

BOYD AND MR PIERCE MAHONY, M.P.

REPORTER THREATENED TO BE COMMITTED FOR CONTEMPT.

The Hon Judge Boyd had before the Land Judge's Court an application for Mr. Hoare, Q.C., with whom was Mr. Hoare (instructed by Mr D F Moore), on Mr Hoare, the receiver in Mr Hoare's estate, to make absolute a conditional attachment against Mr Pierce Mahony, for contempt of court in advising the Glensharkold estate, in the County of Kerry, not to pay rents to the receiver. The attachment was a speech delivered by Mr Hoare at a public meeting on the 4th October reported in the Cork Herald, Cork and Munster News.

Mr Hoare was not in attendance. He read an affidavit by Mr Hoare relating to the service of notices on the tenants to him as receiver under the court. Copies of the Cork Herald, Cork and Freeman's Journal on the 5th containing reports of Mr Mahony's and other speeches delivered on the 4th. The receiver also stated that he had offered to offer an abatement of 30 per cent. which was a reasonable reduction, but the tenants refused, demanding 57 per cent. The chairman at the meeting was Mr Hoare. Mr Hoare had subpoenaed Mr Hoare, who reported the speech of Mr Hoare in the Munster News and Cork Examiner. Mr Hoare reported it for the Cork and Munster News the chairman of the Board of Limerick, was called.

Mr Hoare renewed his objection to the admission of any new evidence, and cited a number of authorities with the view of showing that the court should not make the order absolute until the evidence relied on in the first instance was not competent for the purpose of supplementing that evidence at a later stage. He argued that as the newspaper was not evidence, and as it was the order on which the application for the order was grounded the order must be discharged.

Mr Hoare, Q.C., said all they sought to do was to give legal proof of the matters in issue on the first occasion, and proof which was quite distinguishable from fresh evidence or the introduction of new matters.

Mr Hoare decided to hear the evidence first, and then to hear the whole case before him.

Mr Hoare was then sworn and examined by Mr Hoare, Q.C. He deposed that he was a reporter for the Munster News and attended the meeting.

Mr Hoare saw Mr Hoare in the chair at that time, and who did you see? I would ask to be sworn, and I wish to say I have no objection to give evidence in this case.

Mr Hoare—And I have a very decided objection to Mr Hoare being interposed in the proceedings, and in getting at the truth.

Mr Hoare asked to be allowed to explain his objection to Mr Hoare. Counsel made an affidavit, no doubt, in saying that Mr Hoare was a hostile witness. He was not a hostile witness. He simply attended the meeting in the way of business, and he objected to anything connected with it except to the fact that he believed it would be to the detriment of his duties if he were to give evidence, and place himself in a position that he would be regarded as an informer, and that he would be regarded as an informer, and that he would be regarded as an informer.

Mr Hoare—In that case it might be said that Mr Hoare gave evidence against another man, and that he was an informer. It is a question that witnesses have a right to give evidence on, or as to whether they are the truth or not, but it is an obligation which obliges you to tell it.

Mr Hoare resumed—Did you see Mr Mahony? I don't know Mr Mahony. I decline to give evidence.

Mr Hoare was pressed to answer, but he persisted in declining, stating that he was very sorry that he had been brought into conflict with Mr Hoare, but it was a matter of honour with him. Mr Hoare said he must ask the judge to make an order committing the witness.

Mr Hoare said the witness had stated that he was wrong in saying that he was a hostile witness, but it was manifest that he was evasive. He (Judge Boyd) could not see how a reporter, who had supplied a newspaper could deny that he gave any information.

Mr Hoare said he did not publish it; he supplied the proprietors of the paper.

Mr Hoare said he must ask the judge to make an order committing the witness to answer. He had no objection to compelling the witness to answer.

Mr Hoare said the questions asked were legitimate questions, and, as he had declined to answer, he (Judge Boyd) was very sorry that he had to do the course which he was obliged to do, and that was to commit the witness for contempt.

