

ly in D; Chant
G; Service, Te
; Hymn, No 429
Service, Garrett
re, Rector of St rick Protestant 80 o'clock—In-ian), Chant for Service Magni-
in F; Anthem,
hings for us;
; Preacher, the merick Protest-f service "The oven's "Mount at 11 a.m and 3
and Friday.

at the bursting r flames from ing a brilliant ful halo of light pire, brought the scene. A dairy had taken mediately ablaze.
the stable were that there was
f. That, how-nger of the fire ious building—ies. To avert with his staff, h was quickly so much vigour t was soon atr was at hand;
have been so

-On Tuesday,
ficers, and men the old 63rd), eir friends and nd to witness nd men. The the town and y crowds who t, which was nown that the y by General e old 63rd as d it for many regiment who give the signal l the barrack
e an ovation.
ms, there was as formed up idst great exception that his old regirit de Corps" n the British producing in Cork, which would be fully supported here. We should add that the concert was under the able conductorship of Mr Claude Jaquinot, and that the specially tuned grand pianoforte at which he presided was supplied by Mr Henry Keller, George-street.

FUNERAL OF CAPTAIN H. BEVAN.

In our last issue we recorded the lamented death of Captain Henry Bevan, late of the 95th Regiment, 2nd Batt. Sherwood Foresters, at his residence, 47, Comeragh Road, S.W. London, which sad event took place on Thursday, the 20th instant. Captain Bevan was the only son of the late Major Bevan, Camass, County Limerick. On his mother's side he was related to many families in the counties of Clare and Limerick. By the special desire of the deceased his remains were brought to Ireland to be buried in the family vault at Tullybrackey, near Bruff. The 1st battalion of his regiment quartered in this garrison, anxious to show a mark of respect to the memory of the lamented officer, sent their band and a large party of the corps, under command of Lieutenants Britton and Anderson, to meet the remains at the Limerick Terminus, and at 11 o'clock yesterday the solemn procession started for Tullybrackey by road, going by Glentworth-street, George-street, and William-street, the band playing the funeral march, 'Adestes Fideles,' &c. Amongst the mourners we noticed Miss Bevan, sister of deceased; Mr Singard Lysaght, cousin; Colonel Hooke, Sherwood Foresters; Major Sparkes, do; Lieutenants Britton and Anderson, do; Mr C Heaton-Armstrong, Mr C R B Heaton-Armstrong, Mr G W Heaton-Armstrong, Mr and Miss Cochrane, Mr Massy Finch, Bloomfield; Mr Mason, Mr James, Ballyourneen; Mr Joseph Bevan, Glen Bevan; Rev Mr Mills, Mr Hunt, Galbally, &c.
The sword and helmet and a bunch of shamrocks were, by desire of deceased, placed on his coffin, as well as numerous wreaths and flowers sent by relatives and friends who were unable to be present at the funeral. We may add that the late Captain Bevan's book on "Thirty Years in India," and his remarkable career as a lion and tiger hunter are widely known.

LISTOWEL BOARD OF GUARDIANS.

Mr William Henigan presided at the weekly meeting of this Board on Thursday.
Dr J T Dillon wrote stating that, in consequence of his being summoned by the Crown to attend at Tralee on Wednesday, to give evidence in the case in which Curtin was charged with the murder of John Forhan, he was unable to visit the house. He had therefore written to the Master to procure the services of some duly qualified medical man to perform the duties during his unavoidable absence.
Mr Riordan said in that case he had no alternative, as he was leaving to attend Tralee on the assistants in the seizure, were ex-not witness the assault. They sa-money at the police barrack a-complained of had been committe-Mr Lynch addressed the Bench an assault had been committed in nature. He was a man of exce-and he produced a Sergeant of t-to show same.

The Magistrates having consuannounced the decision of the B-that poor-rate collectors have important duty to discharge; on in getting in the rates, the mai-workhouses depended, and it appunions the Guardians were in de-ance to payment should be off-should be upheld and enforced, & they considered it one of a ser-Their decision was that Patrick £5 and 12s costs, or 14 days imp-

HAVING A PISTOL WITHOUT

Patrick Kerin, farmer, Drumqu-cuted by District Inspector Hill pistol without a license in a pro-Sergeants Cunningham and amined. They entered the house warrant, and Constable Joyce de-found under the bed in which between the tick and straw m-pistol (produced), in the barrel were four bullets.

Mr Lynch, solicitor for Kerin, ance of his having any knowledge being where it was found.

Sergeant Cunningham was ag-gave Kerin a bad character.

The Bench looked upon the caportance, and sentenced Kerin to imprisonment at hard labour, to w-lodged an appeal.

OPPOSITION TO A RENEWAL OF A S

This being the day for the re-can's spirit licenses, only one was District Inspector Hill, that of Mr mara, Jail-street, agent for the Ireland.

Mr Hill grounded his objection of three convictions under the having been had against Mr Mel-the last twelve months, and reserved upon him as not being a character, and not having conduct a proper manner.

Mr Lynch, solicitor, pleaded str-of Mr MacNamara, upon whose lictions had been recorded, so slioffences charged against him.

The Magistrates held they were in favour of the objections, and the renewal certificate.

After disposing of a few trivial c-adjourned.

BALLYNEETY PETTY SE
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDI