

already shown and some already seen will meet, and, if so, you may be dis-me of them home with you will depend on your judgment, he same time, a little on the horizon. Since meeting you ve also started a hackney stud orse farm. I take a deep in-ng connected with the breed-feel sure it is for the benefit arge. I hope some of you who y to get home may have the sing them and I hope that his time, we may meet at a believed that it would be not to have the hackney sold together, it is proposed three horses in February. Time will not detain you longer. Let eeply I appreciate the excepy in which you have received ars since I came to live in this ore, I think, I have every right orfolk man. Not only do I take rest in all that concerns the s country, but I do so, especially to the best of my ability, hich we live.
 ls, cows, and heifers realised eep £415. his guests returned to London er the sale.

STRIKE IN DUBLIN.
 e of the Corn Merchants' lay informed the representastrike that they were quite y person authorised on their official returns of the quanticharged, but that they would right to freely employ what while undertaking, at the same ny of the men now on strike ould find vacancies for them. ot accepted by the men as a meeting was held last night at 3 speeches were made against s. On the suggestion of Mr ailway Servants' Association, mmon a meeting of the trades, onix Park on Sunday. The to the ordinary carters emr of the merchants, and several lay personally acted as carters orn.

on will be attended to unless igned by the writer, as a uracy, but not necessary for cannot undertake to return ations. to secure insertion should be yore Twelve o'clock on Tues-and Saturdays. Where no ady opened, small advertisements.
 Substitutes for Advertise-taken on days of publication, uted in not later than Five o'clock, Wednesday, and Friday evenings.
 Orders and letters of credit payable, and communications addressed to THE MANAGER CHRONICLE.

WICK CHRONICLE
 PUBLISHED 1766.
 WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 4 1891 German Emperor and and will be the great event of to be a round of exhausting gaiety, but which in reality will be a record of hard work and unremitting toil on behalf of the Empire so recently bequeathed to him by his father and grandfather.

The sale of the house and grounds of India Villa has been postponed to later in the season.

At the meeting of the guardians of the Glin Union on Tuesday last, Mr. V. A. Hennessey, C.E., was unanimously re-elected engineer to the Board.

The London correspondent of the Irish Times says:—I understand that the Commission appointed by the French Government who were sent over a second time to inspect the working of the Lartigue Railway running between Listowel and Ballyunion, have sent in a very favourable report on the system. The French Government intend applying the single rail system in some of their colonies. Will Mr Balfour's light railways beat this style for cheapness?

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL—Sixth Sunday after Trinity—Matins, 11.30 o'clock.—Venite, Russell, in A; Chants, Stewart, in D, and Heathcote, in D; Service, Te Deum and Jubilate, Sir Henry Smart, in F; Hymn, No. 265; Communion Service, Smart, in F; Offertory Sentences, Barnby, Preacher, The Dean. Evensong, 3.30 o'clock—Chants, Randall, in E, Turle, in G; Service, Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis, Smart, in F; Anthem, "O Lord, our Governor," Ps. viii. 1, Sir John Stevenson; Preacher, The Dean; Hymn after Sermon, No 276. Weekday Services, at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. daily. Litany on Wednesday and Friday.

DEATH OF LADY ENID WYNDHAM QUIN.—Very deep and widespread sympathy is felt for Lord and Lady Dunraven and their family in the loss they have sustained in the death of their eldest daughter, Lady Enid Wyndham Quin, who died on Wednesday last, after a brief illness. Especially is this sympathy manifest in Adare and the surrounding districts, where, like the others of the family, Lady Enid was extremely popular with all classes with whom she came in contact.
 She endeared herself to the poor especially by her kind, unassuming manner. It is only two years ago that Lady Enid was presented at Court. It is rumoured interment will take place at Adare on Tuesday next.

