

OF THE LATE
ER.

late Mrs O'Dwyer,
hop, took place to-
veyed on Thursday
during la-t evening
people anxious to ceased lady whilst
ed. At 9 o'clock
m Mass was cele-Grade the Most
f Cashel presided.
Dr O'Dwyer also Communion-rails, rebishop. At the r O'Shea acted as n, deacon; the Rev
n; and the Rev
ter of ceremonies.
e Ven Archdeacon
nters were, the Rev
v Father Higgins.
ple who participated
testimony to the
the deceased lady aintances and the
to the profound is Lordship in his fest throughout the first announced.
of sympathy with
y all the principal
ng partially closed.
at the conclusion
ps, the largest and ssed in the city for s were enclosed in a eing of mahogany
which was strewn polished oak with
h engraved plate,
ription :—
.....
ER,
),
rs.
.....
Lordship the Most
nllivan, PP, Kilkee.
ty mentioned, the

DEATH OF MR. ROBERT REEVES. Q.C.

The legal profession in Limerick and the public generally have heard with regret of the death of Mr Robert Reeves, Q.C., which took place on Thursday morning at his residence, Ely Place, Dublin, at the age of 56 years. The deceased gentleman was called to the Bar in the Michaelmas term of 1857, and applied himself to the practice of the law with great earnestness, winning distinction principally in equity, in which branch his opinion was always looked for in complicated cases. In 1880 he was appointed Queen's Counsel, and soon after the passing of the Land Act of 1881 was offered the position of legal sub-commissioner, which he accepted and filled up to the time of his death with dignity and impartiality. He was, we believe, the Chairman of the first Sub-Commission which sat in Limerick, and with his colleagues, Mr O'Keefe, Mr Rice, and others, disposed of many important test cases under the Land Act during his stay in Limerick and Clr. For some three years or so, however, Mr Reeves had exclusively been engaged in the Midland and other districts. He was a gentleman of a most courteous disposition, giving a fair and considerate hearing to everyone who came before him, no matter what his position might be, and he was highly respected by all who knew him. In private life Mr Reeves was a great favourite. He was deeply interested in the study of music, and was very much appreciated in musical circles in Dublin. His genial and social qualities gained for him the respect of all who knew him, and his death will be deeply mourned by an extensive circle of acquaintances. The funeral will leave for Mount Jerome Cemetery on Monday morning next.

LIMERICK PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.

The usual monthly meeting of the Committee of this Society was held on Tuesday, 4th instant. Rev. Chencellor Gubbins, Chairman. Arrangements were made for apprenticeship of one of the boys on Society's List to a Carpenter. Committee considered Special Reports from two of the Locations. In our case decision was postponed until the Quarterly Returns to 30th June have been furnished; and in the other until the Inspectors' opinion can be had. The Council of Female Orphan Training School reported that at recent Sunday School Examinations one of the girls in the Institution gained Second Prize in Special Class—one, a Silver Medal, and four others Book Prizes. The success at these examinations of two boys located in

KILMALLOCK UNION.—THURSD.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

The usual weekly meeting of this Board held on Thursday, Mr P. O'Donoghue, man, presiding. Also present—Messrs Weldon, J.P.; P. J. Walsh, S. B. W. Mitchell, W. Connolly, W. G. O'Brien, John Mannix, J. D. Barry, W. M. Cleary, James Pender, and Dr. McGrath.

The following letter was read from the Government Board by the Clerk, Mr P. C. "Local Government Board,

"SIR,—I am directed by the Local Government Board for Ireland to acquaint the Board of Guardians of the Kilmallock Union that they have received a report from their Inspector, Routledge-Fair, seriously reflecting Mr O'Meara, poor rate collector, and the late acting collector of the Kilmallock Union. I am to forward you the accompanying report, and to accompany the reports that the acting clerk has acknowledged the late Collector O'Meara had retained rates collected by him, and he admitted also furnished incorrect abstracts to the Government Board as to the weekly lod made by this collector.

"The Board think the guardians would do well to advise the books of Collector Cahill the late Collector O'Meara, so he taken care fully examined, and to record their solicitude proceedings against the sureties defaulters in each case.

"I am, sir,
your obedient servant,
Thomas A. Mooney

"Extract from Major Routledge-Fair's dated 1st June, 1889:—

"Having reason to doubt the accuracy of the weekly abstract of the rate collector, and in Kilmallock union, furnished to your Board by the clerk of the union, I made inquiry into the actual state of the collection, with the following result:—A sum of £294 1s 4d appears in the abstract as arrears brought forward to the rate in Collector Cahill's district. The rate and collectors' warrants, however, only amount to a sum of £186 3s 5d. The deficiency, £107 7s 9d, seems to have been collected by Cahill some time last year, but has not yet been lodged to the credit of the union. A careful examination of Mr Cahill's accounts for the rates shows that he has also collected, but yet lodged a sum over £200.

Mr Dindon, solicitor, Limerick, then a