SUDDEN DEATH OF A DUBLIN GENTLEMAN.

On Saturday afternoon the police discovered a gentleman lying in an unconscious state on the pathway at Palmerston place. They at once conveyed him to the Mater Misericordiae Hospital, but on arrival there he was found to be quite dead. From papers found in the possession of the deceased, it would appear that his name was Mr Richard Hill, of Garville road, Rathgar, and Bachelor's Walk, Dublin. Heart disease was the cause of death.