Mr Hoare was then called but he did not give evidence.

Mr Hoare having been sworn proved that he had two subpoenas to Mr Dunne and four subpoenas for expenses on Saturday, 15th inst.

Mr Hoare said he was not in a position to give any further evidence at present, but he would be glad to be allowed to stand over for a few days in order that he might procure evidence. It was quite clear that there had been an interference with the orders of the court.

Mr Hoare, Q.C., asked that the order should be discharged, and said Mr Hoare was quite unaware that the witness called had adopted the course he had adopted, and he was not directly or indirectly causing it to be adopted, and that the order should be discharged.

Mr Hoare said he would make no rule on the matter at present.

Mr Hoare says—"The Judge retired from the court without issuing any warrant for the arrest of Mr Hoare, who left the court. We think that he has not been committed to prison."

FRANCERY DIVISION—SATURDAY. (Before the Vice Chancellor.) O'Halloran v O'Halloran and others. A writ was instituted by Mrs O'Halloran, widow of the late Mathew O'Halloran, of Six Mile Cross, against the late Mr O'Halloran, deceased.

desire to place the best men in the position, irrespective of party.

The candidates are questioned usually on local matters only. At Lambeth, for instance, two parties express an interest in the decision, but on what may be considered minor points. The testotlers are bringing their influence to bear in favour of the candidates who will favour their peculiar cretchets, and whatever the views of the candidates are upon other points they are nevertheless to be supported at the poll. The trade unionists of London, a small body compared to the general body of workers in the metropolis, are also seeking pledges from candidates. In the country but little excitement is manifested, and the candidates are as a rule wealthy merchants, coal owners, manufacturers, and men well qualified for the duties which they are to discharge. Still the new departure is viewed, as everything is, in its political aspect. Summing up a general view of the situation, the St James's Gazette says:—"Workmen are being brought into close contact with influential Conservatives, and the result is that the prejudice which existed among certain of the older trade-unionists against Conservative politicians is fast breaking up; and while this reconciliation is in progress a process of estrangement is going on between the workmen and their Radical leaders owing to the unscrupulous factiousness which the latter have shown in importing party politics into non-political matters. It will be surprising if the Conservatives do not make this increased strength, and the increased knowledge of electioneering which they are now acquiring, play a powerful part in the next parliamentary general election."

Lord Inchiquin has left Kingstown for London.

We understand the Ladies of Clare will give a ball in the courthouse, Ennis, on Wednesday next, 16th inst.

RIOT IN A WORKHOUSE.—Five able-bodied inmates of the Ennistymon Workhouse were sent to gaol for a month each with hard labour at the petty sessions there on Tuesday last for insubordination and riot in the institution. During the emete several of the other inmates were badly beaten.

WANTON OUTRAGE.—On Saturday night the doors of the printing establishment of the Clare Independent, a weekly nationalist journal, were forced open by some persons unknown, who wantonly upset and destroyed the cases and type on the premises, and broke the press machine. A claim for £100 has been lodged for malicious injury.—Cor.

URBAN SANITARY BOARD.—The fortnightly meeting of the Urban Sanitary Board was held to-day, Alderman J F Walker in the chair. Others present—Town Councillors L E Ryan, M A Hennessy, CE, B O'Donnell, and M G Dowling. Mr Wallace acted for the executive sanitary officer, Mr Corbett, who was unable to be present. The business was routine.—Adjourned.

SERIOUS ASSAULT AT ENNIS.—Heffernan and Kearney, the two men in custody on suspicion of having brutally assaulted John Cunningham, farmer, in Ennis a month since, were brought up on remand before Mr Hodder, B.M., on Saturday, and offered to be discharged on bail, themselves in £5 and two sureties of £10 each, which they refused to do. They were consequently again committed.

