

ights of past joys from my brain must of that paradise fade from my heart! ilkeo is not perfect, it seems—that are so exist but in dreams—aw in the diamond, a cloud in the sky, our laughter, a cause for a sigh. hat stray cats off our light slumbers he enduring of many a joke; he soft magic of landlady's bill—was something more heart-searching people who seem to have nothing to do forcing on me and on you f water which none of us need, tes are sufficiently trying indeed.

old well is enough for us all—sparkling stream will respond to our affing, ablution, each use you can say, n to diluting your modest "J.J."

orks people, pray let well alone, from our hearts an additional groan: olly unmeaning immediately cease, the poor ratepayers' pockets in peace!

VAGA.

ommunication will be attended to unless icated by signature of the writer, as a tee for accuracy, but not necessary for tion. We cannot undertake to return communications.

post-office orders and letters of credit be made payable, and communications by should be addressed to THE MANAGER LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

LIMERICK CHRONICLE

[ESTABLISHED 1766.]

SDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 6 1891

LLON has just published a corresponwhich he has had with Mr Parnell on ject of the Paris Fund and the evicted

The correspondence was opened by lon in a letter dated the 15th of August. nell did not reply till the 10th of Sept.

as followed by a letter from Mr Dillon ays later, and as no reply has yet been d Mr Dillon comes to the conclusion r Parnell does not intend to make any , and accordingly submits the whole to ular judgment. On the 15th of August c Dillon had learned that the evicted s had been subjected to a great deal of ng and distress, and considered it to be matter that they should be maintained. efore suggested that the Paris Fund be drawn upon for their assistance; committee of four should be appointed inister the funds, two to be appointed by arnell and two by Mr McCarthy, and to be supplied with the names of Mr ll's two followers. To this proposal Mr ll replied nearly a month later that the did not reach him till some time after it en written (did he expect it to reach him believe that there will be an improvement at least a couple of shillings on the figures obtained for sheep at Banagher and Moate; but these figures, it must be remembered, are from ten to twelve shillings below the figures of the last year. As regards numbers, it is difficult to arrive at an estimate. Some authorities state it will be a small fair; others that immense flocks of sheep will change hands.

Dr. Malone has left 5 Pery Square for a month.

A meeting of the Limerick Football Club will be held at the Athenæum at 8.30 on Saturday evening to make arrangements for the coming season. Members, and intending members, are requested to attend.

The next meeting of the Literary Class in connection with the Protestant Young Men's Association will be held on Friday, 9th inst. Mr E. Taylor will read a paper entitled, "Coal Mining in Yorkshire." The paper will be illustrated with sketches executed by the essayist.

We regret to announce the unexpected demise of Mr E. M. Halpin, commission agent, which took place at his residence, Barrington street, last evening, after a week's illness. Mr Halpin enjoyed the good will and esteem of a very large circle of friends, and his death is universally regretted throughout the city and district where he was so well and popularly known. We deeply sympathise with his family in their affliction.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS, LONDON.—In the list of those who have passed the third professional examination we observe the name of Mr Walter E. Evans, son of Mr Robert Evans, of this city.

RATHKEALE PARISH.—The annual Harvest Thanksgiving Service will be held in this Church on next Sunday 11th inst. The sermons will be preached by the Rev. Robert C. Wills, D.D., Archdeacon of Cloyne, and Rector of Mallow.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A farmer named William Burke, residing near Erinagh, died in Barring-ton's Hospital on Sunday morning from the result of injuries sustained whilst attending a threshing machine the previous day. An inquest was held, and a verdict of accidental death was returned.

POSTING BOYCOTTING NOTICES.—A correspondent writes that late on Saturday night, Sergeant Mackeon, in company with another policeman, arrested two men in the act of placarding boycotting notices at Oola. The policemen were on duty outside the village, and were passed on the road by two men driving a horse and trap. The police following them into the village, they were arrested, and there were found in their possession boycotting notices of an odious character, with a paste pot. The police also found freshly posted up yesterday morning similar notices outside Oola. The men, whose names are Scully and Quane, both belong to "New" Tipperary.

SERIOUS ASSAULT AT MOUNT PELIER.—Informations were taken to-day before Capt O'Grady, J.P., concerning an assault alleged to have been committed on a man named Edward Conway by another man named Patrick Brown. It would appear that Conway, who is deaf and dumb, is a baker employed by Brown's father, and last evening he went into the latter's public-house under the influence of drink, and wanted to get more liquor. Patrick Brown put him outside the door, and when trying to get back, Conway shoved Mrs Brown, who was standing at the door, and her wrist was broken. Then her son, Patrick Brown, attacked him and Conway was severely injured

3 o'clock this afternoon.

The announcement does not come on the unexpectedly inasmuch as a despatch Walmer Castle, published in to-day's stated that the right hon gentleman dition yesterday caused great anxiety friends, and that his London physician had summoned. This morning's telegram stated that his condition suddenly becacritical. The deceased statesman, who of William Henry Smith, bo-publisher, and newsagent on the was born in London in 1824 was educated at Tavistock Grammar Sch-subsequently joined his father's busin-1865 he contested Westminster in the Ctive interest against Sir John Stuart M-was defeated, while in 1868 the same cons-returned him in preference to his fr-ponent. He represented it until 1885. F-to 1877 he was Financial Secretary Treasury, after which he succeeded M-Hunt as First Lord of the Admiralty, win the Cabinet. In 1879 Oxford Unive-ferred on him the degree of D.C.L. Du-Salisbury's tenure of office in 1885, Mr S-Secretary of State for War, and during week of the Ministry's existence h-Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant 1886). He was first returned for the ne-division of the Strand in 1885. On the of Lord Salisbury's second Ministry ir-Smith again became Chief Secretary which he resigned in 1887, becoming of the Treasury and Leader of the Commons. Latterly he was appointed Warden of the Cinque Ports. Mr Sposals for the establishment of a pe-rietary in Ireland have attracted attetion. The deceased gentleman was remarkable for the genial tact with which he discharged his difficult duties as Leader of the Commons. When away from the absence was always felt. On these occasions he generally acted as Leader, but his presence could not be settled harmoniously without his guidance. On both sides of the House he was very popular. He possessed brilliant talents, but was a type of solid ability which is the character of the English. His loss will be greatly felt by Salisbury, for his unexpected death the solution of many difficulties which had been postponed for a more convenient season.
It would long ago have been raised to the House but that his elevation would have required Cabinet changes necessary. It is not probable that Mr Balfour will take his place.

CORPORATION COMMITTEE

The usual weekly meetings of the Committee were held to-day.

CLEANSING AND REPAIR

The Mayor presided. Also present
J. Counihan, J.P.; J. Dundon, D.
Ryan. Councillors—D. Kennelly, P.
G. Dowling and J. Anglim.

Mr A. C. Wallace, Town Clerk, Mr Borough Surveyor, Mr Woulfe, Cit Mr Forrest, High Constable, were

It appeared from Mr Forrest's w-that the expense of cleansing the past week was £45 18s 1½d, as compared with 14s 10d for the previous week, showing an increase of 3s 8½d. This was accounted for by the fact that a horse had to be hired to carting work owing to one of the hooses having become indisposed.
The horse was blistered by Dr Riordan, and will lie up for a week to recuperate.

Mr Anglim proposed, and J