

ONS—YESTERDAY.
We notice to move an motion on the licence empowered to enable have licensed premises value for such pur-to call attention to the of Imperial taxation in d to move that it was bution of Ireland to the be reduced to her just d by the test of direct ced by Mr Sexton, to to Local Bankruptcy s other by Mr Chance to Parliamentary Voters, into Committee on the he consideration of the g to the spirit duties, an amendment that the spirits should be only so as to put it on the uty and the income tax. ly animated discussion ld obstructionist tactics Amongst those who took e Mr Sexton, Sir Joseph William Harcourt, Mr

r Parnell, Mr Balfour, schequer, and Mr John-to six o'clock, moved the n took no notice of the otion to report progress r some time, he closure upon that dis-having been carried by otion to report progress nd rejected by 263 to 189, nittee divided on Mr d rejected it by a like suspended, it being seven g a motion by Colonel family of the late Sir W. ognition of the services by his military inven-5 votes to 85. s again taken up, but Mr Smith consented to d, but followed this up ment of the House. On ich lasted till one o'clock, ouse adjourned.

STATUE RESTORED.
ed the citizens of Dublin east those whose footsteps, t of business or pleasure, College Green—for there, y kind, stood unveiled the e of William the Third. eople passing through were pleased at the manner of the statue was carried those more immediately concerned should have exerted themselves on behalf of the interests involved. There is still an opportunity for the Harbour Board to make up for lost time, and in accordance with their resolution of Monday last it is to be hoped they will have the cause they represent brought efficiently before the House of Commons' Committee.

HARTIGAN'S PADDOCKS WEEKLY SALE—Entry small. Heifers and cows near calving still selling well. Top price to-day, £17 17s 0d.

The tide of emigration continues unabated from West Clare. During the present week, upwards of fifty persons of both sexes have left the district for America.

Mr Patrick Carmody, of Quin, County Clare, F.I.C., F.C.S., and Analyst in the Laboratory, Somerset House, London, has been appointed Professor of Chemistry in Trinidad.

The Bishop having appointed to-morrow as "Education Sunday," there will be collections in the different churches of the diocese in aid of the funds of the Diocesan Board of Education.

On Sunday next, May 18th, the annual sermon in aid of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education will be preached by the Rev Arthur Gough Gubbins at morning service in Kilpeacon Church.

THE LATE MRS. TROUSDELL'S, 123, GEORGE-ST.
—The interest in these premises was offered by Mr Bernal for public sale at his rooms, on Wednesday last, Mr O'Connor, bookseller, George street, being declared the buyer at £500.

The Chief Land Commissioners, Messrs Litton and Fitzgerald, Q.C.'s, and Wrench, having concluded the hearing of the remaining appeal cases on the list after giving decisions in those which appeared in our last issue, left Ennis for Dublin on Wednesday night, having announced that they would give judgment there in the remainder heard.

BULL SALE AT HARTIGAN'S PADDOCKS.—We would direct attention to the 26th Great Annual Bull Sale at these Paddocks, which will be held on Friday next at 1 o'clock. The catalogue numbers 130 entries from well-known breeders.
Gentlemen who require sound, serviceable animals should take advantage of this sale.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA.—The many friends of Mr Sidley J. Lightfoot (some years ago of Limerick) will be glad to learn that at a public examination held on Thursday, May 1st, 1890, the degree of Doctor of Medicine was conferred by William Pepper, M.D., LL.D., Provost, upon him, amongst others. This speaks well for his application and perseverance.

FLOWER SALE AT BERNAL'S ROOM, THIS DAY.— The supply was large in quantity and more varied cowardly attack is reported upon a toll collector, in Cls being unable to get any loca tolls at Tulla fair, Mr Perry landlord, employed a man nam Ennis, to discharge that duty returning from the fair on a c a cattle dealer named Fox, a p out on the road, pulled him beat and kicked him. Fox Moloney, state that they we they succeeded in driving ford on the road. Mr Perry, shortly afterwards, found Boc less in a pool of blood on t carried to Dr Moloney's resi adjoining, where his wounds was subsequently allowed County Infirmary under the stables. No trace was had of

FISHING AT CASTLECONNELL at Castleconnell during the p very good, and a few heavy fis following is the return:—A inst., one, 21lbs.; 8th, two, 10th, one, 11½lbs.; 12th, on 14lbs.; 14th, one, 11½lbs.; 15t McCorquodale, 7th inst., on 12lbs.; 14th, three, 11lbs., Cartwright, 7th inst., one, 10lbs. Mr J. H. Wheatley 15lbs.; 15th, one, 12½lbs. M one, 18lbs. Mr Ingham, 12th i Thompson, 12th inst., one, 38 water:—May 1st—Lord Mass 2nd—Lord Massy, one, 13lbs. one, 34lbs.; Capt. C. P. Var 5th—Capt. C. P. Vansittart, Massy, one, 15½lbs. 8th—Ca three, 25lbs., 20lbs., and Massy, one, 14½lbs. 10th—L Dr Kelly, on Erinagh water 18lbs., 26lbs., 18lbs., 14lbs., Capt. Vansittart, on same 15lbs., and 40lbs. New Ga inst., Major Granville, two 7½lbs.—Cor.

WHIT-MONDAY E
This excursion, as advertis Protestant Young Men's Ass be a great success. We u limited to members of the any one desirous to join through the secretary, o the committee. The induc enjoy seven hours at the sea able from Limerick, is ver with this is the novelty of t An excellent opportunity is picturesque watering place extensive caves, the larg entered from the strand plored by torch light. The bold and romantic, and wit looking the sea, the extensiv miles long, with sand hills a