A correspondent writes to the St James's Gazette:—Commercial enterprise is evidently making way amongst us. In one or two wine shops I have noticed placards setting forth the fact that "our champagne has only been raised two shillings in consequence of Mr Goschen's Budget." This is pretty fair considering that the new Budget is as yet only a Budget and has not yet passed into law, and consequently that the importer has had to pay the Assessable duty full.