THE MANAGERSHIP OF CANNOCK & Co.—We learn that Mr Phillip B Toppin has been unanimously appointed Managing Director of Cannock and Company in room of the late Mr James W Moran. The directors are to be congratulated on their selection. Mr Toppin's long experience, his great business capacity, and his geniality of manner, fully qualify him for so onerous a position, and we wish him every success in his new sphere of duties.

BOYCOTTED IRISH CATTLE IN LIVERPOOL.—An extraordinary scene was witnessed yesterday at the Stanley Cattle Market, Liverpool, in connection with the expected offer for sale of a lot of cattle (sixteen in number) from the O'Grady estate county Limerick. The cattle arrived on Thursday last, special precautions being taken to prevent their place of origin leaking out. The fact became known, however, and the Liverpool salesmen at once refused to admit them to their cattle pens, the result being that they had to be penned in the railway yard. It was believed that the cattle would be offered for sale yesterday, and in anticipation of any attempt at interfering with or preventing such sale, a large number of detectives were present, including an officer from Scotland Yard, two Irish district inspectors, and an Irish Constabulary sorthand writer, all prepared to collect evidence with a view to a prosecution. After some time, however, it transpired that the cattle had been privately sold early in the morning to a Liverpool butcher, and they were not, therefore, brought into the market. The incident caused great excitement in the market, and the movements of the detectives were watched with considerable interest.—Daily Express.

ODDFELLOWS' LODGE.—The annual meeting of the City Limerick District was held at the Town Hall on Wednesday, January 9th, 1889, for exchange of G.M. for the district of Limerick, connected with the Loyal Independent Order of Oddfellows M.U. The outgoing Grand Master,

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR J. W. MORAN.

The remains of the late lamented Mr J W Moran, managing director of Messrs Cannock & Company, were interred yesterday morning at Mount St Lawrence Cemetery. The cortege was the largest seen in Limerick for years, all classes and creeds testifying in some shape or form their regret at the early demise of so popular and so prominent a commercial man as Mr Moran had been. The large drapery establishments were closed during the entire morning, no business being done until after the funeral obsequies had concluded. All the houses in the principal streets had shutters up, and some, besides those just mentioned, were closed altogether while the funeral was passing. In addition to the hundreds of officers and assistants in the drapery trade present at the funeral there was a very large muster of citizens, as well as friends from Limerick, Clare, and Tipperary, this in itself testifying to the high name which the deceased gentleman had made for himself in what we might term his public as well as his private life. The coffin, which was of massive oak with mahogany panels and artistic mountings, bore the inscription—"James W Moran, died 12th January, 1889, aged 43 years, R.I.P." It was literally covered with beautiful wreaths, three exquisite ones of white natural flowers having been sent by the lady employees, the general assistants, and the clerical staff of Cannock and Company. For the entire journey to the cemetery the coffin was borne by re-lays of young men from the concern, others walked on either side of the coffin with wreaths in their hands, while a long line of drapers' assistants followed in procession order with the general public. The clergyman present included—The Very Rev Father O'Connor, C.C. S.S.; Father Murray, Father Healy, Sub-Director Confraternity; Rev J O'Shea, Adm.; Rev D R Shanahan, St Michael's; Rev D Fitzgerald, P.P. St Mary's; Father Doherty, O.S.F.; Father O'Keefe, S.J.; Rev J Quinlan, St Munchin's.

