Bessie Booth, a chorus girl in the New usino Opera Company, now performing in al, was married on Saturday to A. F. nes, son of the late William Henriques, a ent member of the New York Produce go, who left his son and heir £300,000. nple will sail for Europe on to-morrow.
 rst met last Wednesday.

during those days through streets thronged with horses, we have decided to hold the Bazaar on the week previous to the Fair. We feel sure the change will be appreciated, and that the Stallholders will be kept busy with their customers each day of the Bazaar.

There is no need to explain or extol to the people of this City the charitable purpose for which the Bazaar is being held. Their generous support of it in the past is the best proof that they both recognise and appreciate the work to which the Good Shepherd Nuns have devoted their lives, and that support we are confident will be given (if possible) even more freely and generously on this occasion.

Duplicates to be returned on or before the 20th inst.
