

POST OFFICE F.C. v. PHOENIX F.C.—This match will take place to-morrow at the Markets field, when the following team will represent the Post Office:—O'Sullivan, full; Ormston, Hailes, and Kenna, halves; Lynch and Forsythe, quarters; J. Fogarty, Croker, Gaynor, Burrows, O'Brien, Hook, Ryan, E. M'Cartie, and Hailes. Kick off at 3.30.

LITERARY CLASS, P.Y.M.A.—Our readers are reminded that the next meeting of the above class will be held on Friday evening next, 7th Nov, when Professor Todd will bring before the class the life and works of the great German poet, Heine. On such a subject Professor Todd, who makes any subject interesting, is sure to supply the class with a treat such as they rarely have.

CUSTOM HOUSE WARD.—Mr J. H. Moran, solicitor, is a candidate for the representation of the Custom House Ward in the Town Council in opposition to Mr Stephen M'Sweeney, T.C., who goes out by rotation. Mr Moran's candidature was approved of at the last meeting of the Sarsfield Branch of the National League, and a committee appointed to further his interests in the contest.

DEATH OF LADY EMLY.—We regret to announce the death of Lady Emly which took place at Tervoe to-day after a lengthened illness. She was a very popular lady, of a kind and most charitable disposition, and by the poor of the neighbourhood she will long be missed. We sympathise with Lord Emly and his family in their bereavement. The funeral will leave Tervoe on Thursday at ten o'clock for Killeedy.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT ON THE MULCAIRE.—On Sunday Wm. Heafey, servant to Captain Gubbins, Lismolane, was endeavouring to row a boat across the river Mulcaire, when it upset, throwing him into the water. He endeavoured to swim to the bank, but was swept on by the current and drowned. The body has not yet been recovered, although the police at Cahirculish have dragged the river between the place and Barrington's Bridge. Heafey was about 24 years of age, and married about 12 months.

SERIOUS ASSAULT IN COUNTY LIMERICK.—A report from Knocklong states that a serious assault was committed on Friday on a man named John Sampson, of Galbally, by, as alleged, Patk Ryan, of same place. Ryan, it is said, struck Sampson with a spoke of a wheel on the head, causing a serious fracture. He is now in a serious state, and is attended by Dr Hennessy, who requisitioned the aid of Dr M'Namara, Kilmallock. Ryan was arrested and brought before Mr Bennett, J.P., and remanded to Limerick jail.

LIMERICK DOCK LABOURERS AND THEIR WAGES. The following circular has been issued:—"Limerick Dock Labourers' Society—SIR,—At a general meeting, held in this room on Tuesday

read from Lord Muskerry, Lord Langford, R. J. Gabbett, Esq., J.P. Reeves, Esq., J.P.; Thomas Frank George Gough, Esq., J.P.; and John Mr Cox said that owing to the the weather Lord James Butler from attending the meeting, but on behalf he had pleasure in handing tion to the Hon Treasurer.

The minutes of the previous ge were read by the Hon Secretary, a The following appointments were ensuing year:—

County Delegates—Major-General J. B. Hewson, Esq., J.P.; F. H. C. D.L.

Supplemental Delegates—Wm. D.L.; J. B. Barrington, Esq., J.P.

The following gentlemen were a on the County Committee, viz:—

Major Maunsell, High Sheriff livan, Esq., J.P.; Peter Fitzgerald, Russell, Esq., J.P.; Arthur Wh Edward White, Esq., J.P.; R. Co Esq., J.P.; T. D. Atkinson, Esq., Adam, J.P.; The Knight of Glin, D.L.; E. G. Brown, Esq.; R. L. Brown, Delmege, Esq., D.L.; George Tay E. J. Gabbett, Esq., J.P.; Captain General Lloyd, Captain W. Vander Lord Massy.

Hon. Secretary and Treasurer.—Hosford was again elected to fill th

The following resolutions wer agreed to:—

1—"That we deprecate in the manner as unjust any measure of that offers any less consideration. perty than ready money or imperi payment."

2—"That the injustice of the as at present is so glaring we c that in any solution of the Land C of relief will be found which will payer in a more equitable position

3—"That this meeting strongl wholesale and compulsory Land P as fraught with danger to the b the country at large, and ruinous resident landlords whose existence is so beneficial in various ways."

4—"That we request our dele before the Convention the w Labourers Act in the county of I view of requesting the immedia the Government to the gross abu

5—"That an extension and an Ashbourne Act would be the s effective means of accomplishing Government have in view—name of a peasant proprietorship—an out we think that the transfer of made much cheaper and more e we believe that a Bill dealing landed estates in Ireland will b this purpose."

6—"That we call upon the Go extend Sec. 3 of the Public W 1889, to all Board of Works loan: future; (2) To capitalise all under said Act; and (3) To re subject. He does are should inter- The business of e preservation of strictions against the protection of minimal attempts of inds the less the he State protec- t with Mr. Brad- edure meant that f giving employ- uct a number of ould be incurred. omunity would and wages would r that somebody erwise would not g the eight hours, ool Trades Union ll industries, and Hours' Bill which see of that body revent overtime? failure, for home ed, and policemen force the law and a quarter of an eriod in order to s, if there was to ours many indus- up in which it was an eight hours. oster's speech, in nciple of an eight nerally recognised and unhealthiness ough did not think he special dangers degree explosions, fall of roofs and were left totally ars' Bill. As to ere were a number that were more re was no proposal country. Again, practical question