

mediately at the commencement of ER said they were not in favour of any further medical inquiry into the De Cobain's health.
 UCHER thought it would be best statements in the certificate and post-latter.
 LAROCOURT remarked that in many agreed with what the Chancellor of the said, but he thought the general House was in favour of postponing until next session. To institute a dicinal inquiry seemed to him to be gnified course for the House to pursue.
 THEN differed with the right hon. in these last remarks. He would, sk the House to allow him time to a course regarding which it had been h to express its feelings. ter then dropped, and the House e consideration of Supply.

LIMERICK CHRONICLE
 [ESTABLISHED 1766.]

DAY EVENING, JULY 21, 1891

Estimates were passed last night more than a nominal opposition to Mr Healy at all events was in his debate opened with speeches from abb, Flynn, and Power. The latter had what was self-evident, that there had improvement in trade in Ireland, but that could not be placed to the credit government. The Coercion Act was ed, but the Coercion Act has practi-appeared as far as the greater part of s concerned. Crime has diminished, g is almost a thing of the past, the Campaign is merely an unpleasant ret, likely to trouble only those undupes that had been coerced into it. Mr Jordan complained that he unable to obtain any concession of a kind for the people of Clare, who, he ad been the chief sufferers from the ecretary's Coercion policy. Much was created by his bringing forward of the Rev Mr Gilligan who, he said, sent to prison for an alleged speech in the middle of the Shannon. Mr ttacked Mr Balfour on the decline in relation caused by emigration, and him with still keeping Messrs Dillon rien in prison, though their sentences xpire on the 31st of the present He also commented on the fact that the hon members had surrendered es to the Government the recogof their sureties has been estreated. evances of the evicted tenants were rferred to, and Mr Balfour was ento do something for them. The n the Chief Secretary was very weak d to the onslaughts of one or two one o'clock, on the charge of wantonly attacking houses and breaking windows in Old Mill-street.

 They have been committed for Petty Sessions on Friday.

We have much pleasure in announcing that Mr G. P. Allison of the Bank of Ireland, has been transferred, on promotion, to Gorey, in the county Wexford. Mr Allison has been in Limerick for an unusually long period, something like fifteen years. He has been a most popular officer of the Bank, and has made a host of friends who, whilst regretting his departure, most sincerely congratulate him on his well-merited promotion.

MALICIOUSLY MAIMING A HORSE.—On Saturday night some evil-disposed persons went upon the lands of Mrs Butler, Ballyline, county Clare, and maliciously stabbed and injured an excellent three-year-old colt, value £100, from the effects of which the animal died next day. Notice of compensation for malicious injury has been served.—COR.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT.—Yesterday evening a sad drowning accident occurred in the Canal, convenient to Baal's Bridge. While Master Francis Kearney, son of our respected fellow citizen, Mr J. P. Kearney, T.C., was amusing himself with some comrades fishing in the river, he overbalanced himself and fell in. He was missed by his companions, one of whom on lifting his rod which was lying on the bank, found that the poor little fellow had it still grasped in his hand.
 The alarm was at once given, and when assistance arrived it was found that life was all but extinct. The poor lad was immediately conveyed to Barrington's Hospital, where everything was done to restore animation, but without success.
 Mr DeCourcy, City Coroner, and a jury, held an inquest on the body to-day, and after hearing the evidence, the jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning. We sympathise deeply with Mr Kearney in his bereavement.

NENAGH CONSTABULARY ATHLETIC SPORTS.

This meeting is fixed for the 28th instant, and judging from present indications, it will be an unqualified success. Over £100 will be given away in prizes. The programme, which is varied and well arranged, will include 16 events, 7 of which will be open to all comers. Of those confined to the constabulary, we notice that for the 440 yards item, the constabulary championship of Munster, the first prize will be a silver challenge cup value £10, to be won two years in succession. This will serve to convey an impression of the substantial nature of the prizes all round. The railway companies are offering facilities to the public for travelling to the sports. The presence of the R. I. C. band will in itself be a great attraction.
 Very much credit is due to County Inspector Letham for having not only granted permission to the men under him to organise the sports, but for assisting energetically himself in bringing about their success.

THE PROPOSED IMPROVED WATER SUPPLY FOR KILKEE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
 Kilkee, July 20, '91.

DEAR SIR—I have read in your issue of Saturday what is intended to be a reply to my former letter on the above subject, from "A Ratepayer" and "Lodge Owner." I must at once say, I do not, cannot, believe your correspondent is a lodge owner; he must be one in some place competing with Kilkee, and has an interest in depreciating what he professes to exalt.

He complains of the tone of my communication, and calls my statements "unguarded and exaggerated," and professes his willingness "to discuss the matter courteously, &c"; but he does more attractive excursions than await th bers and their friends. On the first day, August 11, Lord Kenmare's demesne passed through to visit Ross Castle, Inni and Muckross Abbey. Next day there an excursion to Aghadoc, and, it is said as may desire can go on through the Dunloe and return by boats down the Breathes there a man among the new oldest school of archaeologists who can a the scene and yet be free from such a If one could be discovered, there are enough left to render him a little justice Killarney, after all, forms only one item programme. The third day's excursion w Dingle, and there is plenty to be seen way, besides the Oghams at Ballin From Dingle there will be visits to G Temple Gael, Kilmalkedar, St. Brendar tory, &c., names which by themselves ca interest. The stranger will find himself trict where every step associates him v legends of the dawn of Christianity in To this remote region came bands of u solitaries, who found spiritual delight in landscape, where there were only ro streams, sky and waves to be admired. E of the beehive houses, which were the s many fierce mental conflicts, are still pr and are enough to give interest to any Some of these recluses, in their lengh solitary, made voyages in frail skiffs of h according to the legends, saw the At Plato, the island to which some of the from Paradise were driven, and mar strange things arising from the wave Atlantic. St. Brendan was the most co of all, and the story of his adventures whi the winter night in many a Mediaeval m One of H.M. gunboats and a steam vess available for members who desire to part of the course of the primitive seel the unknown; but the character of the suggested by the official notice that, " the precipitous nature of the Skellig r heavy swell of the Atlantic, and the abs landing-stage, the party will have to d in the ship's boats—a slow process, an to be attempted if the weather is at al Archaeologists who are not heroically ad will find provision has been made f After enjoying Killarney, they can follo course that is safe as it is beautiful. journey of three hours will bring them t lock, the Irish Baalbec, where there is r can be called unique. Limerick comes with it the Shannon, which leads to so is fascinating for eye and mind.—The A

CORPORATION COMMITTEE

The usual weekly meeting of the Co Committees was held at the Town H.
 CLEANSING AND REPAIRING

Alderman D. Landers presided. Also The Mayor, Messrs M. Donnelly, D. Ry
 P. Kenna, J. O'Mara, P. Franklin, J. H Messrs A. C. Wallace, Town Clerk, Forrest, High Constable, were in atten

Mr Donnelly called Mr Kenna's atte statement he made this week. He b was perfectly warranted in the stateme attendance was not what it ought to thought Mr Kenna did him and sev members who were present at another unintentional injustice. He thought would admit, as far as he was conce his attendance would bear favourable with the majority of the members of t (hear, hear). He was sorry for not bei on the last day. He had drawn the a both the Water Committee and the Committee to the fact that both were held at the same time, and unt changed he did not see how they could the difficulty.