Amongst those also present were—Mr M J Cleary, Chairman of Cannock and Co; Mr Frank W Hartigan, Mr William J Walsh, secretary; Mr J T M'Donogh, Mr V Baker, Mr P R Toppin, Mr John Hanley, Mr Edward Walsh, Mr Enright, Alderman Walker, Mr D Taylor, and other shareholders, the heads of the various departments, Mr W W Miller, watchmaker, and the clerical and full staff of assistants. The other monster houses were also fully represented—Mr Barnett (Messrs J McBirney, and Co); Mr M'Nab, do; Mr Archibald Murray (Messrs Rodd and Co); Mr Andrew Murray, and Mr Bruce Murray, do; Mr Lavertine, Limerick Warehouse, with numbers of the officers and a assistant of the respective houses. Amongst the general public were—The Mayor, Mr Thomas E O'Brien, D.L.; Rev Canon Gregg, Mr William Spillane, J.P.; Mr Joseph Matterson, J.P.; Mr F G Kennedy, Mr Smyth (Guinness & Co), Mr A C Wallace, Town Clerk, Mr H O'Shea, Mr D F M'Namara, Mr R M'Namara, solicitor; Mr Morton, Manager Provincial Bank; Mr Haran, J.P., Manager National Bank; Mr Golden, Manager Munster and Leinster Bank; Mr J J Cleary, J.P.; Mr Wm Nelson, William street; Mr Wm Lloyd, Alderman Gaffney, J.P.; Mr M G Dowling, Mr Patrick Herbert, William street; Mr Nelson, Patrick street; Mr Caffrey, Mr Donnellan, Mr P Tymons, Mr Joseph Fitzgerald, Mr Woodhouse, Mr N A Brophy, the City High Sheriff, Mr Winters, V.S.; Mr George Boyd, Mr John Roberts, Traffic Manager Waterford and Limerick Railway; Mr Cashel, Great Southern and Western Railway; Mr Felkins, Clyde Shipping Company; Mr J P Morrissey, Limerick Steamship Company; Mr S J Glynn, W & L R Co; Mr E Conway, Postmaster; Mr James O'Mara, T.C.; Mr Stephen O'Mara, T.C.; Mr J Anglin, T.C.; Mr D B O'Leary, T.C.; Dr Holmes, Dr Graham, Mr R W Switzer, Mr O'Neil, Manager Guy & Co; Mr J Hardiman, Mr M Egan, Mr H Keller, Mr Coll, V.S.; Mr W S Cox, C.E.; Mr Griffith, Patrick street; Mr Collins, William street; Mr J C T Day, Mr P O'Malley, T.C.; Mr Nolan, Barrington street; Mr S M Sweney, T.C.; Mr P McSweny, T.C.; Mr D Laney, George street; Mr Z Ledger, Mr Laird, Mr J H Rothwell, Mr S E Lee, Mr R Lee, Drs Malone and O'Connor, Mr Blackwell, Rathkeale; Mr P E Bourke, Mr O Wallace, J.P.; Dr Kane, J.P.; Mr James Nash, J.P.; Mr R Nash, solicitor; Mr T M Bourke, Mr P S Connolly, solicitor; Alderman J Dundon, solicitor; Mr J McCarthy, solicitor; Mr Keating (Wallace & C); Mr Martin McGuire, Mr W H Swain, Mr Kearney, solicitor; Mr Hogg, Mr W Christy, Mr L E Ryan, T.C.; M A Hall, junr; Mr James Quin, J.P.; Mr S Quin, Mr Dyer, V.S.; Mr John Ryan, solicitor; Dr Riordan, Mr M A Hennessy, C.E.; Mr O'Halloran, George street; Mr Rowland, do; Mr O'Connor, do; Mr John Bernal, T.C.; Mr Sheahan, Master of the Union; Mr J Guinane, J.P.; Mr Corbett, C.E.; Mr P Corbett, Mr O'Friel, Mr Halliday, William street; Mr P Cronin, Mr Pitt, Sub-Sheriff; Mr Spain, Mr Lenihan, Messrs Smith and Pitt (Smith, Parker and Pitt), Mr James Harris, Mr R Harris, Mr R Hanna, George street; Mr S Hastings, J.P.; Mr J Bernal, Mr J Murphy, Kilrush; Mr P H Sheehan, Gort; Mr P Enright, Newcastle West; Mr T Culligan, Ennis; Mr P J Dillon, do; Mr James Ryan, Killaloe; Mr George Cullen, Newport; Mr C Cullen, do; Mr Bennis, George street; Mr Stanley Deane, Accountant National Bank; Mr Wm DeCourcy, National Bank.

