letter to Mr Richard Maunsell, of Island and shot by moonlighters if he allowed two workmen who were obnoxious in the locality to dance in a barn with others. Mr John F. Cullinan, Sessional Crown Solicitor, prosecuted, and Mr Edward O'Meehan, Solicitor, defended the accused. Documents found with Blake were produced, and Mr J. Peat, an expert, specially brought down from Dublin by the Crown, deposed that the writing in the threatening letter was positively the same as that in the documents found with Blake. He underwent a long cross-examination by Mr O'Meehan, after which the magistrates consulted, and ruled a conviction, sentencing Blake to 28 days' imprisonment.

THE PRUDENTIAL ASSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED.—We publish in our advertising columns some very interesting extracts from the 41st annual report of this important company, together with the general balance sheet, showing the state of its affairs on the 31st December, 1889.
The report is a most gratifying one, showing as it does that the company enjoys a very large share of public patronage, and that year by year its business continues to materially increase—no better proof could be adduced of the popularity of the establishment. In the Ordinary branch the premiums received during the year were £904,915, being an increase of £186,067 as compared with 1888. The number of Policies in force was 177,208. In the Industrial Branch the premiums received during the year were represented by £3,336,742. The number of Policies in force was £3,518,619. The total assets of the company have been raised during the year from £9,302,007 to £10,946,156, showing the splendid increase of £1,644,149. Mr D. Doyle, 8 Belle Vue Terrace, is the superintendent for Limerick, and will be happy to afford every information to intending insurers.

DEATH OF MR W. W. MILLER.—His many friends in Limerick and elsewhere have heard with much regret of the premature demise of Mr W. W. Miller, the watchmaker and jeweller in the establishment of Canneock and Company, which responsible position he held for some years past. For two months or so the deceased was in delicate health, and on Thursday last passed away at the age of 52 years. Mr Miller was a great favourite with the employees of the concern, whose fine, commanding presence, his genial good-natured manner, and his never-failing courtesy to all with whom he came in contact in every-day life, will long be missed. Outside the house itself he enjoyed the esteem and good will of a large circle of acquaintances who deeply sympathise with his widow in her bereavement.
The funeral took place this morning and, though the weather was most inclement, it was largely attended. Mr Toppin, manager; Mr David Tidmarsh, Director; Mr W. Walshe, secretary; Mr E. Walsh, Mr V. Baker, and a considerable number of the staff of Canneock and Company, were amongst those present. The interment took place at St Munchin's Church-yard, the Rev W. J.
Clarke, Rector, officiating.

THE CITY MAGISTRATES LICENSING SYSTEM

Yesterday afternoon a meeting magistrates was specially convened statement from the Most Rev Dr C subject of the Licensing Trade of meeting was private, not having been Press.

The magistrates present were presiding; Mr Myles, Mr Robert M Thomas Gaffney, Mr James Nas
Hastings, Ald J. Counihan, Mr Capt Welch, R.M.; Dr O'Shaughnessy Shaw, Mr John Guinane, Mr Will Joseph Matterson, and Mr Maurice

We understand that letters were County Court Judge, Messrs Wal Bassett, sympathising with the meeting—viz., the reduction of public houses in Limerick.

The Bishop went into an elaborate in placing his views before the mee a matter in which his lordship takes interest. He went into statistics paring the numbers of publichouses and Irish cities, and quoted one we are informed, where there were houses in a city of 120,000, or just a number as there are in Limerick.

Considerable discussion ensued in man Gaffney, Mr Boyd, Mr Matter Captain Welch, and others took part.

It was proposed by Mr M'Donnel Mr Shaw, and resolved:—"The magistrates undertake not to grant new license until three old ones shall continue until the number is reduced.

Mr Spillane proposed, and Mr Len and it was agreed to:—"That we ourselves not to grant a license to where the valuation is not £12."

On the motion of Mr M'Donnel Mr Myles, a vote of thanks was Bishop for his address, and for had taken in bringing this matter under the notice of the magistrate
