hese conthat the istribute r future o add to king the cation of us occuien their pected to and conhis wife. e gift of gal, and ow home. ordinary Commisto those ngested sewhere. ndowner depart ? mind of from the called P mpleted oulation. hey were vision of aquering ed to Mr.

ongested In the matter it leads sing all iere the there The at whatunskiln reason ccupiers chase is 3 whole rdens of rived of se they reaping the stations of field batteries in Ireland. As at present arranged. Athlone ceases to be an artillery station, and the single battery stations at Limerick and Clonmel, are also abolished, the only single battery in Ireland in future being Longford. The latter is a new station for field artillery. The reason for these changes is that it has been determined to place each group of two bat teries under the immediate command of a Lieutenant-Colonel.—Evening Mail.

PROMOTION OF MAJOR LOWSLEY, R.E.-Among the recent promotions we observe that Major B. Lowsley, R.E., who has been stationed in this garrison for six years or so, has been raised to the rank of Lieut-Col. Colonel Lowsley joined the service in 1862, became captain in 1876, and major in 1882. He has had a very varied experience in various parts of the British Dominions, and is also known in the literary world. His monograph on the dialects of Berkshire has been highly spoken of. As a numismatist he takes a high order, his speciality being the obscure department of tokens, etc. Major Lowsley leaves Limerick for a scene of operations more in accordance with his newly acquired rank.

DEATH OF THE REV WILLIAM CARBOLL, C.C.-The parisbioners of St John's parish, and, indeed, all who knew him, deeply regret the death of the Rev William Carroll, C.C., St John's who contracted fever a short time ago, and succumbed to that direful malady yesterday morning. deceased clergyman was a native of Bruff, and was ordained 21 years ago. For some years past he had been curate in St John's parish and was highly esteemed by all classes—rich and poorfor his kind and sympathetic disposition. office and Mass for the repose of the soul of the deceased will be celebrated at the Cathedral at 11 o'clock to-morrow.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN MONCK CROKER.-We much regret to record the death of Mr John Monck Croker which took place in Dublin on Sunday, from typhus fever. The sad news was telegraphed to Mr H. S. Croker, while in Kilkee to discharge his duties as starter of the races. He immediately left for Dublin and, as we record elsewhere, his position was filled by Mr Montiford The deceased gentlemen was the only son and heir of the late Mr J. Croker, eldest brother of Mr H. Croker, who, it is understood, will now come into possession of the family estate of Ballinagarde. The deceased gentleman only attained his majority a few years ago, and was about entering the army. The interment will take place at Rochestown, Ballinagarde, on Wednesday at five p.m. The funeral service took place at Mount Jerome to-day (Tuesday) in the presence of many friends.

THE CONVERSAZIONE AT THE TESTANT YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION. TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE. October 8th, 1889.

DEAR SIR, -The Committee and the Literary Class beg through your valuable paper to return their sincere thanks to the ladies who presided ind pur- over the tea tables at their Conversazione, and and announced the advent of M'Grath's arriv after which a large crowd proceeded to the stean quay at Cappa, and vociferously cheered for l M'Grath and the Plan of Campaign. He was th escorted by a procession to the town, the crowd agi and again cheering the liberated prisoner, who I completed eight months in gaol. M'Grath address the people briefly. He thanked them for the hone conferred on him, and said that for the victo gained by the Vandeleur tenants in the Plan Campaign he would not grudge to spend ten tin the term in gaol. Later on tar barrels were light in front of a house in Henry-street, where M'Gre had been staying, and another crowd assemble The police immediately arrived on the scene a commenced to disperse the crowd, when they we pelted with bottles and stones. The police drove the crowd, and arrested a young man named Coo who, as alleged, defied them and commenced throw parafin oil into a blazing barrel in the presence. No further disturbance took place.

THE ALLEGED EMBEZZLEMENT AT MESSRS. EVANS & CO'S.

At the City Police Court, to-day, before Alde man Gaffney, Robert J. Gubbins, lately a clerk the employment of Messrs J. P. Evans & (George-street, was put forward on remar charged with embezzling various sums of mon in the years 1888 and 1889 in the establishment. will be remembered that the prisoner was before the Court on this day week, when an application for a remand was made by the prosecution enable the books to be fully examined. remand having expired to-day the accused w brought before the Court, and there was a lar attendance of the general public in expectation the case being gone into. In this, however they were disappointed.

Mr Hall, solr, said he appeared on behalf of A Connolly, solr, and applied for a remand of M Gubbins to next day. Mr Connolly was engage at Glin to-day, and besides he (Mr Hall) was i structed that the inquiry into the alleged defi cations had not been completed. Under the c cumstances he would ask his worship for a fu ther remand.

Mr M'Carthy, solr, who appeared for Mess Dundon and Doyle, solicitors for the defend consented to the application, and the prisoner w accordingly remanded until to-morrow.

THE STORM IN LIMERICK AND CLAR

The violent storm which swept over this di trict on Sunday night, left behind it a record destruction to property, which has almost bee unsurpassed within recent years. At nine o'clock strong gale increased until it had almost reache the force of a hurr cane. The various shippir crafts anchored in the river underwent a seve: tossing, and a yacht, the property of Mr Grub anchored off Russell's Quay, was smashed atoms, while some boats outside the Boat Clu were submerged and injured. The reports which reach us from the Harbour give accounts of fu ther damage to vessels. The schooner Pacifi bound with a cargo of oats from Messrs Powe and Sons. Carr street, dragged her ancho and drifted ashore between Green Island and th