

s from both

for the re-
and Wales,
therewith,
read a first

eed potatoes
in Ireland,
read a first

ND.
ee of supply
ards relief-

n the House
one, but he
most con-
lain on the s as to the
he measures
th it. In a

ts of Ireland
d been very
ent did to
aken to pre-
malpractices
o propose to
he ordinary

ONICOLE

BER 4, 1890

the Parnell-

Marquis of
in the con-
quis of Har-
fly to Mr.

and Lord

politics, he
which at pre-
ple. and that
arnell crisis.

in favour of
wished the
swallowed up
ntion had in

ommandment
i came after
knowledging

h stimulated
e had little
ns "who are rth." What needs and who are turning against him. So far we see no likelihood of Mr. Parnell losing the fight. He is not to be voted out as easily as his opponents thought, and each day adds to his strength.

The Lord Lieutenant has appointed Mr Henry Turner, Resident Magistrate at Listowel, to be Resident Magistrate for the Co. Tipperary.

The hand-painted screen offered at Mrs Plummer's stall at the late Protestant Orphan Bazaar, will be raffled at Messrs Todd's on Saturday next at 3 o'clock.

A private meeting of sixteen members of the Corporation was held in the Town Hall last night, when the political situation was under discussion for a considerable time. It is understood the meeting adjourned the question of taking action in the matter.

LIMERICK PROTESTANT YOUNG MENS' ASSOCIATION.—At a committee meeting of the Protestant Young Men's Association held on Tuesday evening last, the satisfactory announcement was made that 50 new members had been enrolled since the annual subscriptions had been reduced. It is expected that this number will be still further increased during the present month. We are glad to learn that it has been decided to add at once 50 volumes of new works to the library.

THE LATE REV. DAVID QUAID, P.P.—The funeral of the late Rev David Quaid, for many years Parish Priest of Dromin, in this county, took place on Tuesday. High Mass was celebrated at Newcastle West Church at ten o'clock, the Most Rev Dr O'Dwyer presiding. Numerous clergymen were present. After Mass the cortege left for Athlaca, where the interment took place. The chief mourners were the Rev Edward G. Quaid, C.C, St Agatha's Church, Richmond street, Dublin, brother; and Mr P Liston, nephew of the deceased clergyman.

THE LIMERICK DOCK STRIKE.—The strike of dock labourers against the Limerick Steamship Company shows no sign of settlement, no negotiations between the Company and labourers having recently taken place. The Company are thoroughly resolute in the course they have adopted from the commencement of this dispute, and they are vigorously carrying on their business, though at considerable expense to themselves, under the exceptional circumstances which have arisen. On Monday night 50 labourers arrived here from Portlaw to discharge the s.s. "Ardnamult," which returned from Liverpool on Tuesday night. Since then she is being discharged very quickly, and it is expected will be cleared out by the end of the week. The men are accommodated in two of the Company's boats at the Docks, and are under the protection of a force of forty extra police, patrols being arranged for day and night.

MINISTER WANTED A SIZES

tinuing he said—You won't be dictator he can dictate to the people outside you w dictate to the members of the council, I: This thing has been brought to your n the domineering Alderman—

Several voices inside and outside the t no.

Mr Herbert—I think this is not the we are assembled for, and I think either Alderman O'Mara or A Gaffney is right in speaking on the matt hear). I think we ought to proceed business of the day—business we are a here to discharge, and after that thi could be brought forward.

Alderman Gaffney declared that he v fied to allow the matter to go by sil tempt.

Mr Begley rose to speak by way of and

The Mayor asked what could he do. Alderman Gaffney—If the thing is to b on I will hold my feet.

Mr Begley proceeded to say that admired Alderman Gaffney as a busin but he objected to his trying to make garden of this council. He believed tha object.

Alderman Gaffney warmly retorted t was the very thing he had tried to av Begley had no right to use the word garden." If there was anything lik garden in the Council it was Alderman and his conferees who were making it garden (interruption).

Alderman O'Mara rose to speak, and A Gaffney two or three times objected speaking.

Alderman O'Mara said that he app thought, in a very gentlemanly m Alderman Gaffney, in the interest of the tion, to apologise for the language—

Alderman Gaffney (interposing)—Th going on again, and you won't give me in the matter.

Mayor—Didn't you tell me plainly would allow the matter to drop?

Alderman Gaffney—Yes, but the irrec will not,

An exciting controversy ensued i several of those outside the bar joined less.

Alderman Gaffney—We have offic there (pointing to the barrier), and they keep quiet the irreconcilables or bar that are here for a purpose?

Mr McSweeney—They are not brot for a purpose.

Alderman Gaffney—Are you one of pullers? It is not the first time you w Alderman O'Mara—I think it is be position in this council to use any la you.

Alderman Gaffney—You do! I was Limerick before you were known.

Alderman O'Mara—Alderman Gaffn will not apologise to me and the coun language he used. He said there we blackguards outside the bar, and that head of the blackguards.