annual excursion to Carrigaholt on Sunday last. The "Vandeleur" was specially chartered for the occasion. The No 1 Band accompanied the excursionists. The weather was delightful and the excursion was a great success in every respect. A train was run from Cork on Sunday, which was heavily freighted with passengers. A very large number of excursionists arrived from various parts of the county to be present at the Commercial Club Sports.

CITY POLICE COURT.—Mr G W Bassett was the presiding magistrate at this Court yesterday morning. An old offender, named John Gorman, was brought up in custody of Constable Harrington, charged with drunkenness in Mary street on Sunday night. His Worship sent accused to gaol for one month in default of payment of a fine of 40s and costs. James Lynch, hailing from Knockdough, charged with a similar offence, was sent to gaol for eighteen hours in default of payment of a fine of 5s. Mr Ambrose Hall attended at the City Police Court this morning but there were no cases on the list for disposal—Adjourned.

FUNERAL DEMONSTRATION.—An imposing demonstration took place in the city on Sunday last, the occasion being the interment of Mr John Ryan, tobacconist, Patrick street, who had been a prominent member of the National League. Amongst the societies represented were the Ancient Order of Foresters, of which deceased was a member, Congregated Trades', and the city and county branches of the National League. Besides these a very large crowd of people were present. The Victuallers', St John's, and St Mary's bands played the Dead March in Saul, and other funereal airs. At the New Cemetery, where the remains were interred, Mr Joseph Kearney and Mr Dunleavy, Ennis, delivered addresses.

BOATING ACCIDENT.—A boating accident occurred at Corbally on Sunday last. Four gentlemen—two of them of the legal profession, in town for the Sessions—took a pleasure boat, the property of the Limerick Boat Club, and went up the river for a quiet row. Everything passed off smoothly enough till the party neared the weir on the return journey. Here, owing to the fresh in the river, the craft went down the stream at a rapid rate, and dashing against some buttresses of the weir it split in two, and pitched the occupants into the water. The party, as a result, received a ducking they little expected, and, sultry as the evening was, the probabilities are that they would have forgiven it under the circumstances. The quartette were safely helped ashore by two medical gentlemen who happened to be on the weir, and they are likely to suffer little by the accident, if we except the "trifling" expense
