

by it would be the he absentees. Mr. to the Bill is that lit without the con- and without giving expenditure of the d to the Bill because ment the tenant and qual terms, and the through the pressure e of coercion, to give his holding. The rested districts were ly, and finally the eclared to be illusory . Parnell proceeded eared in the novel the Irish landlords. f this class who will themselves in full r. "If there is one which the Bill is r unscrupulousness the resident Irish future interests to stroyed." Here we a peasant eager for landlordism, but of class and himself a hen stated his own the larger tenants t of 1881 and its herefore in a settle- n tenants above £50 ziers need not be s, "give the landlord : reducing the rents to a satisfactory use the money so most onerous of his that way get rid of nd the tenants who t it is will get the r which they are which it will be agrarian relations o this proposal, on ds Mr. Madden, in

Capt. Neligan, who has commanded a company in the 4th Battalion Royal Munster Fusiliers (Kerry Militia), for close on 11 years, has been recommended for the honorary rank of major.

The tug steamer "Flying Huntsman," of the Limerick Steamship Company, is at present engaged conveying mackerel from Brandon to Fomit Pier, whence it is sent on to the English markets.

The Ennis Horse Show will be held on the 18th and 19th of June this year, and a committee are endeavouring to make it more important in various ways than the initial effort of last year. Mr J. Ahern is the hon. secretary.

We regret to announce the death of Surgeon-Major Moloney, which took place at Glenlara Cottage, Killinane, yesterday. The deceased returned from India, where he had been on active service, about nine months ago, and since then was in rather delicate health. The interment will take place at Mount St Lawrence Cemetery on Thursday next.

The Abbeyfeale Steeplechases will come off on Saturday, the 26th inst. The fixture will not be held under the recognised rules. The stakes are nevertheless good—£20, £10 and £7 being among those offered. The course is convenient, the entries large, and nothing but inauspicious weather will prevent the meeting from being a highly successful one.

Lieut. Henry O'Donnell, 1st Batt. the Prince of Wales's Own (West Yorkshire Regt.), now stationed in Fermoy, son of the late Rev Henry O'Donnell, J.P., Trugh Castle, late 27th Inniskillings (Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers), and cousin of the late General Sir Charles R. O'Donnell, Colonel 18th Hussars (formerly 15th Hussars), has just been gazetted to his company in the regiment. We are glad to see this young officer is keeping up the name of such an old distinguished military family.

THE RAILWAY RATES COMMISSION.—The Harbour Board and the Limerick Traders' Association ably upheld the interests of the citizens at the inquiry yesterday. A special report will be found in our columns.

HARTIGAN'S PADDOCKS—We would direct attention to the first of the Weekly Sales to be held at Hartigan's Paddocks on Saturday next for dairy cows, store cattle, sheep, &c. Entries should be sent in at once.

STRIKE IN THE GREAT SOUTHERN AND WESTERN RAILWAY.—Another regrettable misunderstanding has arisen between the Great Southern and Western Railway and their employees. A number of the men struck this afternoon, but up to the present we are unable to learn the details which lead to the dispute.

HARTIGAN'S HORSE REPOSITORY—A special sale

THE PROSECUTION OF M'INERNEY.

THE RESULT OF THE PR

(FROM OUR REPORT)
Sixmile Bridge, Tu

The charge of obstructing the against Mr John M'Inerney, C Limerick Board of Guardians, ca ing at the Sixmile Bridge Petty The defendant was required to should not be bound to keep the cumstances which led to the pr to have arisen out of the recent election of a poor-law guardian Cratloe division of the Limerick last Court day the case, on th the defendant, was adjourned for giving him an opportunity of bei represented. A considerable interest was centred in the pro number of Mr M'Inerney's syn present in court. Amongst the attendance were—The Rev Fatl Sixmile Bridge; Rev Father F McNamara, P L G, Mr J. Harti John M'Inerney, Mr J. O'Hallora Inspector Huggins, Newmarket charge of an extra force of police magistrates were—Mr Fitzjam chair, Captain Keogh, R M, Mr T McMahon Cregan, Major Wal and Mr J. Hanly.

Mr T. Bunting, Crown Solicit structed by District-Inspector. cuted, and Mr Condon, solr., represented the defendant.

District-Inspector Rainsford wa and he produced copies of the showing that the National Leagu was suppressed.

Mr Condon cross-examined hir some questions with reference meetings in the district, he said occasions the people had been dis and on one occasion they were Shannon.

Constable Carlos deposed that of the 18th of March last he wa railway station. He saw the de company with a number of othe served them coming out of the M'Inerney leading, the other They proceeded up the line abou yards, when some of them moun ment, and the party gathered tog then proceeded to the barrack, about three hundred yards, and of the information he made, S accompanied him to the place w ant and the others had assemb within a few yards of them, their approach he observed which was held between t best of his belief the possession of John Hal parently placed it in his pocket. within a few yards of the defend