CYCLING.

BACK TO DUBLIN HANDICAP. Distance 126 miles.)
 Starter—Mr A.A. and B.C.) Timekeeper and F. Walker (L.C.C.) The Road is fortunate to secure a dry day event (the first handicap at the field in Ireland.) The weather was as desired, but the roads, consequent heavy rain, were heavy and s. Owing to the usual detrimental conditions, the acceptance was not coming to the post, but amongst the competition was exceeded and the committee, from the handicap came, have a right to the success of their handiwork. Adam sent the limit man, A R on his journey, A Joyce (W C C), led some fifteen minutes later, A and B C) following in forty Kennedy, the National crack start-up. Wayte went off slowly, and did not get into the work until 10 miles, before Joyce, who started with a terrific lead, disposed of him. The limit man was not disposed of without an effort, and miles succeeded in shaking off the such an extent that at Maryborough a gap of 15 minutes between them, and was maintained until reaching the ere he mistook the road leading to Maryborough, and Joyce and Kennedy followed correct route got well ahead, Joyce led at Inchicore bridge first, having led the distance in 10 hours 2 mins. just 2 mins off, whilst Wayte and Joyce were within 17 mins. The winner was Maryborough to Newbridge by the 12 hours record holder), and returned home by J. Murphy, I.C.C., and J.C.C. Kennedy had the assistance of J. McCreedy as pacemakers from Kill. The winner rode a Raleigh road-racer, and led him quite safely over the journey.