Amongst those who sent carriages were—The Most Rev Dr O'Dwyer, R C Lord Bishop, Mr E Conway, Mr J G Kelly, Mr S Quin, Mr D Tidmarsh, Mr Michael Egan, Mrs O'Callaghan, Mr T E O'Brien, Mr P E Bourke, Mr Archibald Murray, Mr P Dowling, Mr Michael Hartigan, Mr J Quin, J.P.; Mr T M Cregan, J.P.; Mr W S Cox, C.E.; Mr James O'Mara, Mr Michael Walsh, Mr J Alderman J F Walker, Mr F Hobson, Mr Dunworth, Adare; Mr P Kenna, Mr Carmody, Carr street; Mr Enright, Castleconnell; Mr Leonard, Mr Killy, Patrick street; Mr Halpin, Shannon street; Mr Hanly, Cannock and Company; Mr R Jordan, Brunswick street; Mr Laird, George street; Mr Kirby, Adare; Mr B O'Donnell, William street; Dr O'Connor, George street, Mr Halliday, William street; Mr Flynn, Cruise's Hotel.

Father O'Shea, Adm, read the burial service assisted by other clergymen.

Messrs Cannock and Company were the undertakers.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT AT A CHILDREN'S PARTY.

BARRINGTON'S HOSPITAL.—ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Governors of this Institution was held yesterday in the Board-room of the hospital. We regret that in a paragraph calling attention to the meeting which we published in last issue, an unfortunate error as to the date occurred, "Wednesday" instead of Monday having been printed. Those present were—The Mayor, Sir James Spaight, J.P.; Mr F G M Kennedy, Mr Archibald Murray, Mr Michael Egan, Mr P S Connolly, solicitor; Ald J Connihan, J.P.; Mr Laird, Mr Burns, Mr W H Swain, Mr Geo Boyd, Ald Riordan, Mr J P Morrissey, and Mr C B Barrington, J.P., hon sec. Apologies for non attendance were received from Mr Hunt, J.P., and Dr O'Shaughnessy, J.P. The Mayor having been moved to the chair, Mr Barrington read the minutes of the last annual meeting which were signed.

ANNUAL REPORT. The Hon Secretary then read the report from the outgoing committee for 1888:—"In presenting to you our fifty-seventh annual report, your committee has thankfully to record a marked increase in the prosperity and efficiency of the institution during the past year. The number of in-patients being 463 and the number of out-patients 2,459, compared with 365 and 2,179 respectively in the previous year. Your best thanks are due to the Corporation of Limerick for their generous support, by continuing their annual grant of £300 for the funds of the institution. We are happy to be able to report that the Barrington's Hospital Fund which we have organised amongst the employees of the city firms has been a complete success, and is bringing to the institution a handsome income. From this source alone we have received during the past year the sum of £141 19s 5d. We have to thank the employees of Messrs Bannatyne and Sons for the sum of £90, and those of Messrs W J Shaw and Sons for £60 subscribed to this fund, and we are sure that contributions so generous will commend themselves to your special thanks. An unlooked for and important addition to the funds arose from the legacy of £100 left to the hospital by the late Mrs Jacob, of Kyleglass. The annual fancy and full dress ball was held on November 16th, and though not so largely attended as we hoped it would have been, has realized for your funds the sum of £129 6s 3d. The total receipts for the year was £1,492 13s 4d; the expenditure was £1,365 9s 7d, showing a balance to your credit of £127 3s 9d. We would desire to impress on the citizens of Limerick in the strongest manner possible—1st That we have maintained the institution during the past year in a state of thorough efficiency. 2nd That we have maintained it with our ordinary annual income, and without any special appeal for extra support. 3rd That more cases have been relieved in 1888 than there have been in any year since 1870, and also that we have relieved 98 more intern cases and 280 extern cases than in 1887. The proprietors of the Local Press have, with their usual courtesy, constantly given the Hospital news a prominent place in their columns for which your committee return their warm thanks. The handsome dispensary building being erected by the Board of Guardians in Cornwallis street is now nearly completed, and we hope that by March next the City Dispensary Committee will be able to move into their new premises. This will place the portion of the house held by them at your disposal, and we hope to utilize some of this space by converting it into comfortable private rooms suitable for paying patients, the want of such private rooms having long been felt in the city. The committee return their highest appreciation of the services of the honorary medical staff, at all times cheerfully and ably rendered, regardless of personal inconvenience or interest. Your committee lost the services of Dr Connihan in January last. Dr M L Riordan, whom we appointed his successor, has, we are happy to say, amply justified the high testimonials which he brought with him. Miss Oleridge, your matron, resigned in April, and we appointed Mrs Hamilton in her place. We are happy to be able to report to you that during the past year the medical officers, the matron, and the nursing staff have been working harmoniously together. Your best thanks are due to Miss Barrington (Gt-st), Mrs Montford Gavin, and Miss Bunbury, Hon Secs of the 'Ladies Working Guild,' who have supplied to the patients a large quantity of clothes and linen. Appended is a detailed statement of accounts for the year 1888."

