ORDINARY AFFAIR ON BOARD A STEAMER.

erpool correspondent says—An extraordi-urrence has been reported to the Liver-ce as having taken place on board the eamer Mongolian. On Saturday night, e Mongolian, bound from Montreal for ), was approaching Derry, the chief es (Mrs Mason), a woman aged about 35 shed on deck, and, drawing a revolver, Mr Stewart, the purser, who was on the eck. The shot missed him, and Mason ain, the shot striking him in the body. rushed at her for the purpose of disher, when she discharged another of the revolver, the bullet again taking Stewart then caught hold of Mason and the weapon from her, and went to his ere he was attended by the surgeon of golian. Mrs Mason went to her cabin ked herself in. When the Mongolian the Mersey, Stewart, who is said to be at seriously injured, left the vessel, as l Mrs Mason. The affair caused con-excitement amongst the passengers and —“The prolonged silence and continued of Mr John Parnell has (under the cir-ces) been the cause of some anxiety to members of his family. But, from infor-ately received, it appears that he took her's death dreadfully to heart. He was one when the awful and sudden news first him, and for a long time seemed so and pained by it as not to be able to himself. His arrival in Ireland from is now expected in a few days.

The prevalence of typhoid fever in Dublin is becoming quite alarming. Deaths are occurring daily and the hospitals are quite full. The nurses are all occupied, and neither love nor money can procure one for private cases. A lady living in Belgrave-square is stricken down, and her husband is distracted, being unable to obtain a qualified nurse to attend her.
