BARONY OF SHANID PRESENTMENT SESSIONS.

The Presentment Sessions for the Barony of Shanid were held at Foynes on Thursday—Mr B Coplen-Langford, J.P., presiding. The other magistrates and cesspayers present were—Messrs J B Massy, J P; Patrick Murray, J P; E W O'Brien, D L; J Hogan, M Fitzgerald, G Fitzgerald.

Mr Poole Gabbett (Secretary to the Grand Jury), Mr John Hogan (County Surveyor), Mr Hartigan (Assistant do.), were in attendance.

The following presentments were considered—Thomas Sheehan and Patrick Connell, to make a new line of road from Glenagrara to Lurraree, between the County Road at Ballygilteneane and the road from Glin to Newcastle at Lurraree. In three instalments. Certified at last Assizes.—Passed.

Michael Fitzgerald and John Mulqueen, to flag 475 square yards, six feet wide, to footpath in the street of Glin, on the road from Athea to Foynes.—Opposed.

John Cregan and Philip Kelly, to pave and underpin a bridge at Clonlehard, and build a wing wall at next bridge on road from Gortadrumma to Clonlehard.—Passed.

County Surveyor to renew the landing stage at the pier of Glin, half off the County at Large. The magistrates and cesspayers decided to adjourn the matter for the present.
Adjourned.

A RAILWAY MYSTERY.

On the arrival of the Enfield train at King's Cross on Saturday evening, a respectably-dressed man was found partly unconscious in a third-class carriage, with his arm and hand cut. After being seen by a doctor in the Company's offices, the injured man alleged that he had been stabbed and robbed by a passenger of the labouring class who rode with him from Holloway. The assailant demanded his money, a desperate struggle ensued, and the man drew a knife and forcibly took his watch and purse. All efforts have so far

A DISAPPOINTED LOVER.

At Brighton yesterday, Frederick Joseph Muspratt, undergraduate at Cambridge, was charged with sending a letter to Miss Ethel Guest, threatening to murder her. The prisoner had been engaged to Miss Guest, but in consequence of certain letters the engagement was broken off. The Rev Alfred Hamilton Waller, a friend of the prisoner, deposed that the prisoner explained to him the plot to carry off Miss Guest. He produced handcuffs and a revolver. The prisoner was committed for trial.

It appears that wheat to the extent of more than half a million quarters was imported during the eight months ending April 30 in excess of the Board of Trade return. It is anticipated that the discovery of this error will cause a consider-
