

obtains a high place, and is sure of an on. Good answering is also recorded Thomas Hogan and Mr. Joseph Noonan, latter obtains the gold medal for The Sacred Heart College, therefore. Two gold medals in the Senior Grade, Junior Grade, Messrs. J. Hartigan, and I obtained high places, and may expect The Christian Schools have no high the Senior Grade, but in the Middle Exhibitions fall to Messrs P. Tra and J. Enright, whilst R. Harold, on, and J. J. Harold may be amongst semen. Three students are certain exhibitions in the Junior Grade, for T. Jacques, P. Foley, and F. Kavanagh in the number. Other students whose ranks high are Messrs. T. A. gh, J. C. O'Connor, T. O'Meara, and J. Mr. James Davin, of the Diocesan Ennis, obtains an Exhibition in the trade, as also does Mr J. C. Molony, ollege, Ennis. In the list of girls, elen Laird, of Madame de Prins' occupies a good place in the Senior and though, perhaps, failing of an on, may be certain of a prize in the Grade. Miss Ellen Ebrill has done the Middle Grade. The Examination is considered to have been stricter ial, whilst at the same time the number bitions in the Junior Grade has been to one in every twenty students who d themselves. In previous years the on of Exhibitions was double that? nge tells severely against the junior many of whom are thus cut off from rds of labour which they would have other years. The answering of the Exhibitions of the Junior Grade is ly high this year. Out of a 7,000 marks Mr. Patrick Semple, of mb's College, Londonderry, obtained r 92 per cent., and the second, Mr. Campbell, of the Academic Institution, lerry, 6,086, or 87 per cent., and his 700 above the next in the list. We late the successful students, for they o have well earned their Exhibitions

"CONTINENTAL FASHION."—The second number of Continental Fashion, just to hand, is replete with information for ady readers. It is not only a fashion journal but it is devoted also to art and literature. The illustrations of the autumn fashions are beautiful, and the descriptions are lucidly and carefully written. There is a very useful paper, with illustrations, on art needlework, together with lessons on gold embroidery. Under the heading of "The Tattler" will be found an amount of Society news, and following this is a column or so each of Scotch and Irish "Tattle." We have also Parisian gossip, general items, and a variety of other information. Continental Fashion is capital value for sixpence. It is published at 18 New Bridge-street, Blackfriars, London, E.C.

THEATRE ROYAL.

On Thursday and Friday evenings, Mrs Albert Barker gave Dramatic and Musical Recitals at the Theatre Royal. We regret the performance did not receive the support it deserved, but we believe that when Mrs Barker again visits Limerick that she will be the recipient of a very large share of public patronage. Those who were present on this occasion enjoyed a very rare intellectual treat. The lady is a reciter of very great
