landlords were represented in who remained sent ls and universities, led in England too, were found to have The influence of ss, while the demo-