FUNERAL OF MRS FOGERTY.—The funeral of this highly esteemed lady, relict of the late Mr Joseph Fogerty, C.E. of this city, took place yesterday morning, the remains being interred in the family vault at St Mary's Cathedral. The cortege was a large and representative one, and a number of residents of the city and county sent carriages. The chief mourners were—Mr Robert Fogerty, C.E.; Surgeon-Major Fogerty, M.S.; Dr
William Fogerty, sons; Mr John Fogerty, C.E., brother-in-law; Mr James R.W. Wallace and Mr Charles H. Fitt, sons-in-law. The Ven Archdeacon Hamilton officiated.

THE IRISH PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER.—The Parliamentary Register now in force in Ireland shows, according to the annual return just issued a decrease of 16,244 voters as compared with last year, the numbers for 1888 being 763,145, as compared with 779,389 in 1887. The number of voters in the 86 county divisions is now 654,095, a decrease of 8,646; in the 15 borough divisions 104,956, a decrease of 7,600; and in Dublin University 4,094 an increase of 2 votes.
In Limerick city the total is 4,908, decrease 254; Limerick county, Western Division, 7,245, decrease 77; Eastern, 6,256, decrease 272; Clare East 10,746, increase 182; West 10,895, decrease 87.

DIOCESE OF KILLALOE.—A meeting of the Diocesan Council of Killaloe East was held at Nenagh on Friday, Archdeacon Bowles presiding.
Some routine business having been disposed of, the Council proposed that the joint meeting of the Eastern and Western sections should be held at Limerick, on Friday, the 22nd inst, to consider the report to be presented at the next meeting of the Diocesan Synod. No day as yet has been named for the holding of the Synod.
The Council, on rising, adjourned to the first Friday in September next. No day has yet been fixed for the Choral Festival, but it will be held, if possible, about the middle of August. It is undecided whether it will be held at Nenagh or Killaloe.

FRIGHTFUL DEATH.—A very melancholy occurrence took place yesterday at Ballycasey, Kil-dimo, county Limerick. It would appear that for some time past Mr Thomas Naughton, who was a large farmer and land valuer, kept on his farm a rather fierce bull. Yesterday he was passing through the field in which the brute was grazing. Mr Naughton was suddenly attacked by the beast and gored to death in a frightful manner. A passer by seeing the bull standing over some object in the field thought it was a calf which had unluckily fallen a prey to the animal's fury, but, on summoning some friends, they discovered the mutilated body of the deceased. The lamentable affair has created quite a sensation in the district, and great sympathy is felt for the large family Mr Naughton leaves to mourn his untimely loss.

4TH BRIGADE SOUTH IRISH DIVISION GARRISON ARTILLERY.—The 4th Brigade South Irish Division Garrison Artillery, better known as the Limerick City Artillery Militia, assembled yesterday at the Barracks, Frederick street, for the FUNERAL OF MISS BARRINGTON.

The funeral of the late Miss Barrington, eldest surviving daughter of the late Sir Matthew Barrington, Bart, and sister of Sir Croker Barrington, took place yesterday. At 1.30 the remains arrived at the terminus from Enniskerry, county Wicklow, where the deceased lady breathed her last at the residence of her brother-in-law on Thursday last. A large number of residents of the city and county assembled at the station to pay a last mark of respect to the memory of one who by her many good qualities had endeared herself to all who knew her, and also to express sympathy with the popular Glenstal family in their bereavement. The chief mourners were—Mr C. B. Barrington, JP; Mr Croker Barrington, Mr J. B. Barrington, JP; Mr T. B. Le Fanu, Mr G. A. C. May, Mr M. B. Jellet, and Mr J. Bayley, DL. Amongst those also present were—The Dean, the Archdeacon, Rev. B. B. Santos Meredyth, Rev. W. F. Seymour, Abington; Rev.
Mr Heffernan, Newport; Rev. J. O'Shaughnessy, CC; Lord Massy, Sir James Spaight, JP; Dr T. Gelston (senior), Dr E. Maziere Courtenay, the Hon. Lionel Massy, Mr Frederick Finch, General the Hon. David Fraser, Mr C. M. Wilson, Mr J. N.
Russell, Rev. Mr. Bell, Mr Winter, V.S.; Mr Wyndham Gabbett, JP; Mr Robert Hunt, JP; Colonel Maunsell, JP; Mr John Vanderkiste, JP;
Mr John Guinane, JP; Mr H. J. Guinane, Mr W.
H. Swain, Mr Stephen Hastings, JP; Mr James Nash, JP; Mr Ralph Nash, solicitor; Captain Vanderkiste, Lieutenant-Colonel Finch, Major Gubbins, Mr H. S. Croker, JP; Mr
Courtenay Croker, Dr R. M. O'Connor, Mr O'Connor, P. L. G. Murroe; Mr Ryan, Ballymackeough; Mr
Ryan, Newport; Mr Ambrose Hall, JP; Dr Riordan, Alderman Riordan, Mr Wm. Barrington
C.E.; Mr B. Barrington, solicitor; Mr Michael Hartigan, Dr Dwyer Newport; Mr E. Heffernan, Newport; Mr Charles Dwyer, Newport; Mr John Ellard, Mr J. Wallace, Mr R. Wallace, Mr Cashel, Dr Holmes, Mr G. M. Fitzgerald. A number of tenants from the Glenstal estate and several other residents of the district were amongst the cortege.

Those who sent carriages included—Sir Croker Barrington, Lady Barrington, Lord Massy, Sir James Spaight, Mr E. M. Russell, Milford; Mr John Vanderkiste, Mr M. Hartigan, Mr James F. Bannatyne, Mr G. M. Fitzgerald, Mr Archibald
Murray, Colonel Maunsell, Mrs. O'Grady, Erinagh; Mr O'Brien, Old Church; Mr Bannatyne, Woodsdown; Rev. Mr Seymour, Mr R.
Hunt, Mr Cox, Colonel Massy, Mr R. De Ros Rose.

The funeral having arrived at St Mary's Cathedral, the coffin, which was literally covered with wreaths and beautiful flowers, was conveyed by some tenants and others to the church, and thence to the family vault. The officiating clergymen were the Dean and the Rev. W. F.
Seymour, his Lordship the Bishop being also present. The service, which was partly choral, was very impressive, the "Dead March in Saul" being played on the organ as the remains were being conveyed to their final resting place under the shadow of the old cathedral.

PEARSON'S ROLLER SYSTEM.

As the season for making hay and ensilage is approaching it may not be out of place to call the attention of our readers to letters written by the Rev. Father Gubbins, of Knocklong, and Dr Geo. Russell, of Fermoy, Co. Cork, who have both made silage stock on the above system. No doubt many of our farmers will this year give this new and inexpensive system a trial, particularly as we understand that milk produced from sweet ensilage has no unpleasant taste, such milk having been taken at the Condensed Factory without fault being found with it. The following correspondence appears in the Farmers' Gazette:—
