ENGLISH HARVEST.

Lane Express says:—Once more a
... ly August has come to diminish
... the farmers' crops. The rains have
... as continuous as last year, nor the
... quite so depressed; but the area of
... ry large. Barley has been beaten
... lly, and melting values must be re-
... ssly diminished. Samples of new
... t yet numerous at Mark Lane.
... been at 33s to 35s per quarter,
... nicks of new crop may be put at 36s
... 34s for old. Old wheat sells slowly,
... being larger, their usual prices are
... the cause of the cheapness of home-
... is the languid demand for flour,
... and green vegetables are cheap,

... officiated. The greater part of the lots catalogued
... were disposed of at about last sale's prices, but
... a few dealers' lots were withdrawn, being reserved
... at a shade over ruling prices, and some parcels
... of low wool were withheld for want of competi-
... tion. A fair attendance of buyers was observed
... from England and Scotland, as well as the Dublin
... trade, and amongst the Irish manufacturers we
... noticed the following, viz.—Messrs Hill and Sons,
... Gleeson, Smith and Co., Sherrard, Smith and Co.,
... Pressley and Sons, Moylan, Murphy, Dunne,
... Willoughby, Phillips, M'Wey, Clarke, Heraty,
... Joyce, Elcock, Weymes, &c.
