THE GRAIN CROP.
The Mark Lane Express says:—February weather thus far has been seasonable, and the farmer has little cause for apprehension or complaint. The course of trade since we left January behind has been more satisfactory than it was during the first month of the year. English wheat has been held with increased firmness at such markets as Lincoln, Southampton, Norwich, Canterbury, Birmingham, Northampton, and St Ives. In Essex offerings have been too liberal for trade to be even firm. Nevertheless, concessions have not been made at Manchester, and also in London the competition of foreign wheat has not sufficed to reduce the value of home produce, the enquiry being sufficient to support both sorts. At Bristol and Wakefield 6d decline has been allowed, but the weak markets are outnumbered and outranked by those which show a better feeling in trade. Foreign wheat has been well supported, considering the good shipments of January. The spring corn trade shows 20 markets out of 23 firm, or dearer for barley; 18 out of 20 firm for oats; 20 out of 21 firm for maize, and 23 out of 25 firm for pulse.
