

hose Father's eye ons view, rater rdon too.
housand-fold
en'rous deed,
l so oft outstretched r need.
riend! we'll often miss juileless face;
u truly
take your place.
I often flow,
ayer ascend,
g's love - my mind rished friend.

CARROL NAISH.

will be attended to unless ature of the writer, as a cy, but not necessary for not undertake to return ns.

secure insertion should be e Twelve o'clock on Tues-d Saturdays. Where no opened, small advertise-

Substitute for Advertise-en on days of publication. d in not later than Five Wednesday, and Friday

ers and letters of credit able, and communications dressed to THE MANAGER RONICLE.

CK CHRONICLE

ISHED 1766.]

ING, AUGUST 23, 1890

sued a vigorously-worded hree draft schemes for the nd Roxborough Endowed. The first dealt with School, late the Diocesan hich have always been in mbers of the Irish Church. under which they came f the Rev. Mr. Gregg, and a, are then referred to, and of the present Commission ver to eviot him to any tbid him for the premises though a scheme had been g Mr. Gregg's occupancy edispossessed unless for non-the new departure in Mr. ll contacts that of the a sale of springing heifers mand for anything near calving. Top price £19 10s down to £13 5s.

Mr B. Vincent landed two peal, 6 and 7 lbs respectively, on the Summerhill and DeBurgho fishery on the 16th inst, and Mr Audley Kingdon, one peal of 4lbs, on the Prospect fishery, on the 15th.

KILPEACON CHURCH.—The Rev Chancellor Gough Gubbins (Rector) has requested us to state that on and after Sunday, the 24th day of August, Kilpeacon Church (D.V.) will be closed for Divine Service, during the necessary repairs being made.
Divine Service (meanwhile) will be held in Knocknagaul Church, Roxboro', at the usual hour, 11.30 a.m., and Evening Service at 5.30 p.m.
Sunday School at Knocknagaul Church at usual time.

DEATH OF MR. H. G. MORIARTY, D.I., R.I.C.— We regret to learn of the death of Mr Henry Jore Moriarty, D.I., R.I.C., eldest son of our popular County Inspector, Mr Thomas Moriarty, at the early age of twenty-six years. The deceased gentleman passed into the Constabulary at an early age, where his abilities gave promise of a distinguished career. He was popular with both officers and men, and his premature death was aroused very general sympathy amongst all with whom he became acquainted. Interment will take place at Roscommon on the arrival of the 9 a.m. train from Dublin on Tuesday next.

SALE AT MOUNT MUNGRET.—On Thursday Mr F. W. M'Carthy, Auctioneer, held the sale of the outside and inside effects at Mount Mungret, for Surgeon-Major Murphy, consequent on the sale of the lands to Mr Grant. There was a very large attendance, and the sale was highly successful.
Dairy cows, just after calving made £23. Two-year-old heifers, in calf, £15. Year-and-a-halfold heifers, £9. Calves, £3 10s. Lambs, 30s.
Fat sheep, 50s. Old hay sold extremely well, as also did the crops. Potatoes at the rate of £15 10s per acre. Turnips, £7 10s. Oats, £7 5s.
Mangolds, £7. The entire was cleared in two hours.

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL—Twelfth Sunday after Trinity—Feast of St Bartholomew—Matins, 11.30 o'clock—Venite, Monk, in A flat; Chants, Gross, in E flat; and Stewart in E flat; Service, Te Deum and Jubilate, Sir R. Stewart; Mus Doc, in G; Hymn, No. 259; Communion Service; Offertory Sentences, Barnby. Preacher, the Rev W. F. Hudson, V.C. Evensong, 3.30—Chants, Beethoven, in E flat; and Harris in E flat; Service, Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis; Sir R. Stewart, in G; Anthem,
"The Grace of God," Tit. ii, 11, Barnby; Preacher, the Precentor; Hymn after Sermon, No. 260.
Weekday Services at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. daily.
Litany on Wednesday and Friday.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—An accident which might have been attended with very dangerous consequences occurred to the mail cart on the road between Umballa and Kalka recently. It appears that the horses, which were pretty fresh, took fright at some camels, and the drivers being

COMPLIMENT TO MR. JAM

At the meeting of the Cork (Cork) day the Mayor introduced as lege the question of the propos Mr James J. Murphy, one of t Munster and Leinster Bank. the shareholders of the Mun Bank held recently it was deci had arrived to recognise the James J. Murphy, one of the c dered to the community. His theresone of the shareholders of at the time when it was difficu to do so had to a great extent sa of the community from fear had been intended to confine for the presentation to the s selves, but when this became h citizens felt aggrieved that it then decided that an opportun to the citizens at large to tes gratitude to Mr Murphy. Mr tified himself with every move its object the bettering of (applause). When speaking of Cork he had no need of an duce them to assent at once to had been suggested. Mr Jan been known to the citizens of tions. He had been always k citizen, and was universally es By his action in connection and Leinster Bank he had e upon his fellow citizens w established by any ordinary or usefulness (applause). O acts of the new bank was liquidation of the Munster B old shareholders of a respons They also guaranteed paym ditors of the Munster Bank (a bank was started with a capit on which there was £2 per sha ing to £150,000. At the pre money invested by the citizen in the market £400,000, or an a quarter of a million on the s (applause). The bank now st and solid a position as any b Kingdom. They saw the eng took. It was not so long ago Cork Corporation Stock to £160,000, and very shortly petition with very much la succeeded in getting the Dublin Corporation Stock £500,000. Any institution w take these responsibilities an ont these operations must be fectly secure (solidity). This ment to native ability. I been done by Mr Murphy an proved conclusively what ec number of Irishmen or Cork determined to do the best t with such splendid results not mean to minimise or den the other directors of the posed that day to pay a speci Murphy, of whose wisdom th that he had chosen the men him and with whom he had