ruit and vegetable farm-, osier growing and basket theries (internal and seanining, quarries and clays. Most of these are ible development. Fruit important product, and all ay be seen the relics of ards, but which are now skilled hands a garden is a come, and the produce, if fetch prices that formerly ulous. Poultry farming is rce of profit, and with the transit opened up during ilities for sending fowl to is little to be desired. But good breed, well fed, and otherwise they cut a sorry imp products of France and our fisheries, the condin is deplorable. These, tant sources of income, are ry importance as compared cal development generally. d source of revenue to sups of agriculture which for st must be regarded as the ortant means of livelihood t of the population. Owing it have taken place, both in ntries, a new and improved must be practised if the is to make a living out of What is needed is the carethe young in the elementary ledge of which is absolutely intelligent pursuit of their he League has not forgotten t it only "hopes" to take up lustrial education in primary be added that the League is ly non-sectarian and nonthat at all meetings religious tions are strictly prohibited. ion proceeds to its work by et committees for the purpose rmation to be forwarded to id to organize public meetings, and should attract the arrennen or Rentiemen We publish particulars renewing their dairies. in another column.

THE LATE MR. NUGENT-HUMBLE. - Limerick, one of the finest hunting countries in the kingdom, is just now masterless, owing to the sadly sudden death of Mr Nugent-Humble, who fell a victim to a chill caught at his brother's funeral about a fortnight ago. Mr Nugent-Humble undertook the mastership of this pack at a time when foxhunting was at a very low ebb indeed, owing to "agitation." His brother transferred the hounds to him, and by his conciliatory manner, his keenness for sport, and his fine horsemanship, he won the people over to his side and that of foxhunting. It will be hard to fill the gap made by his death, and the hardest rider in the county, Mr Harry Croker, is just now invalided. World.

DEATH OF THE HON HUGH MASSEY.

We announce with much regret the demise, which took place yesterday at Elm Park, of the Hon Hugh N. G. Massey, second son of the third Baron Clarina, and brother of the present Lord. The deceased gentleman had been in failing health for some time past, and lately got an attack of influenza which turned to bronchitis on Saturday. This proved too much for his enfeebled constitution, and he passed peacefully away yesterday at half-past one p.m. The Hon. Hugh Massy too's a great interest in all matters appertaining to agriculture, and as a stock-breeder, in particular, his name was widely known. At the Munster Fair some of the finest stock exhibited came from his farms, while at cattle shows the Hon Hugh was a highly-successful competitor. He was most popular with all classes, and to the poor a kind and staunch friend. They have lost in him a great benefactor, and his kind deeds to them will ever be remembered. Indeed the whole neighbourhood mourns the loss of a true and sincere friend. As an employer of labour he was most liberal, thoughtful, and sympathetic, and his great experience as a practical farmer was always looked up to and valued by the farmers of the county. The deceased gentleman, who was unmarried, was in his 54th year. The funeral will leave Elm Park at 10 a.m., on Monday next, for interment at the family vault, Kilkeedy Graveyard.

KILDYSART BOARD OF GUARDIANS AND THEIR SOLICITOR.

(TELEGRAM FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT).

Kildysart, Thursday Evening.

At the usual weekly meeting of the guardians to day Mr Clancy brought forward his motion for the dismissal of Mr J. B. Moloney as solicitor to On a poll being taken there were dismissal and seven against. the Board. nine for the The guardians present were Messrs Eyres (presiding), Hurley, Kelly, Cusack, O'Dea, Houlihan, King, McCarthy, Clancy, Murphy, and Hehir. The following ex-officios were present Messrs disagreed with many thin he looked on the Bard as would be a sad thing in obliged to seek the shelte they allowed him to know be a sad reflection on the city (hear, hear). He (A that the sum to paid to t now. The body of his wi Limerick, and was there: more of his country than

Mr Cregan also spoke talent, and said any mo would have his heartiest:

The sum of £1 per weel Bard's salary on the O'Mara, seconded by Mr (

THE SCHEDULE OF

was then taken up.
On a claim by the Tre
payment of fees to medica by the Coroner, and expe as well as the cost of rem

Alderman Gaffney str employment of two medic inquests set out in the co was the necessity of two old experienced practition did not take the oath at a

Mr Herbert—I don't th objection to the charge. request of the jury that sent for.

Mr Connolly—That's tl cases a man is to be tried if ever there was a case in was necessary, I should t

The presentment was r The Governors of Barri for £150 in aid of the sur for six months ending 30 Alderman O'Mara und would only ask £100. A resolution was read (of the Corporation to: Assizes.

Alderman O'Mara said hospital—St John's—an justified in increasing th the grant of £300 betwee that Barrington's Hospit rate of £200 that was 4

Mr Begley seconded th that while Barrington sympathies, he could not the rates.

Mr C. B. Barrington, rington's Hospital, said of £95 against them thi tion saw their way to giv for this half year they w £200 in the future.

Alderman Gaffney—(support it.

Mr Power hoped they the hospital in the mov It was of the greatest a fact it was their only re The presentment was

The governors of St applied for £100 for a l