yesterday, and consequently all cases requiring the attendance of two justices had to be postponed. Stephen and Thomas Moloney were each fined 10s, with costs, or seven days imprisonment, for assaulting Mary Fagan and John Cronin, the chief aggressor, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment. Thomas Sheedy, of Kildysart, was fined 10s, and 3s costs, for being drunk in Ennis while in chargin of a horse and car. At the prosecution of the police, eleven offenders were brought up charged with drunkenness and fines varying from 1s to 2s 6d were inflicted. The court then adjourned.—COR.
