

...at the show has been the most successful ever held under the auspices of the County Cork Society. As a horse show this is especially the case. The total number of entries amounted to 600, which is far in excess of recent years. The horse jumping contests on yesterday were of the most interesting character.

The following is the result of the horse jumping—

THE PRINCE OF WALES AND THE BACCARAT CASE.—Some of our readers, remarks a Dublin contemporary, may be curious to know whether the imbroglio at Tranby Croft has produced any estrangement between his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and his baccarat friends the Wilsons. They will find an answer to the inquiry in the fact that in the list of those who are honoured with invitations for the garden party given by the Prince and Princess at Marlborough House on Wednesday evening for the German Emperor and Empress were Mr and Mrs Arthur Wilson and Mr A. Stanley Wilson. They are not, it seems, lowered in the Prince's opinion by what has occurred, and he remains their friend, although the judgment of the public is strongly against them.

Judge Warren on Thursday established the will of the late Captain Warden Flood, containing a bequest of £3,000 to Trinity College for the erection of a marble statue of the Right Hon Henry Flood, one of the leading members of the Irish Parliament.

FATAL LANDSLIP ON THE GALWAY AND CLIFDEN RAILWAY.

A fatal accident has occurred at that portion of the new railway line from Galway to Clifden which passes near Oughterard. A young man named John Naughton, who was in charge of a horse and cart, was standing by an embankment while the cart was being loaded, when suddenly the enormous mass gave way, and he was buried under several tons of rocks and clay. The men employed at once proceeded to dig him out, but when they came to the body life was found to be extinct.