ENTERTAINMENT BY BOYS FROM DR BARNARDO'S HOME.—A musical entertainment will be given by a number of boys from Dr Barnardo's Homes, on Wednesday evening, July 8th, at 8 o'clock, in the Havergal Hall. We are sure that the general public will feel interested in this entertainment, as all must be aware of the great work of rescue which Dr Barnardo has been carrying on for so many years past amidst the destitution and misery of our modern Babylon. Twenty-five years ago, when a medical student in a London hospital, the Doctor encountered a pathetic case of a waiif's poverty in East London. From this instance originated all the work of mercy which he has superintended ever since, and the first small house in Stepney Causeway has now grown into forty-one distinct institutions, of which thirty-three are situated in London, one in Jersey, one in Essex, one in Kent, one in Suffolk, one in Worcestershire, and three in Canada. Over 18,000 boys and girls have been removed from the streets, and taught useful trades or educated for domestic service. All this is carried on by means of free-will offerings, which it behoves us all to aid, the gross daily expenses being never under £150.

eccentric was faultless, and we need scarcely say elicited the heartiest plaudits from all parts of the house. As an encore, "Divertissement from Lohengrin" (Wagner) was given by the band Mdle. Marie Nono, whose re-appearance her after a rather considerable absence, was evidently a source of much pleasure, gave a very fine interpretation of the "Lily of Killarney." She has a rich and powerful voice, and sings very tastefully. Mr Burton Haddon sang Bluementhal's pretty ballad, "My Queen," with much success, his sweet, fresh tenor being heard to advantage. Mrs M. Cusack, always a great favourite wherever she appears—and deservedly so—next contributed the "Jewel Song" from Faust, and it was undoubtedly a beautiful piece of vocalism. Her clear and flexible soprano did it every justice, and it was most artistically and skilfully rendered. Mr F. P. Hook was loudly applauded for his song, "Philadelphia," and in answer to an encore gave "Will-o'-the-Wisp," a lively air, which was even more acceptable.
 Mdle. Maurelli was next introduced, amidst a "storm" of applause, and we may say at the outset that her execution of the various songs she selected fully realized the anticipations which had been formed of her vocal abilities. Mdle Maurelli possesses a highly cultured voice of very wide range, remarkable for its richness, flexibility, and power. She sings with perfect ease, and with a taste and finish not often to be met with. Her first contribution was from Carmen, which so pleased the audience that an encore was demanded, "Serenade Espagnole" being substituted. Mr Charles Nono sang a humorous ballad, "At the Races"—a catchy air by De Freece, and this was followed by a trio "Magic Wove Scarf," in which the voices of Mrs Cusack, Mr Haddon, and Mr Hook, blended with excellent effect. A performance by the Black Watch of "The Harmonious Blacksmith" concluded the first portion of the programme, and the brass band opened the second part with "Reminiscences of Ireland," with variations, by Godfrey. This was naturally the most popular of the instrumental pieces, and the band was heartily cheered. Mdle. Nono added to her laurels in the cavatina "Nobe-Signor," (Les Hugenots), and Mr Haddon gave a very pleasing interpretation of "The Anchor's Weighed," which was well adapted to his voice.
 Mdle Maurelli's second appearance was in a Scena by Mercadante, and it having elicited an enthusiastic encore the artiste contributed "Rory O'More," her excellent version of which brought down the house. Sequah on being recognised by his Limerick friends naturally was the subject of a very popular ovation. He selected an American plantation melody, "Cruel Slavery Days," and replied to an encore. A duet by Balfe, "Trust Her Not," was skilfully sung by Mrs Cusack and Mdle Nono, and Mr Hook sang "Non-e-Ver" effectively. Mrs Cusack's song "Forget," was charmingly given, and Mdle Maurelli followed with a very pathetic interpretation of "Home Sweet Home." Mr Nono contributed another humorous song "Across the Bridge," and the programme wound up with a lively polka "Bright Smiles" (Buck) performed by the band. Mr Kendal Irwin conducted the concert with his usual ability, and presided at a grand pianoforte supplied by Mr H. Keller. We should add that the lady artistes received some pretty bouquets, which were sent out now and then from the boxes, and Sequah got "whopper" of a blackthorn stick, tied with a piece of green ribbon, which souvenir pleased him exceedingly.

RURAL SANITARY BOARD.
 The fortnightly meeting of this Board was held to-day in the Dispensary Buildings, Cornwallis-street, Mr E. Ryan in the chair. Also present—Mr T. Raleigh, Mr McMahon, Mr P.
 Knox, Mr F. Harty, Mr Naughton, Mr John Egan, Mr Clanchy, Mr Thomas Bourke, Mr Mitchell, Mr T. Moloney, Mr A. Stritche, and Mr D. Vaughan.