BALLYKETT FAIR.—There was a good supply of cattle at this fair, held at Ballykett, near Kilrush, on Monday. The buying was brisk, and a large amount of business transacted. The prices were up to late quotations at fairs recently held in other parts of the country.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A very sad occurrence is reported from Glenquin. Miss Catherine Cussen, who belonged to a respectable family in the locality, died suddenly near her residence on Sunday evening from an attack of epilepsy. The deceased was very popular, and her funeral, which was held yesterday, was attended by a large number, testifying to their regret at her demise.

ENNIS UNION.—The guardians present at Ennis workhouse yesterday were, Messrs Solomon Frost, J.P. (in the chair), Michael Killeen and Michael Lynch, who transacted the necessary business of the establishment. No correspondence was received from the Local Government Board. ACCIDENT ON THE LARTIGUE RAILWAY.—An excursion train on the Lartigue line from Ballybunion to Listowel met with an accident on Sunday, which fortunately had no fatal result. Three of the wagons toppled over and fell from the line to the ground, a distance of about a foot. The passengers, who were only shaken, returned to Ballybunion, and a special was chartered two hours afterwards to convey them to Listowel.

ON STRIKE IN ONE WEEK. Having regard to circumstances of the line, and to the fact that the shareholders were not receiving a dividend, the strike was deprecated, and it was decided to yield to the men.

VISIT TO JOHN DALY IN CLARE PRISON.

On Tuesday, Messrs W. Abraham and J. O'Connor, M.P.'s, visited John Daly in Clare Prison. The prisoner looked well, and was better than he expected to be after the confinement he experienced at the hands of the medical officers. He complained of dyspepsia and of frequent attacks of pain in his left side. The visitor told that no allusion to the recent issue of the debate in the House of Commons was allowed, and this warning was attended to by the prisoner. Mr Daly made several ineffectual attempts to refer to the subject, but was prompt to desist on each occasion that he was rebuffed. He complained that no change had been made in his treatment, at least since the time that he had been exempted from the usual work of the prisoners, and inquired of the medical officers whose treatment he had inquired into. He said that he had been very ill more than once, but had not been taking any medicine from the prison. On being asked to change his mind on the assurance of his friends that no harm need now be feared, he declined, saying he would rather die than again take medicine compounded in the prison. The prisoner said he was gratified that he could express that he had been forgotten by his people outside, and was understood that he was now anxious for an opportunity of visiting him should be granted. Abraham promised him that when he could not avail of the opportunity, that he could arrange for others to visit him.

LIMERICK RACES.

The Limerick Races, which were postponed owing to unforeseen circumstances, will take place on the 9th and 10th Sept, having been originally scheduled for the same dates in October. This fixture has been arranged by Mr James Flynn, in the unavailing attempt to prevent the departure from town of Mr E. C. Winter, V.S. Mr Winter has had a telegram from Mr Brabant that he would get the National Hunt Committee to sanction the alteration as proposed, and the executive are making every effort to meet the meeting quite as successful as in previous years, and we understand the probability of the races being in place next year.
