

ding to? I was not
id. I was alluding possibility of getting part of the world before them. rting the men who ther cross-examined.
d the plaintiff's case se for the defence.
into, and the court

CORRESPONDENT)
ion by Mr O'Brien n was resumed to-Mr Blackney, agent and a number of the defence.

editor of the re article in question ir comment on the ghal.

ned at considerable stor and editor, said Mr O'Brien, and bemment.

d the jury for the Mr O'Brien, who his path, should be action.
speech had not con-ned.

was densely crowded, urt when Mr Wright
Monday.

insertion should be elve o'clock on Tues-urdays. Where no ed, small advertiseutes for Advertise-lays of publication.
not later than Five esday, and Friday

nd letters of credit nd communications
d to THE MANAGER
E.

CHRONICLE.

and prudence of your immediate compliance, for otherwise the large community of Limerick City and County and North and South Tipperary, with portions of Clare, and families as far off as Dublin will be greatly inconvenienced, in fact thereby prevented paying their relatives and friends their usual Sunday visits, which will be a great deprivation to them all round, and which I hope your company wont inflict." He further says that financial reasons ought not bar the way so far as August and September are concerned, they being the best months of the year for tourists. We hope the service may be arranged as a matter of public convenience.

Mr E T Ingram has left the Shannon Hotel, Castleconnell

Sir Augustine and Lady Fitzgerald have left Carrigeran House for Buxton, Derbyshire.

The Kerry Post understands that at length the work of constructing the Tralee and Dingle Light Railway is about to be commenced.

At a meeting of the directors of the Kilmeedy Butter Factory recently, Major B E Sherly, Castle View, Newcastle West, was elected chairman.

Mr F. Muspratt, Organist of St Mary's Cathedral, having gone for his holidays, his place at the Cathedral for the next three Sundays will be taken by his pupil, Master Handel Haydn.

We accidentally omitted the name of Major Walton, J P. Ballysheen House, Sixmile Bridge, from amongst the list of those who attended the funeral of the late Mr Jonas Blackall, solicitor, on Tuesday.

We are requested to remind members of the Protestant Young Men's Association that the entries for their Athletic Sports and Tennis Tournament will close on Wednesday next, August 1st, with Mr T Ledger, 27, George-street.

It is reported that on yesterday morning, about one o'clock, a party of armed moonlighters visited the house of a man named Hunt, who resides near a village situated about six miles from Abbeyfeale, and fired seven shots through the door and window, after which they decamped.

An examination in general education in connection with the Royal College of Surgeon's Ireland, was held on the 18th inst, when a number of gentlemen were adjudged certificates of qualification. Amongst them is the names of Mc Henry S Laird, son of Mr John Laird, George street, and Mr Walter E Evans third son of Mr Robert Evans Limerick fact that many stock holders prefer stock till the October fair, grass plentiful. The prices yesterday diabie increase in all classes - cattle were particularly high, demand. It is estimated that two or three pounds higher than there being a proportionate increase in all classes. Sheep, of which there v supply, showed an increase of five following were the quotations:- from £6 to £10; 2 splendid calves Mr McCarthy, Cratloe, however, each; two year old sold at from three year olds, £15 to £19; fat c £23 10s, heifer beef £3 per cwt, mutton 7d a pound, on foot: B brisk, almost everything being weather was wretched, rain fall from an early hour, which made pleasant underfoot. For the day vement in the atmospherical condi Amongst the transactions were t Lord Charina sold seven bullock piece, thirteen heifers at £19 10 fifty sheep at 55s a piece; The H sold fifty sheep at 55s a piece; Namara, Shanakyle, sold some each, and paid £32 for two cow Smith, William street, sold at 56s a piece, and eight at £13 10s; he bought a lot of a piece; Mr Thomas Smith, Cor bullocks at £10 a piece; Mr victualler, Thomas street, boug heifers from Mr Scott, Carigana, t O'Mally, Roche's street, bought t Mr Green, Greenmount, at £22 e Henry, Galway, at £18 each, 50 Henry, at £2 14s each, and 50 Bourke, of Broadford, at £2 16s e Carrig, sold to the Hon Hugh M of heifers at £14 10s each; Mr Pe year olds at £29 a piece; Mr Stuc disposed of some cattle at £15 10 Hunt, Friarstown, sold 30 store piece; Mrs Gabbett sold a lot of 10s each; Mr James Frost sold 14 16s 6d, and a number of one year Mr William Butler, Bedford I very prime finished heifers fro Cahirconlish, at £17 10s each, and from Count de Salis at £17 each, Mackey, Newtown, at £18 each. cattle were some of the best finis in the fair. The steward of L Knoppogue Castle, Co Clar., sold beast for £25; Mr Power, Rathn 20 yearlings at £7 5s a head, an at £11 a head; Mr O'Brien, Gui £7 a head for a lot of yearlings; sold a bunch of yearlings at £8 year olds at £16 10s a head; Mr Bridge, sold a lot of 40 yearlings t Barry, Upper William street, ga prime bullock; Mr Coffey, Birdh fine lot of bullocks at £12 a head perary, bought eleven bullocks a Mr George Gloster, Derryknocks well-fed lot of bullocks at £12 a l