

en the Opposition and the report of the Commission quarters than was at first amendment is in the strongest Gladstone gets the credit of ip himself and having insisted form in opposition to the ho thought that milder terms iced some of the Liberal-llowing their former leader on least. Mr. Gladstone insists eing fought out on strictly it is not difficult to predict s something very unexpected aps it is thought by the party ouchere's long-threatened and, n, most damaging attack has d—never took place at all—e way of showing fight ought to Mr. Gladstone, it appears, is on doing, and the speech with introduce his amendment is to as likely to be one of his nd most vigorous oratorical right hon. gentleman will move adopting the Report, thanking oners, and ordering that the bered in the Journals of the tted. In their stead he will following be inserted:—"That ms it to be its duty to record n of the false charges of the ost odious description, based on forgery, which have been made embers of this House, and par-ist Mr Parnell, and while declar-ation at the exposure of these , House expresses its regret for icted and the suffering and loss ough a protracted period by reason nd flagrant iniquity." To those partial view of the Report, the the amendment, though strong,

It is true that false charges of nd most odious description have against Mr Parnell and other the Irish party, and that these based on calumny and forgery, Mondes Harper, Resident Magistrate. Colonel Eyanson, R.M., who has been in Newry for the past five years, leaves for Clonmel to take charge of that district as Resident Magistrate. Colonel Eyanson will be succeeded by the Hon S. F. Carew, R.M.

CAPTAIN VANDELEUR AND THE KILRUSH TOWN COMMISSIONERS.—Capt Vandeleur has decided to receive a deputation from the Kilrush Town Commissioners at Ennis next week, in reference to their demands to rent from him the tolls and customs of Kilrush, as well as the management of the Creek. The people of the town complain of the absence of any fairs in Kilrush, and say that its trade has been diverted elsewhere, while rents, rates, and all sorts of taxes are very high.—COR.

KILDYSART PETTY SESSIONS.—The usual fortnightly Sessions were held yesterday, before Lieutenant Wm. Henn, J.P. Only ten cases were listed for hearing, nine of which were police charges of drunkenness. Fines varying from 1s to 2s 6d and costs were imposed in all these cases. Sergeant Malone, Kildysart, charged three persons named Walsh, Sexton, and Sullivan, with fighting at the fair on the 20th inst. After hearing the evidence, Mr Henn said the charge was a serious one, and he would adjourn it till Mr Hodder, R.M., was present. This concluded the business.—COR.

THE LATE MRS HUDSON, RATHKEALE.—The much lamented death of Mrs Elizabeth Hudson, at her residence, Pigott Arms Hotel, Rathkeale, after a brief illness, has caused widespread sympathy and regret as was shown by the large number of people who attended her funeral on Wednesday last to the new cemetery. The office and High Mass were celebrated by Rev. R. J. Ambrose, C.C., Ardagh; Rev F. Ambrose, C.C., Ballygarry; Rev J. Liston, C.C., Rathkeale, assisted by Ven Archdeacon Halpin, Rev Father Sheehy, P.P.; Rev Father Kelly, P.P.; Rev Father Hallinan, C.C.; Rev Father Murphy, C.C.; Rev Father Molony, C.C.; Rev Father Conway, C.C.

OUTRAGE AND INTIMIDATION IN CLARE.—On Saturday evening three men, disguised and armed with revolvers, entered the farmhouse of Mr John Hayes, poor law guardian, in the absence of himself and his eldest son, and took away his gun. On Mr Hayes's return he saw the men going away, and, following them, demanded back his gun. One of the men fired a revolver in his direction. Mr Hayes still following, one of the men returned and threatened if he came any further to shoot him. This threat had the desired effect. An election of solicitor to the Ennis guardians is coming off next Wednesday, and it is conjectured that the visit of the party was to deter Mr Hayes from voting for one of the candidates. Mr Hayes resides at Druminina, about five miles from Ennis.

CANNOCK AND COMPANY, LIMITED.
The following is the report of the directors of Cannock & Company, Limited, to be presented to their half yearly meeting on linen in Belfast, wool bacon factories, &c. an hour and a half, an attention.

The following sub the discussion:—Mr. Mr Switzer, Mr Baxendale. The disc harmoniously, each s essayist on the pract subject was treated.

The next meeting evening, February 28t evening will be a Unionism is both n The affirmative will Switzer, and the nega

LENTEN PASTORAL DR.

THE TEMPEL
A Lenten pastoral Limerick was read on of the diocese. T length with the Te course of which his however, one offering make to God dur seems to me, contain of mortification, with to corporal health—whole or in part, fr drink. This year self-denial is singul and if generally ado and happy preparat tenary of the great immortal name for gained an everlastin the Apostle of Temp tunately much of t Matthew devoted hi The curse of drun evils, has not been It still oppresses us, ness—a fatal epid disease, killing, dev bodies of our pec ments of this kin counter statements tion in this respect can be more futile? are worse? Shall absolute morality—might be with the And looking at our our towns, two pro true. One is that crying evil, and t done hitherto, and present moment al out. No one can o to an appalling an only to walk thro Saturday and Sun of this state of thi painful force. blasphemies, and fanation of that N