 were disposed of at about last sale's prices, but a few dealers' lots were withdrawn, being reserved at a shade over ruling prices, and some parcels of low wool were withheld for want of competifrom England and Scotland, as well as the Dublin trade, and amongst the Irish manufacturers we noticed the following, viz.—Messrs Hill and Sons, Gleeson, Smith and Co., Sherrard, Smith and Co., Pressley and Sons, Moylan, Murphy, Dunne, Willoughby, Phillips, M'Wey, Clarke, Heraty, Joyce, Elcock, Weymes, &c.
