the barony of Barren, where portion of the tails of fourteen two-year-old bullocks were brutally cut off by some unknown miscreants a few nights ago. The cattle belonged to Miss Minnie Forster, of Rinroe, and were grazing on her farm at Eantybeg. She has lodged a claim for £168 compensation for malicious injury with the secretary to the Clare Grand Jury. The farm on which the cattle were grazing was one from which a tenant named Moran was evicted some time since.

POOR LAW CONTESTS AT NEWCASTLE WEST.

It would appear as if the contests which are to take place in this Union are to be fought out very keenly. In the Newcastle West electoral division the local branch of the National League have issued posters in support of the candidature of the sitting guardians, Messrs Ambrose and Mulcahy. Their opponent is Mr Thomas Enright, of Ballingown. In Cleanglass the League has also adopted the sitting guardian, Mr Thomas Mahony, as their candidate. Mr Cornelius Martin is the League candidate for Ballintober division.—COR

THE LATE DR KANE—Yesterday being the first meeting of the city magistrates since the death of the late Dr Kane, for many years a Justice of the Peace for the city, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:—"That we have learned with deep regret of the death of Dr Thomas Kane, M.D., one of the oldest magistrates of this city, the duties of which, and other municipal duties, he discharged for so many years to the satisfaction of the citizens. That we tender to his family our sympathy in their sad bereavement, and assure them that his memory will long be remembered in this, his native city."

SALE OF CARRIG FARM, CLARINA.—On Monday next the very valuable farm known as Carrig, Clarina, will come under the hammer at Mr F. W. M'Carthy's salesrooms, 60 George-street, by instructions of Mr William Sheahan, who is about to reside in Limerick. It contains about 35 Irish acres of dairy feeding and pasture land, with the splendid residence, farm buildings and offices, all in the very best order, and fit for immediate occupation. It is held under a lease for one life at the annual rent of £55 15s 6d, on which an abatement of 15 per cent has been constantly allowed. This farm is one of the best situated and most comfortable in the neighbourhood of the city.

FISHING AT CASTLECONNELL.—The following is a return of fishing during the week.—Mr Henry Hodges, on the Doonass fishery, 11th inst., one salmon, 28lbs. Mr J. Muller, on the same fishery, 13th inst., one salmon, 30lbs. Mr G. W. Greenhill, on the Newgarden Fishery, 8th inst., one salmon, 32lbs; 14th, two, 21 and 19lbs.
