ENCE ON MR HARRINGTON.—The
ing Mail says—We cannot help feelin amount of regret at the severe, ryed sentence, which has been in-the Parnell Commission upon Mr rrington, M P, the proprietor of the nel, for the insulting observations s paper regarding the judges. There l better known journals which have, or, been guilty of equal contempt, ould better afford to pay a fine of e proprietor of the Kerry Sentinel. s the consolation, to be sure, that son will not lose a copper over the but be rather a gainer. The £500 7 raised. There is not an accumula-

NEWSPAPER BEARDS THE EMPEROR.
Freisinnige Zeitung issued on the ber last, a special edition in honour Emperor Frederick's birthday, with m his Diary referring to his liberal pirations. This special edition was nfiscated on the ground that the f the excerpts in question constituted acy. The Freisinnige Zeitung, how-
