"WHAT'S SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE IS SAUCE FOR THE GANDER."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

SIR,—In your issue of the 5th instant there is a report of a demonstration at Glensharrold for the purpose of building cottages for the evicted tenants. Also a report of the eviction of two labourers named Doody and Lynch, at Broadford, at the suit of the Newcastle West Board of Guardians, for non-payment of rent, and of a labourer named Nelligan, who came before the same Board, offering to pay a portion of rent, but was refused to be reinstated unless he paid the eviction costs. The public may be anxious to be informed when and where the demonstration in favour of the labourers is to be held, and what amount per cent reduction their landlords, the Newcastle West Board of Guardians, will grant to those poor men, etc.

Yours obediently,
 ENQUIRER.

SHOCKING OCCURENCE IN THE COUNTY.

A MAN GORED BY A BULL.

A herd named John Sullivan, employed on the farm of The Dickens, minors, Clashbane, near Cahirconlish, was found gored to death by a bull yesterday. It appears that at an early hour he went to the fields to attend to the cattle, and as he did not return to breakfast search was made, and the body found fearfully mutilated. The bull was bought on the 12th of June last, and it is said that since then the beast attacked poor Sullivan several times, and although he used to warn others he seemed careless about his own safety. The deceased was married and leaves four children to mourn his loss. An inquest was held to-day.
