

incompetent officer, and at a of the troops in Cork Park plimented by General Davies it of his men. It appears he ally chidden by name at te on such occasions being rade are only addressed as mand of such a company." appellation. Even before ainting incident, with a ke his photograph and dis-ar the regiment had been lerable to the young officer, own, has been acquitted of urtmartial. The authorities idence before them, and it what punishment is to be nant Jarvis's persecutors. fe is spoiled, and unless a te to the offence is inflicted , public opinion will not be interests of the Army, and cers, whose good name has shed by the Cork incidents, of ill-treating Lieutenant ade to pay such a penalty g of that kind may be put a nation or dismissal will be nent for men who have dishey belong to and the name ht to be, and hitherto has with gentleman. There xtremely wrong somewhere conduct as that referred dy in private but in public, knowledge of all officers, rnwards to the last-joined ter known as John Strange of many not highly creditictures of military life in w revelations in connexion iment show that truth is on yesterday occupied itself question of the accommodats on the Earth's surface, do when the world gets to be doing rapidly. Mr. ing the subject from a view, estimated the fertile nere miles with near land

Captain A. F. Budden, Limerick City Artillery (Southern Division), is granted the hon. rank of Major.

We are requested to notice that the usual weekly run of the L.A.A. and B.C. will not be held to-morrow evening in consequence of the death of Mrs Holland.

The Kilrush Gas Concerns, which were put up for sale on Saturday by Mr P. Considine, Auctioneer, were purchased by the local corporate body as representatives of the ratepayers for a sum of £450.

The Vandeleur National School, Kilrush, which has been closed for the past twelve months, owing to some local differences, was opened last week.
The services of an experienced teacher from the North of Ireland have been secured, and it is to be hoped that the parishioners will now give the school that support which it so warmly merited in the past.

CITY DISPENSARY COMMITTEE.—The usual monthly meeting of the City Dispensary Committee was held yesterday in the new dispensary buildings. Alderman P. Riordan presided. Also present—Rev J. Burke, Rev D. Fitzgerald, Mr J.
Guinane, J.P.; Mr P. Herbert. The business for disposal was of a routine character.

PURCHASE OF LAND UNDER THE ASHBOURNE ACT.—Our Kildysart correspondent writes:—The tenants of the Fergus Islands, the estate of Captain W. A. Fitzgerald, met their landlord at the end of last week to enter into negotiations for the purchase of their farms. The landlord offered most favourable terms, and gave the tenants a fortnight to consider what steps they should adopt.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A shoemaker named Weir died very suddenly yesterday morning at Thomondgate. The deceased, who was about 70 years of age, was walking along the road when he was observed to fall. Some persons who witnessed the occurrence went to his assistance and administered some water to him, but the poor man expired almost immediately. It is supposed that death was due to heart disease.

COLLISION BETWEEN POLICE AND PEOPLE IN Co. LIMERICK.—A Central News telegram last night says—At Ashford, West Limerick, on Sunday last, a public meeting was held in connection with the labour question. Late in the evening a collision took place between the police and those people who remained in the village, during which the former charged the crowd at the point of the bayonet. It has transpired that some stones were thrown at the police. One constable and a civilian were injured, but not seriously.

COROFIN GUARDIANS AND MR. DILLON.—At the last meeting of the Corofin Board of Guardians the following resolution was passed unanimously:—"That we, the Corofin Board of Guardians, desire to place on record our truest and implicit confidence in Mr John Dillon, M.P. one hesitated before refusing tion when challenged by the amount of abuse that from a certain section of wished to get a snatch would have let the resoluthe Conservative memb-They were present in defeat their opponents on hard speaking and solid v-arose. The Chairman, how-the Poor Law Guardians, no action of any man, more dividual had no connecti-Sligo, and hence the "c never came off. Had thtained, the Nationalists wo-thorough thrashing they l-long time. They would ha-rod of their own choosing, a good enough member so-energies to getting the sev-right, or seeing that the pe-not overlooked, but when is a miserable failure; and would take Mr Sedley's ac-his respectable abode, with the would certainly go homman, believing, if he did nomen are not born to be pendent.

BOYCOTTING IN

The following appears in There are between twen-keepers and farmers in and have been severely boycotwelve months. Their busiruined. In some cases attento destroy their property, ar-living in a state of siege. have committed no crime. that they have paid their have no quarrel with their l-simply proved true to the help reaches these sorely tri-they must eventually be ruin-Representing Ulster consttyranny is unknown, these l-look to us, and we make Unionists and lovers of libepecuniary aid, which will be under our personal and local Yours truly

P.S.—Subscriptions may Russell, 102, Stephen's-green

SCENE AT CLARE C

An incident occurred at the Castle on Thursday morning, threatened to lead to lively probably recourse to a court arrived in the river, the 350 ton of coal, for Mr M. K-was ready to berth, but there the new pier. Her captain c-too heavy draught to come quay, and the Harbour Ma-