Sir James Spaight said he rose with great pleasure to propose a resolution adopting the report. This was the first time he had the honor of performing that duty, and he was pleased to find that it was a particularly favorable occasion. Everything so far as the hospital was concerned being colour de rose and in a satisfactory condition. There was nothing to cause the slightest annoyance or regret. The general features of the report just read were eminently satisfactory and pleasing to every one interested in the hospital, but there were some features in it which he thought required special notice, and would be pleasant reading for those not able to attend there, but who watched the proceedings of the hospital very carefully in the public press. In the first place the action of the Corporation in continuing to give £300 a year to the institution was a matter of congratulation to the Governors, and he thought to every citizen of Limerick. The Corporation of Limerick were according to the old traditions the fathers of the city, and there certainly was no more appropriate parental duty than to provide for the sick and needy all the medical attendance and care they received in that hospital. As a former member of the Corporation, and as one who had the honour of twice filling the chair which the Mayor now so worthily filled, he was greatly gratified and pleased to see the spirit evinced by the Corporation, and he hoped it would continue without interruption (hear, hear). Another feature he would direct attention to was the increased relief which the Governors were enabled to give last year consequent on a better position as regards the funds of the hospital—the number of persons treated showing 98 intern and 280 extern cases in excess of the year 1887. The increased accommodation in the hospital alluded to in the report was another feature, this being the first time he believed on which it had been brought forward. It would supply a want very much felt by persons raised above the lower classes, who were willing to pay there for the medical care and treatment.

Mr Barrington returned th had said too much about h knew the workingman t O'Shaughnessy. He (Mr B) as often as he could, and what he had seen in other O'Shaughnessy, however, in the right place" and he the spot. He much regr gentleman was not there t ing a poor patient typhoid fever, Father O'Sha chance of contracting the B rington) was led to say after, and he hoped that it would have him with them. As none of the doctors we "dub" himself an "M.D." and return thanks on their mittee and the medic capitably together during been no difference between very satisfactory. With re of patients Mr Barrington Riordan had gone back to when there were 119 intern and this year there were 46 how they were getting on enjoyed the confidence of t He stated that meeting O'Dwyer that morning his a notice that he would su the hospital this year (app thought they should wis success with his undertak heart.) In conclusion Mr I that Father O'Shaughness continue as hon sec for th Mr Murray—Are there (laugher.)

Mayor—If so, you are in as we shall now proceed w Mr Barrington proposed outgoing committee, and proposition, which was ag On the motion of Mr M Kennedy, the hon secreta Sir James Spaight hav second chair.

