MR WILLIAM O'BRIEN AND THE PREMIER.

London, Wednesday. The Court of Appeal to-day, consisting of the Master of the Rolls and Justices Fry and Lopes, had before them the appeal of Mr Wm O'Brien, M.P., in his action for alleged slander against Lord Salisbury in a speech delivered by him at Watford. The action was tried at Manchester, and a verdict for defendant was given. An application to the Divisional Court for a new trial was refused; hence the present action. Mr Gully for the appellant, urged that the jury should have found for the plaintiff.

A long legal argument took place as to the construction put upon the language of Mr O'Brien by Lord Salisbury.

Mr Gully admitted that Mr O'Brien advocated boycotting, but denied that he favoured or incited to crime and outrage.

Mr Gully had not concluded his argument in support of the appeal when the Court rose for the day.

THE GRAND CANAL STRIKE.

Yesterday a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Grand Canal Company was held at the offices, James's street. The result of the meeting was that the board decided to accept the contract of Mr Hannin, Banagher, for haulage. Mr Hannin proposes to advance the wages of the drivers to 16s 6d a week, being 1s 6d more than they had previously received. Mr Minnock, as representing Mr Hannin, communicated this proposal to the drivers, and they have decided to hold a meeting to-day. The directors have issued