Mr Murray proposed a Mayor. It was unness thing of the Mayor whose was. He (speaker) had m to time and found that manifested the greatest p interests of the hospital.

Mr Kennedy seconded t The Chairman in puttin the Mayor and himself mi the same object in view root of the country they often observed and ackno conscientious manner in the duties of his office (he The Mayor in acknowledged said he felt highly flat and the manner in whi spoken of him. He ca discharge of his duty. I had always been ident charity, and their best a would always follow. O he could do anything to he never would be abse hear.)

Sir James Spaight the be an encouragement to circulated amongst the subscribers

Mr Egan formally seconded the The Mayor in putting the resolu after the exhaustive address Spaight he need not in any way a marks which had been made. It w gratifying thing to find from the r hospital had extended its ope the past year in the numb and extern cases treated, extra appeal to the citizens of gathered from the report that balance of £127 18s 7d to their c money amongst the staff would co to the successful working of the usefulness of which they had su this morning in the number of dren receiving medical treatment Spaight had referred to the Corp Mayor) might say that he was n to promise for them; but so far there was no desire on their par a grant which he thought was a citizens (hear, hear).

The resolution was adopted. Mr Connolly proposed that t meeting be given to the M Honorary Secretaries. He did n institution would get on but f manner in which it was managed Secretaries (hear, hear). He three years on the committee, occasionally to hear the admir the Secretaries, for the com say, gave them no guidance wh was they who guided the con O'Shaughnessy had admirabl financial position of the well as its internal ma for this he was entl best thanks. As to Mr Barrin say one word about him pleasant to praise a gentlem but he might say that the G who spoke of the hospital; as means to his labours the succ which had been brought from dependency to its present sat great deal of credit was also a medical staff, who were there night always ready to attend might be made on them, and appreciated their services in t The institution was a great p city; and the only objection h was the reference to the sury sum included a gift of £100 Jacob, so that practically si just on a line with their e should therefore, keep their wheel and not allow the ir (hear, hear).

Alderman Connihan, in se tion, remarked that they surplus they had and a great the coming year, because as t would be making a valuable tion to their accommodation considerable outlay. There those who contributed durin increase their subscriptions hoped others would follo The resolution having t mously.

Mr Barrington returned th had said too much about h knew the workingman t O'Shaughnessy. He (Mr B) as often as he could, and what he had seen in other O'Shaughnessy, however, in the right place" and he the spot. He much regr gentleman was not there t ing a poor patient typhoid fever, Father O'Sha chance of contracting the B rington) was led to say after, and he hoped that it would have him with them. As none of the doctors we "dub" himself an "M.D." and return thanks on their mittee and the medic capitably together during been no difference between very satisfactory. With re of patients Mr Barrington Riordan had gone back to when there were 119 intern and this year there were 46 how they were getting on enjoyed the confidence of t He stated that meeting O'Dwyer that morning his a notice that he would su the hospital this year (app thought they should wis success with his undertak heart.) In conclusion Mr I that Father O'Shaughness continue as hon sec for th Mr Murray—Are there (laugher.)

Mayor—If so, you are in as we shall now proceed w Mr Barrington proposed outgoing committee, and proposition, which was ag On the motion of Mr M Kennedy, the hon secreta Sir James Spaight hav second chair.

Mr Murray proposed a Mayor. It was unness thing of the Mayor whose was. He (speaker) had m to time and found that manifested the greatest p interests of the hospital.

Mr Kennedy seconded t The Chairman in puttin the Mayor and himself mi the same object in view root of the country they often observed and ackno conscientious manner in the duties of his office (he The Mayor in acknowledged said he felt highly flat and the manner in whi spoken of him. He ca discharge of his duty. I had always been ident charity, and their best a would always follow. O he could do anything to he never would be abse hear.)

Sir James Spaight the be an encouragement to